Identity, Nationhood and Bangladesh Independent Cinema Fahmidul Haq, Brian Shoesmith, 2022-07-08. This book analyses how independent filmmakers from Bangladesh have represented national identity in their films. The focus of this book is on independent and art house filmmakers and how cinema plays a vital role in constructing national and cultural identity. The authors examine post-2000 films which predominantly deal with issues of national identity and demonstrate how they tackle questions of national identity. Bangladesh is seemingly a homogenous country consisting 98% of Bengali and 90% of Muslim. This majority group has two dominant identities Bengalianness the ethno linguistic identity and Muslimness the religious identity Bengalianness is perceived as secular modern whereas Muslimness is perceived as traditional and conservative However Bangladeshi independent and art house filmmakers portray the nationhood of the country with an enthusiasm and liveliness that exceeds these two categories In addition to these categories the authors add two more dimensions to the approach to discuss identity Popular Religion and Transformation The study argues that these identity categories are represented in the films and that they both reproduce and challenge dominant discourses of nationalism Providing a new addition to the discourse of contemporary national identity the book will be of interest to researchers studying international film and media studies independent cinema studies Asian cinema and South Asian culture politics and identity politics Thirty-two New Takes on Taiwan Cinema Emilie Yueh-yu Yeh, Darrell William Davis, Wenchi Lin, Wenqi Lin, 2022-12-22 Thirty two New Takes on Taiwan Cinema covers thirty two films from Taiwan addressing a flowering of new talent moving from art film to genre pictures and nonfiction Beyond the conventional framework of privileging New and Post New Cinema or prominence of auteurs or single films this volume is a comprehensive judicious take on Taiwan cinema that fills gaps in the literature offers a renewed historiography and introduces new creative force and voices of Taiwan's moving image culture to produce a leading and accessible work on Taiwan film and culture Film by film is conceived as the main carrier of moving picture imagery for a majority of viewers across the world The curation offers an array of formal historical genre sexual social and political frames which provide a rich brew of contexts This surfeit of meanings is carried by individual films one by one which breaks down abstractions into narrative bites and outsized emotions Entertainment and the Arts in Great Britain British Information Services, 1956

No Man an Island James Udden, 2017-11-21 Taiwan is a peculiar place resulting in a peculiar cinema with Hou Hsiao hsien being its most remarkable product Hou's signature long and static shots almost invite critics to give auteurist readings of his films often privileging the analysis of cinematic techniques at the expense of the context from which Hou emerges In this pioneering study James Udden argues instead that the Taiwanese experience is the key to understanding Hou's art The convoluted history of Taiwan in the last century has often rendered fixed social and political categories irrelevant Changing circumstances have forced the people in Taiwan to be hyperaware of how imaginary identity above all national identity is Hou translates this larger state of affairs in such masterpieces as City of Sadness The Puppetmaster and Flowers of Shanghai which capture and perhaps even embody the elusive slippery contours of the collective experience of the islanders Making extensive uses of Chinese sources from Taiwan the author shows how important the local matters for this globally recognized director In this new edition of No Man an Island James Udden charts a new chapter in the evolving art of Hou Hsiao hsien whose latest film The Assassin earned him the Best Director Award at the Cannes Film Festival in 2015 Hou breaks new ground in turning the classic wuxia genre into a vehicle to express his unique insight into the working of history The unconventional approach to conventions is quintessential Hou Hsiao hsien An excellent and groundbreaking volume This book's very precise analyses of the films as well as their context make it the primary source for any scholar working on Hou in English. Chris Berry, King's College London. In this first book-length study on Hou Hsiao-hsien, James Udden illuminates the most intriguing yet mystifying filmmaker in world cinema. No Man an Island is without doubt a major contribution to the fields of Chinese language cinema and film studies. Emilie Yueh-yu Yeh, Lingnan University, Hong Kong.
