Film Collecting:

Recollecting Collecting Lucy Fischer, 2023-04-04 Recollecting Collecting interrogates and illustrates the meaning and practical nature of film and media collections while considering the vast array of personal and professional motivations behind their assemblage Film Museum Practice and Film Historiography Bregt Lameris, 2025-10-01 Rich in detail this is a study of the interrelationships between film historical discourse and archival practices Exploring the history of several important collections from the EYE Film Museum in Amsterdam Bregt Lameris shows how archival films and collections always carry the historical traces of selection policies restoration philosophies and exhibition strategies The result is a compelling argument that film archives can never be viewed simply as innocent or neutral sources of film history Film Cultures Janet Harbord, 2002-11-18 Questioning how film connects us to social status and national and global affiliations this book argues that our tastes for film connect us to social spatial and temporal networks of exchange and meaning

Building a Better Chinese Collection for the Library of Congress Chi Wang, 2012-07-02 In this collection of essays written by the former head of the Library of Congress Chinese Collection Chi Wang chronicles the modest beginnings of the Chinese Collection at the Library of Congress and his crusade to transform it into the largest collection and Chinese cultural presence outside Asia For anyone who has ever wondered what goes on inside the marble walls of one of the country's oldest federal institutions Wang relates an insider's account of the major milestones and changes to the administration of the Collection over the years Readers will be surprised not only to learn about some of the rare and priceless books that have found their way to the Library of Congress but also by the candor with which Wang shares his story about serving under three different Librarians of Congress each with a different mandate and mark they wanted to leave behind Building a Better Chinese Collection for the Library of Congress has value as American library history but also serves as a useful introduction to Chinese historical archives and libraries Select writings discuss publication and personnel exchanges with Chinese academic libraries Chinese character encoding and library automation and publishing activities in China Beyond the Multiplex Barbara Klinger, 2023-09-01 Since the mid eighties more audiences have been watching Hollywood movies at home than at movie theaters yet little is known about just how viewers experience film outside of the multiplex This is the first full length study of how contemporary entertainment technologies and media from cable television and VHS to DVD and the Internet shape our encounters with the movies and affect the aesthetic cultural and ideological definitions of cinema Barbara Klinger explores topics such as home theater film collecting classic Hollywood movie reruns repeat viewings and Internet film parodies providing a multifaceted view of the presentation and reception of films in U S households Balancing industry history with theoretical and cultural analysis she finds that today cinema's powerful social presence cannot be fully grasped without considering its prolific recycling in post theatrical venues especially the home Since the mid eighties more audiences have been watching Hollywood movies at home than at movie theaters yet little is known about just how viewers experience film outside of the multiplex This is the first full length study of how contemporary enterta Movies on Home Ground Ian Craven,2020-07-13 Movies on Home Ground Explorations in Amateur Cinema offers a critical response to the still under explored mode of amateur cinema as a particular sphere of British film practice Concentrating upon a roughly fifty year period 1930 1980 during which such filmmaking grew rapidly as a significant leisure activity in Britain the volume shows how popular cine assumed distinctive institutional and ideological forms and some remarkable aesthetic emphases grounded in consistent technical and critical apparatuses Although an outline history of such filmmaking is certainly implicit the priority of Movies On Home Ground is to offer a series of overlapping perspectives on amateur movie making with a view to locating such filmmaking as a component of the broader shape of British film culture Emphasis is thus given to institutional contexts technical determinants and the social formations of practising filmmakers as well as to concerns with the construction of amateur outlooks understandings of amateur aesthetics and the remarkable diversity of amateur genericity The anthology thus supplies a text offering support to study courses dealing with the many varieties of non professional participation best understood as truly amateur rather than as independent or alternative filmmaking By granting the amateur a place within the acknowledged range of significant interventions the recognised canon of British filmmaking is widened in fascinating new directions The Past Is a Moving Picture Janna Jones,2012-07-01 Almost all remnants of culture past and present degrade over time whether sculpture or scrolls painting or papyrus books or clay tablets Perhaps no major cultural record dissolves more rapidly than film arguably the predominant medium of the twentieth century Given the fragility of early nitrate film much has already been lost The fragments that remain whether complete prints of theatrical releases or scraps of everyday life captured by Thomas Edison only hint at what has disappeared More recently archives have been flooded with so much material that they lack the funds to properly preserve it all Both situations raise questions about how film archives shape our understanding of history and culture Janna Jones provides a stunning tour de force analysis of the major assumptions and paradigmatic shifts about history cinema and the moving image archive one that we ignore at our peril in the midst of the overwhelming rush toward digitization No student of film twentieth century history or archiving and preservation can afford to miss The Past Is a Moving Picture Hollywood Spectatorship Melvyn Stokes,Richard Maltby,2019-07-25 This is an examination of the concepts of spectatorship in the light of historical accounts of audience reception The book looks at how audiences have historically talked about Hollywood movies and the ways in which word of mouth responses have affected the reception of individual movies Archival Film Curatorship Grazia Ingravalle,2025-10-01 Archival Film Curatorship is the first book length study that investigates film archives at the intersection of institutional histories early and silent film historiography and archival curatorship It examines three institutions at the forefront of experimentation with film exhibition and curatorship The Eye Film Museum in Amsterdam the George Eastman Museum in Rochester NY and the National Fairground and Circus Archive in Sheffield UK serve as exemplary sites of historical mediation between early and silent cinema and the digital age A range of elements from preservation protocols to technologies of display and from museum architectures to curatorial discourses in blogs catalogs and interviews shape what the author innovatively theorizes as the archive's hermeneutic dispositif Archival Film

