Charlie Chaplin's classics such as Modern Times 1936 and The Great Dictator 1940 to contemporary comedies and dramas with trickster actors such as Jim Carrey, Sacha Baron Cohen, Andy Kaufman and Jack Nicholson. The Trickster in Contemporary Film offers a fresh perspective on the trickster figure not only in cinema but in Western culture in general. Alongside original film analyses it touches upon a number of psychosocial issues including sovereignty of the individual, tricksterish qualities of the media and human relationships in the mercurial digital age. Further topics of discussion include common motifs in trickster narratives, the trickster and personal relationships, gonzo trickster and the art of comic insurrection. Employing a number of complementary approaches such as Jungian psychology, film semiotics, narrative structure theories, Victor Turner's concept of liminality and Mikhail Bakhtin's theory of the carnivalesque, this book is essential reading for students and scholars of film as well as anyone with an interest in analytical psychology and wider critical issues in contemporary culture.
