Filming The Everyday:

Filming the Everyday Paul Pickowicz, Yingjin Zhang, 2017 This cutting edge book examines the rapidly developing scene of Chinese independent documentary arguably the most courageous player in contemporary Chinese visual culture The authors explore two areas that are of special interest to China studies and film studies respectively 1 filming the everyday in twenty first century China to foreground contestation and diversity and 2 exploring the aesthetic of remembering in an embodied documentary practice which turns the gaze on artists themselves and encourages the viewer's engagement with the filmed subjects and environment Highlighting documentary contestation in China the book traces its cacophony of expressions some of it featuring confrontations with domineering elites some of it highlighting negotiations among the independent filmmakers themselves Their goal is not a movement that seeks to establish and impose a single truth but rather a creative dynamic that fosters a community of tolerance and respects diverse forms of expression Independent documentary is quite literally a moving target that is witnessing ongoing and widening diversity and complexity when it comes to directors themes aesthetics human subjects audiences and impact The authors stress the enormous potential of cultural production that features non elites including amateurs and that dwells on the everyday the bottom up the grassroots the seemingly mundane and the apparently marginal The book's emphasis on contemporary issues and its discussion of aesthetic experiments will appeal to all readers interested in China's culture media politics and society

Three Documentary Filmmakers William Rothman, 2009-03-05 Uses new critical approaches to demonstrate deep affinities in these vastly different filmmakers philosophies on film fantasy and reality

The Essay Film Timothy Corrigan, 2011-12-01 Why have certain kinds of documentary and non narrative films emerged as the most interesting exciting and provocative movies made in the last twenty years Ranging from the films of Ross McElwee Bright Leaves and Agnès Varda The Gleaners and I to those of Abbas Kiarostami Close Up and Ari Folman Waltz with Bashir such films have intrigued viewers who at the same time have struggled to categorize them Sometimes described as personal documentaries or diary films these eclectic works are rather best understood as cinematic variations on the essay So argues Tim Corrigan in this stimulating and necessary new book Since Michel de Montaigne essays have been seen as a lively literary category and yet despite the work of pioneers like Chris Marker seldom discussed as a cinematic tradition The Essay Film offering a thoughtful account of the long rapport between literature and film as well as novel interpretations and theoretical models provides the ideas that will change this

The Adventure of the Real Paul Henley, 2010-01-15 Though relatively unsung in the English speaking world Jean Rouch 1917-2004 was a towering figure of ethnographic cinema Over the course of a fifty year career he completed over one hundred films both documentary and fiction and exerted an influence far beyond academia Exhaustively researched yet elegantly written The Adventure of the Real is the first comprehensive analysis of his practical filmmaking methods Rouch developed these methods while conducting anthropological research in West Africa in the 1940s 1950s His innovative use of unscripted improvisation by his subjects had a profound impact on the French New Wave Paul Henley reveals while his documentary work launched the genre of cinema vérité In addition to tracking Rouch's pioneering career Henley examines the technical strategies aesthetic considerations and ethical positions that contribute to Rouch's cinematographic legacy Featuring over one hundred and fifty images The Adventure of the Real is an essential introduction to Rouch's work Essays on the Essay Film Nora M. Alter, Timothy Corrigan, 2017-03-14 The essay with its emphasis on the provisional and explorative rather than on definitive statements has evolved from its literary beginnings and is now found in all mediums including film Today the essay film is arguably one of the most widely acclaimed and critically discussed forms of filmmaking around the world with practitioners such as Chris Marker Hito Steyerl Errol Morris Trinh T Minh-ha and Rithy Panh Characteristics of the essay film include the blending of fact and fiction the mixing of art and documentary film styles the foregrounding of subjective points of view a concentration on public life a tension between acoustic and visual discourses and a dialogic encounter with audiences This anthology of fundamental statements on the essay film offers a range of crucial historical and philosophical perspectives It provides early critical articulations of the essay film as it evolved through the 1950s and 1960s key contemporary scholarly essays and a selection of writings by essay filmmakers It features texts on the foundations of the essay film by writers such as Hans Richter and André Bazin contemporary positions by among others Phillip Lopate and Michael Renov and original essays by filmmakers themselves including Laura Mulvey and Isaac Julien Film Talk Wheeler Winston Dixon, 2007-07-11 What 1970s Hollywood filmmaker influenced Quentin Tarantino How have contemporary Japanese horror films inspired Takashi Shimizu director of the huge box office hit The Grudge What is it like to be an African American director in the twenty-first century The answers to these questions along with many more little-known facts and insights can be found in Film Talk an in-depth behind-the-scenes look at filmmaking from the 1940s to the present In eleven intimate and revealing interviews contemporary film directors speak frankly about their work their successes and their disappointments their personal aspirations struggles relationships and the politics that affect the industry A medley of directors including those working in pop culture and documentary as well as feminist filmmakers social satirists and Hollywood mavericks recount stories that have never before been published Among them are Monte Hellman the auteur of the minimalist masterpiece Two Lane Blacktop Albert Maysles who with his late brother David created some of the most important documentaries of the 1960s including Salesman and The Beatles What's Happening Robert Downey Sr whose social satires Putney Swope and Greaser's Palace paved the way for a generation of filmmakers Bennett Miller whose film Capote won an Academy Award in 2005 and Jamie Babbit a lesbian crossover director whose low-budget film But I'm a Cheerleader became a mainstream hit The candid conversations complimented by more than fifty photographs including many that are rare make this book essential reading for aspiring moviemakers film scholars and everyone interested in the how movies are made and who the fascinating individuals are who make them In the Limelight and Under the Microscope Diane Negra, Su

