Mayer, 2012-09-13 The Historical Dictionary of Crime Films covers the history of this genre through a chronology an introductory essay and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries on key films directors performers and studios This book is an Film, Mobility and Urban Space Les Roberts, 2012-02-21 Drawing on multi disciplinary debates surrounding the cultural production of place space and memory in the post industrial city this study explores the role of moving images in representations and perceptions of everyday urban landscapes It uses a unique spatial database of over 1700 archive films of Liverpool from 1897 to the present day Finance and the World Economy in Weimar Cinema Owen Lyons, 2025-10-01 After the First World War the effects of financial crisis could be felt in all corners of the newly formed Weimar Republic The newly interconnected world economy was barely understood and yet it was increasingly made visible in the films of the time The complexities of this system were reflected on screen to both the everyday spectator as well as a new class of financial workers who looked to popular depictions of speculation and crisis to make sense of their own place on the shifting ground of modern life Finance and the World Economy in Weimar Cinema turns to the many underexamined depictions of finance capital that appear in the films of 1920s Germany The representation of finance capital in these films is essential to our understanding of the culture of the Weimar Republic particularly in the relation between finance and ideas of gender nation and modernity As visual records these films reveal the stock exchange as a key space of modernity and coincide with the abstraction of finance as a vast labour of representation in its own right In so doing they introduce core visual tropes that have become essential to our understanding of finance and capitalism throughout the twentieth century Ida Lupino, Director Therese Grisham, Julie Grossman, 2017-05-23 Dominated by men and bound by the restrictive Hays Code postwar Hollywood offered little support for a female director who sought to make unique films on controversial subjects But Ida Lupino bucked the system writing and directing a string of movies that exposed the dark underside of American society on topics such as rape polio unwed motherhood bigamy exploitative sports and serial murder The first in depth study devoted to Lupino s directorial work this book makes a strong case for her as a trailblazing feminist auteur a filmmaker with a clear signature style and an abiding interest in depicting the plights of postwar American women Ida Lupino Director not only examines her work as a cinematic auteur but also offers a serious consideration of her diverse and long ranging career getting her start in Hollywood as an actress in her teens and twenties directing her first films in her early thirties and later working as an acclaimed director of television westerns sitcoms and suspense dramas It also demonstrates how Lupino fused generic elements of film noir and the social problem film to create a distinctive directorial style that was both highly expressionistic and grittily realistic Ida Lupino Director thus shines a long awaited spotlight on one of our greatest filmmakers

Welcome to Fear City Nathan Holmes,2018-09-26 Analyzes how location shot crime films of the 1970s reflected and influenced understandings of urban crisis The early 1970s were a moment of transformation for both the American city and its cinema As intensified suburbanization racial division deindustrialization and decaying infrastructure cast the future of the city in doubt detective films blaxploitation police procedurals and heist films confronted spectators with contemporary scenes from urban streets Welcome to Fear City argues that the location shot crime films of the 1970s were part of a larger cultural ambivalence felt toward urban life evident in popular magazines architectural discourse urban sociology and visual culture Yet they also helped to reinvigorate the city as a site of variegated experience and a positively disordered public life in stark contrast to the socially homogenous and spatially ordered suburbs Discussing the design of parking garages and street lighting the dynamics of mugging panoramas of ruin and the optics of undercover police operations in such films as Klute The French Connection Detroit 9000 Death Wish and The Taking of Pelham One Two Three Nathan Holmes demonstrates that crime genres did not simply mirror urban settings and social realities but actively produced and circulated new ideas about the shifting surfaces of public culture Rejecting the easy abstractions and postmodern playfulness of noir and neo noir criticism Holmes places 1970s crime films as he says in relation to the urban context that was their location setting and subject He does this brilliantly convincingly and uniquely David Desser former editor Cinema Journal