Curatorship offers film and preservation scholars a unique take on the shifting definitions histories and uses of the medium of film by those tasked with preserving and presenting it to new digital age audiences

A Thousand Cuts Dennis Bartok, Jeff Joseph, 2016-08-25 A Thousand Cuts is a candid exploration of one of America's strangest and most quickly vanishing subcultures It is about the death of physical film in the digital era and about a paranoid secretive eccentric and sometimes obsessive group of film mad collectors who made movies and their projection a private religion in the time before DVDs and Blu rays The book includes the stories of film historian critic Leonard Maltin TCM host Robert Osborne discussing Rock Hudson's secret 1970s film vault RoboCop producer Jon Davison dropping acid and screening King Kong with Jefferson Airplane at the Fillmore East and Academy Award winning film historian Kevin Brownlow recounting his decades long quest to restore the 1927 Napoleon Other lesser known but equally fascinating subjects include one legged former Broadway dancer Tony Turano who lives in a Norma Desmond like world of decaying movie memories and notorious film pirate Al Beardsley one of the men responsible for putting O J Simpson behind bars Authors Dennis Bartok and Jeff Joseph examine one of the least known episodes in modern legal history the FBI's and Justice Department's campaign to harass intimidate and arrest film dealers and collectors in the early 1970s Many of those persecuted were gay men Victims included Planet of the Apes star Roddy McDowall who was arrested in 1974 for film collecting and forced to name names of fellow collectors including Rock Hudson and Mel Torm A Thousand Cuts explores the obsessions of the colorful individuals who created their own screening rooms spent vast sums negotiated underground networks and even risked legal jeopardy to pursue their passion for real physical film