Holmes,2011-03-17 This timely collection explores the politics of female celebrity across a range of contemporary and historical media contexts Amidst concerns about the apparent decline in the currency of modern fame famous for being famous as well as debates about the shifting parameters of public private visibility it is female celebrities who are positioned as the most active discursive terrain This collection seeks to interrogate such phenomena by forging a greater conceptual theoretical and historical dialogue between celebrity studies and critical gender studies It takes as its starting point the understanding that female celebrity is a particularly fraught cultural phenomenon with ideological and industrial implications that warrant careful scrutiny In moving across case studies from the 19th century to the present day this book works from the assumption that the case study should play a crucial role in generating debate about the dialogue between past and present and the individual essays seek to reflect this spirit of enquiry The Film Renter and Moving Picture News

,1927 Innovations in Deaf Studies Annelies Kusters, Maartje De Meulder, Dai O'Brien,2017-04-14 What does it mean to engage in Deaf Studies and who gets to define the field What would a truly deaf led Deaf Studies research program look like What are the research practices of deaf scholars in Deaf Studies and how do they relate to deaf research participants and communities What innovations do deaf scholars deem necessary in the field of Deaf Studies In Innovations in Deaf Studies The Role of Deaf Scholars volume editors Annelies Kusters Maartje De Meulder and Dai O'Brien and their contributing authors tackle these questions and more Spurred by a gradual increase in the number of Deaf Studies scholars who are deaf and by new theoretical trends in Deaf Studies this book creates an important space for contributions from deaf researchers to see what happens when they enter into the conversation Innovations in Deaf Studies expertly foregrounds deaf ontologies defined as deaf ways of being and how the experience of being deaf is central not only to deaf research participants own ontologies but also to the positionality and framework of the study as a whole Further this book demonstrates that the research and methodology built around those ontologies offer suggestions for new ways for the discipline to meet the challenges of the present which includes productive and ongoing collaboration with hearing researchers Providing fascinating perspective and insight Kusters De Meulder O'Brien and their contributors all focus on the underdeveloped strands within Deaf Studies particularly on areas around deaf people's communities ideologies literature religion language practices and political aspirations The Hollywood Action and Adventure Film Yvonne Tasker,2015-06-15

The Hollywood Action and Adventure Film presents a comprehensive overview and analysis of the history myriad themes and critical approaches to the action and adventure genre in American cinema Draws on a wide range of examples spanning the silent spectacles of early cinema to the iconic superheroes of 21st century action films Features case studies revealing the genre's diverse roots from westerns and war films to crime and espionage movies Explores a rich variety of aesthetic and thematic concerns that have come to define the genre touching on themes such as the outsider hero violence and redemption and adventure as escape from the mundane Integrates discussion of gender race ethnicity and nationality alongside genre history