Landscape and Subjectivity in the Work of Patrick Keiller, W.G. Sebald, and Iain Sinclair David Anderson,2020 Studies the work of British film maker and writer Patrick Keiller German writer W G Sebald and Welsh writer and film maker Iain Sinclair to illustrate how they represent a highly significant moment in English literature and film s engagement with landscape and environment

New Approaches to Cinematic Space Filipa Rosário,Iván Villarrea Álvarez,2018-12-12 New Approaches to Cinematic Space aims to discuss the process of creation of cinematic spaces through moving images and the subsequent interpretation of their purpose and meaning Throughout seventeen chapters this edited collection will attempt to identify and interpret the formal strategies used by different filmmakers to depict real or imaginary places and turn them into abstract conceptual spaces The contributors to this volume will specifically focus on a series of systems of representation that go beyond the mere visual reproduction of a given location to construct a network of meanings that ultimately shapes our spatial worldview      The US-Mexico Border in American Cold War Film Stephanie Fuller,2016-04-29 Through an analysis of Cold War Era films including Border Incident Where Danger Lives and Touch of Evil Stephanie Fuller illustrates how cinema across genres developed an understanding of what the U S Mexico border meant within the American cultural imaginary and the ways in which it worked to produce the border      Flash! Kate Flint,2017 A lively history of flash photography from the nineteenth century to the present that covers diverse topics like race poverty and the paparazzi It surveys the work of professionals and amateurs news hounds and art photographers and photographers of crime and wildlife to highlight the role of flash in popular culture literature and film

Pirate Modernity Ravi Sundaram,2009-07-30 Focusing on the culture of piracy in the Indian capital this book looks at what has happened to the city in the wake of the dissemination of the new media and the ways in which it has and will affect urban cultures in an age of globalization      The Routledge Handbook of Henri Lefebvre, The City and Urban Society Michael E. Leary-Owhin,John P. McCarthy,2019-11-21 The Routledge Handbook of Henri Lefebvre The City and Urban Society is the first edited book to focus on Lefebvre s urban theories and ideas from a global perspective making use of recent theoretical and empirical developments with contributions from eminent as well as emergent global scholars The book provides international comparison of Lefebvrian research and theoretical conjecture and aims to engage with and critique Lefebvre s ideas in the context of contemporary urban social and environmental upheavals to use Lefebvre s spatial triad as a research tool as well as a point of departure for the adoption of ideas such as differential space to reassess Lefebvre s ideas in relation to nature and global environmental sustainability and to highlight how a Lefebvrian approach might assist in mobilising resistance to the excesses of globalised neoliberal urbanism The volume draws inspiration from Lefebvre s key texts The Production of Space Critique of Everyday Life and The Urban Revolution and includes a comprehensive introduction and concluding chapter by the editors The conclusions highlight implications in relation to increasing spatial inequalities increasing diversity of needs including those of migrants more authoritarian approaches and asymmetries of access to urban space Above all the book illustrates the continuing relevance of Lefebvre s ideas for contemporary urban issues and shows via global case studies how resistance to spatial domination by powerful interests might be achieved The Handbook helps the reader navigate the complex terrain of spatial research inspired by Lefebvre In particular the Handbook focuses on the series of struggles globally for the right to the city and the collision of debates around the urban age cityism and planetary urbanisation It will be a guide for graduate and advanced undergraduate teaching and a key reference for academics in the fields of Human Geography Sociology Political Science Applied Philosophy Planning Urban Theory and Urban Studies Practitioners and activists in the field will also find the book of relevance      Literature in the First Media Age David Trotter,2013-12-31 Communications technology is an idea about the prosthetic enhancement of our capacity to communicate Some of the writers who first woke up to this fact lived and wrote in Britain between the World Wars Here

David Trotter creates a new literary canon of works distinguished by their alertness to the implications of new media and materials

