About the Author

Tony Thomas has been able to turn his lifelong fascination with the moving and film composition into several careers. During his twenty-year association with the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation as an announcer, writer, and producer he prepared and informed countless radio and television programs about films and film personalities. He was the first of many from Hollywood in a CBC correspondence in 1971 and over the years managed to interview a large number of stars, directors, producers, and composers. A resident of California since 1968, Thomas has written sixteen books on the history of films, including studies of the careers of Marlon Brando, Gene Kelly, Buster Keaton, and Gregory Peck and Made for the Movies, published by A.S. Barnes and Co. in 1972. He has also been active as a producer of recordings of film music and scripted his own company, Canada's first, in 1976. Thomas is producer of writing and producing for television, and his work on the 20th Century Fox TV series "The Hollywood" gained a great many enthusiasts. He is the father of three children, sons Richard and David and daughter Joshua, and hopes to produce many more books, recordings, and broadcasts to come.