Provides a timely and richly revealing portrait of a powerful cinematic genre that has increasingly come to dominate the American cinematic landscape

Beyond observation Paul Henley, 2020-01-20 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license Beyond Observation is structured by the argument that the ethnographicness of a film should not be determined by the fact that it is about an exotic culture the popular view nor because it has apparently not been authored a long standing academic view but rather because it adheres to the norms of ethnographic practice more generally On these grounds the book covers a large number of films made in a broad range of styles across a 120 year period from the Arctic to Africa from the cities of China to rural Vermont Paul Henley discusses films made within reportage exotic melodrama and travelogue genres in the period before the Second World War as well as more conventionally ethnographic films made for academic or state funded educational purposes The book explores the work of film makers such as John Marshall Asen Balikci Ian Dunlop and Timothy Asch in the post war period considering ideas about authorship developed by Jean Rouch Robert Gardner and Colin Young It also discusses films authored by indigenous subjects themselves using the new video technology of the 1970s and the ethnographic films that flourished on British television until the 1990s In the final part of the book Henley examines the recent work of David and Judith MacDougall and the Harvard Sensory Ethnography Lab before concluding with an assessment of a range of films authored in a participatory manner as possible future models

The Columbia Companion to American History on Film Peter C. Rollins, 2004-03-24 American history has always been an irresistible source of inspiration for filmmakers and today for good or ill most Americans sense of the past likely comes more from Hollywood than from the works of historians In important films such as The Birth of a Nation 1915 Roots 1977 Apocalypse Now 1979 and Saving Private Ryan 1998 how much is entertainment and how much is rooted in historical fact In The Columbia Companion to American History on Film more than seventy scholars consider the gap between history and Hollywood They examine how filmmakers have presented and interpreted the most important events topics eras and figures in the American past often comparing the film versions of events with the interpretations of the best historians who have explored the topic Divided into eight broad categories Eras Wars and Other Major Events Notable People Groups Institutions and Movements Places Themes and Topics and Myths and Heroes the volume features extensive cross references a filmography of discussed and relevant films notes and a bibliography of selected historical works on each subject The Columbia Companion to American History on Film is also an important resource for teachers with extensive information for research or for course development appropriate for both high school and college students Though each essay reflects the unique body of film and print works covering the subject at hand every essay addresses several fundamental questions What are the key films on this topic What sources did the filmmaker use and how did the film deviate or remain true to its sources How have film interpretations of a particular historical topic changed and what sorts of factors technological social political historiographical have affected their evolution Have filmmakers altered the historical record with a view to enhancing drama or to enhance the truth of their putative message      Documenting Syria Josepha Ivanka Wessels, 2019-07-11 Syria is now one of the most important countries in the world for the documentary film industry Since the 1970s Syrian cinema masters played a defining role in avant garde filmmaking and political dissent against authoritarianism After the outbreak of violence in 2011 an estimated 500 000 video clips were uploaded making it one of the first YouTubed revolutions in history This book is the first history of documentary filmmaking in Syria Based on extensive media ethnography and in depth interviews with Syrian filmmakers in exile the book offers an archival analysis of the documentary work by masters of Syrian cinema such as Nabil Maleh Ossama Mohammed Mohammed Malas Hala Al Abdallah Hanna Ward Ali Atassi and Omar Amiralay Joshka Wessels traces how the works of these filmmakers became iconic for a new generation of filmmakers at the beginning of the 21st century and maps the radical change in the documentary landscape after the revolution of 2011 Special attention is paid to the late Syrian filmmaker and pro democracy activist Bassel Shehadeh and the video resistance from Aleppo and Raqqa against the regime of President Bashar al Assad and the Islamic State An essential resource for scholars of Syrian Studies this book will also be highly relevant to the fields of media conflict research anthropology and political science      Cinematic Journeys: Tracing the Roots of Film, Its Makers, and Artistic Impact Anthony Hardy, Cinematic Journeys is a comprehensive exploration of the captivating world of film from its humble beginnings to its profound impact on art and society This book traces the evolution of filmmaking from the invention of the camera to the advent of digital technology It delves into the stories of legendary filmmakers and their groundbreaking works shedding light on the creative genius and technical mastery that have shaped the medium Through detailed analyses of iconic scenes and films Cinematic Journeys explores the power of cinema to evoke emotions challenge perspectives and illuminate the human experience Why This Book Cinematic Journeys is an indispensable resource for anyone interested in the history and art of film It provides a thorough understanding of the technical aesthetic and cultural aspects of filmmaking making it a valuable tool for students scholars and film enthusiasts alike Cinematic Journeys is tailored to readers with a passion for film including aspiring filmmakers film critics cinema historians and anyone seeking a deeper appreciation for the art form It is written in an accessible and engaging style making it a captivating read for both casual and experienced film enthusiasts Cinematic Journeys is an essential guide to the world of film offering a comprehensive and captivating exploration of its history makers and artistic impact Whether you are a seasoned film buff or just beginning your cinematic journey this book will provide you with invaluable insights and a newfound appreciation for the transformative power of film