Therapeutic Revolutions Martin Halliwell, 2013-04-19 Therapeutic Revolutions examines the evolving relationship between American medicine psychiatry and culture from World War II to the dawn of the 1970s In this richly layered intellectual history Martin Halliwell ranges from national politics public reports and healthcare debates to the ways in which film literature and the mass media provided cultural channels for shaping and challenging preconceptions about health and illness Beginning with a discussion of the profound impact of World War II and the Cold War on mental health Halliwell moves from the influence of work family and growing up in the Eisenhower years to the critique of institutional practice and the search for alternative therapeutic communities during the 1960s Blending a discussion of such influential postwar thinkers as Erich Fromm William Menninger Erving Goffman Erik Erikson and Herbert Marcuse with perceptive readings of a range of cultural text that illuminate mental health issues among them Spellbound Shock Corridor Revolutionary Road and I Never Promised You a Rose Garden this compelling study argues that the postwar therapeutic revolutions closely interlink contrasting discourses of authority and liberation

The Accidental Possibilities of the City Katherine Smith, 2021-03-02 Claes Oldenburg's commitment to familiar objects has shaped accounts of his career but his associations with Pop art and postwar consumerism have overshadowed another crucial aspect of his work In this revealing reassessment Katherine Smith traces Oldenburg's profound responses to shifting urban conditions framing his enduring relationship with the city as a critical perspective and conceiving his art as urban theory Smith argues that Oldenburg adapted lessons of context gleaned from New York's changing cityscape in the late 1950s to large scale objects and architectural plans By examining disparate projects from New York to Los Angeles she situates Oldenburg's innovations in local geographies and national debates In doing so Smith illuminates patterns of urbanization through the important contributions of one of the leading artists in the United States

Continental Strangers Gerd Gemünden, 2014-01-21 Hundreds of German speaking film professionals took refuge in Hollywood during the 1930s and 1940s making a lasting contribution to American cinema Hailing from Austria Hungary Poland Russia and the Ukraine as well as Germany and including Ernst Lubitsch Fred Zinnemann Billy Wilder and Fritz Lang these multicultural multilingual writers and directors betrayed distinct cultural sensibilities in their art Gerd Gemünden focuses on Edgar G Ulmer's The Black Cat 1934 William Dieterle's The Life of Emile Zola 1937 Ernst Lubitsch's To Be or Not to Be 1942 Bertolt Brecht and Fritz Lang's Hangmen Also Die 1943 Fred Zinnemann's Act of Violence 1948 and Peter Lorre's Der Verlorene 1951 engaging with issues of realism auteurism and genre while tracing the relationship between film and history Hollywood politics and censorship and exile and re migration

Locating the Moving Image Julia Hallam, Les Roberts, 2021-12-22 Essays exploring the methodologies used by film scholars to develop a spatial history of the moving image Leading scholars in the interdisciplinary field of geo spatial visual studies examine the social experience of cinema and the different ways in which film production developed as a commercial enterprise as a leisure activity and as modes of expression and communication Their research charts new pathways in mapping the relationship between film production and local film practices theatrical exhibition circuits and cinema going creating new forms of spatial anthropology Topics include cinematic practices in rural and urban communities development of cinema by amateur filmmakers and use of GIS in mapping the spatial development of film production and cinema going as social practices Introduces some of the concrete ways practical mapping and GIS technologies help elaborate historical film projects The scope of many of these projects is breathtaking in scale Others embrace ethnographic methods that tell poignant individual stories Still others deftly merge qualitative and quantitative approaches As a whole the volume brings together disparate fields of study in interesting ways James Craine California State University Northridge This collection breaks new ground for cinema history Hallam and Roberts have gathered some of the foremost scholars who are mapping spatial histories of the moving image and the geographies of film production distribution and consumption Introducing new interdisciplinary methods and asking new questions Locating the Moving Image takes film studies into new territory beyond the boundaries of the text and its interpretation towards an understanding of the relationship between culture spatiality and place Richard Maltby Matthew Flinders Distinguished Professor of Screen Studies Flinders University
