Film Diary 1989:

To Free the Cinema David E. James, 2020-10-06 Jonas Mekas one of the driving forces behind New York's alternative film culture from the 1950s through the 1980s made for an unlikely counterculture hero a Lithuanian emigré and fervent nationalist from an agrarian family he had not grown up with either capitalist commercialism or the postwar rebellion against it By focusing on his sensitivity to political struggle however leading film commentators here offer fascinating insights into Mekas's career as a writer film distributor and film maker while exploring the history of independent cinema in New York since World War II This collection of essays interviews and photographs addresses such topics as Mekas's column in the Village Voice his foundation and editorship of Film Culture his role in the establishment of Anthology Film Archives and The Film Makers Co op the major distribution center for independent film his interaction with other artists including John Lennon and Yoko Ono and finally the critical assessment of his own films from Guns of the Trees and The Brig in the sixties to the diary films that followed Walden The contributors to this volume are Paul Arthur Vyt Bakaitis Stan Brakhage Robert Breer Rudy Burckhardt David Curtis Richard Foreman Tom Gunning Bob Harris J Hoberman David E James Marjorie Keller Peter Kubelka George Kuchar Richard Leacock Barbara Moore Peter Moore Scott Nygren John Pruitt Lauren Rabinovitz Michael Renov Jeffrey K Ruoff and Maureen Turim

New York Magazine, 1990-07-02 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea

Notable American Women with Czechoslovak Roots Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2019-09-16 Even though there exist only a few general studies on the subject of Czechoslovak American women this is not at all a reflection of the paucity of work done by these women as this publication demonstrates This monograph is a compendium of notable American women with Czechoslovak roots who distinguished themselves in a particular field or area from the time they first immigrated to America to date Included are not only individuals born on the territory of former Czechoslovakia but also their descendants This project has been approached strictly geographically irrespective of the language or ethnicity Because of the lack of bibliographical information most of the monograph comprises biobibliographical information in which area a plethora of information exists As the reader will discover these women have been involved practically in every field of human endeavor in numbers that surprise On the whole they have been noted for their independent spirit and nonconforming role

Women and Experimental Filmmaking Jean Petrolle, Virginia Wright Wexman, 2005 Women and Experimental Filmmaking gathers essays by some of the top scholars in cinema studies dealing with women experimental filmmakers Tracking the topic across racial economic geographic and even temporal boundaries Jean Petrolle and Virginia Wexman's selections reflect the deep diversity of methodologies and research The introduction sets out by addressing the basic difficulties of both historiography and definition before providing a historical overview of how these particular filmmakers have helped shape moviemaking traditions The essays explore the major theoretical controversies that have arisen around the work of groundbreaking women such as Leslie Thornton Su Friedrich Nina Menkes and Faith Hubley With the film makers representations of women s subjectivity ranging across film video digital media ethnography animation and collage Women and Experimental Filmmaking represents the full spectrum of genres techniques and modes

Albanian Cinema through the Fall of Communism Bruce Williams,2025-10-01 Albanian cinema truly represents a terra incognita for most of the world Decidedly Europe s most isolated country during the Cold War era communist Albania had already been cut off from the West for centuries as a one of the western most outposts of the Ottoman empire Nonetheless and unknown to most of the world communist Albania had a vibrant cinema tradition Although bound by official orthodoxy the films of the state run Kinostudio enterprise were surprisingly innovative and at times daringly subversive This book opens with examinations of moving images in Albania from the Ottoman period through those captured under independence and the Fascist occupation It subsequently foregrounds transformations in Kinostudio from the early optimism of socialist realism through the brooding social angst of the 1980s which constitute a bridge to the socioeconomic concerns of Albanian films of the postcommunist period