Transcendental Style in Film Paul Schrader, 2018-05-18 With a new introduction acclaimed director and screenwriter Paul Schrader revisits and updates his contemplation of slow cinema over the past fifty years Unlike the style of psychological realism which dominates film the transcendental style expresses a spiritual state by means of austere camerawork acting devoid of self consciousness and editing that avoids editorial comment This seminal text analyzes the film style of three great directors Yasujiro Ozu Robert Bresson and Carl Dreyer and posits a common dramatic language used by these artists from divergent cultures The new edition updates Schrader s theoretical framework and extends his theory to the works of Andrei Tarkovsky Russia B la Tarr Hungary Theo Angelopoulos Greece and Nuri Bilge Ceylan Turkey among others This key work by one of our most searching directors and writers is widely cited and used in film and art classes With evocative prose and nimble associations Schrader consistently urges readers and viewers alike to keep exploring the world of the art film

Imaging Religion in Film M. Gail Hamner,2012-01-25 This book offers a new methodology for examining the ethico political dimensions of religion and film which foregrounds film s social power both to shape subjectivity and to image contemporary social contradictions and analyses three specific films Kurosawa s Dersu Uzala Kiarostami s Taste of Cherry and the Coens The Man Who Wasn t There

Avant-doc Scott MacDonald,2015 MacDonald explores the cinematic territory between the traditional categories of documentary and avant garde film through candid in depth conversations with filmmakers whose work has challenged these categories Arranged in an imaginative chronology and written to be accessible to any film interested reader the interviews in Avant Doc chart half a century of thinking by inventive filmmakers such as Robert Gardner Ed Pincus Alfred Guzzetti Ross McElwee Leonard Retel Helmrich Michael Glawogger Susana de Sousa Dias Jonathan Caouette Pawel Wojtasik and Todd Haynes Recent breakthroughs by Amie Siegel Jane Gillooly Jennifer Proctor Betzy Bromberg and Godfrey Reggio are discussed and considerable attention is paid to Harvard s innovative Sensory Ethnography Lab producer of Sweetgrass Leviathan and Manakamana A rare interview with pioneering scholar Annette Michelson begins Avant Doc s meta conversation

Black Arts West Daniel Widener,2010-03-08 A social and cultural history of African American arts activity in Los Angeles between the Second World War and the 1992 riots

The Autobiographical Documentary in America Jim Lane,2002-04-29 Since the late 1960s American film and video makers of all genres have been fascinated with themes of self and identity Though the documentary form is most often used to capture the lives of others Jim Lane turns his lens on those media makers who document their own lives and identities He looks at the ways in which autobiographical documentaries including Roger and Me Sherman s March and Silverlake Life raise weighty questions about American cultural life What is the role of women in society What does it mean to die from AIDS How do race and class play out in our personal lives What does it mean to be a member of a family Examining the history diversity and theoretical underpinnings of this increasingly popular documentary form Lane tracks a fundamental transformation of notions of both autobiography and documentary