Photomesic and Photonuclear Processes D. V. Skobel'tsyn, 2013-11-11

Hollywood and the Culture Elite Peter Decherney, 2005 Peter Decherney explores how the concerns of intellectuals and the needs of Hollywood studio heads led to the development of a mutually beneficial relationship during Hollywood's Golden Age 1915 1960 During this period museums universities and government agencies used films to maintain their position as quintessential American institutions transforming movies into an art form and making moviegoing a vital civic institution Decherney's history features an intriguing cast of characters including the poet Vachel Lindsay film producers Adolph Zukor and Joseph Kennedy Hollywood flak Will Hays and philanthropist Nelson Rockefeller He shows how Columbia and Harvard started film studies programs in the 1910s and 1920s to remake American education and American culture And he shows how the Museum of Modern Art the U S Office of War Information and the National Endowment for the Arts worked with Hollywood to fight fascism and communism and to promote American values abroad Hollywood and the Culture Elite offers a unique glimpse into the collaboration between Hollywood and the stewards of high culture to ensure their own survival and profitability      Residual Media Charles R. Acland, 2007 In a society that awaits the new in every medium what happens to last year's new From player pianos to vinyl records and from the typewriter to the telephone Residual Media is an innovative approach to the aging of culture and reveals that ultimately new cultural phenomena rely on encounters with the old

Silent Cinema Paolo Cherchi Usai, 2019-04-04 Paolo Cherchi Usai provides a comprehensive introduction to the study research and preservation of silent cinema from its heyday in the early 20th century to its present day flourishing He traces the history of the moving image in its formative years from Edison's and Lumière's first experiments to the dawn of talkies provides a clear guide to the basics of silent film technology introduces the technical and creative roles involved in its production and presents silent cinema as a performance event rather than a passive viewing experience This new greatly expanded edition takes the reader on a new journey exploring silent cinema in the broader context of technology culture and society from the invention of celluloid film and its related machinery to film studios laboratories theatres and audiences Among the people involved in the creation of a new art form were filmmakers actors and writers but also engineers entrepreneurs and projectionists Their collective efforts and the struggle to preserve their creative work by archives and museums are interwoven in a compelling story covering three centuries of media history from the magic lantern to the reinvention of silent cinema in digital form The new edition also includes comprehensive resource information for the study research preservation and exhibition of silent cinema      Streaming Video Collection Development and Management

Michael Fernandez, Amauri Serrano, 2025-01-23 This accessible how to manual addresses new considerations for libraries in building and managing streaming video collections Streaming video is not new to the library environment but recent years have seen an exponential growth in the number of platforms and titles available for streaming For libraries this has meant an increasingly complex acquisitions landscape with more vendors occupying the marketplace and larger portions of the budget dedicated to streaming Users increasingly expect video content to be available online and on demand and streaming video is increasingly integrated into coursework Michael Fernandez and Amauri Serrano outline the myriad challenges of managing streaming video content across all stages of the electronic resources lifecycle from initial collection decisions to the user's experience of accessing the content At every step they provide practical advice on how to handle these challenges regardless of the size and budget of the institution Librarians at community colleges research institutions specialized schools and public libraries will find this a valuable and engaging guide      Saving Cinema Caroline Frick, 2011-01-21 Saving Cinema investigates the emergence of the film preservation movement from Hollywood to the developing world and examines the field's influence on what has been defined as global film heritage      The Films of Jess Franco Antonio Lázaro-Reboll, Ian Olney, 2018-08-20 The Films of Jess Franco seeks to address the scholarly neglect of this legendary cult director and to broaden the conversation around the director's work in ways that will be of interest to fans and academics alike      The DVD Revolution Aaron Barlow, 2004-12-30 The introduction of the DVD marked the beginning of one of history's most successful technological innovations and capped a 75 year development of home viewing possibilities Never before have film fans had access in their living rooms to something so remarkably close to the theatrical experience In addition because a DVD can hold much more than a single movie it has allowed films to be marketed with a variety of extras sparking both a new packaging industry and greater interest on the part of home viewers This book provides an examination of the DVD s impact both on home viewing and on film study From film fan culture through filmmaker commentaries from special editions to a look at where the format will go from here author Aaron Barlow offers the first ever exploration of this explosive new entertainment phenomenon As the DVD becomes the popular vehicle of record for films it is also becoming a unique and unprecedented way for the interested viewer to learn more about filmmaking than has ever been possible before Because of its ability to reproduce the dimensions and quality of the celluloid image film fans and scholars can have practically perfect reproductions of classic and contemporary films at their disposal Not only will this book be of interest to the burgeoning population of DVD fans and collectors but it will provide insights that should be of interest to both students of popular culture and of film
