Documentary Film and Radical Psychiatry Des O'Rawe, 2024-12-19 This book examines how documentary film responded to the methods and controversies associated with radical psychiatry especially during the long 1960s Broad in scope and comparative in approach it discusses a range of films in terms of how their production histories and visual styles were influenced by wider cultural technological and autobiographical factors The book argues that documentary filmmaking offers both an important critical perspective on psychiatric treatments institutions and attitudes as well as contributing to a critique of how normative modes of being are constructed across mainstream media and popular culture In their negotiations with the politics of psychiatry such films will often question the ethnographic and observational integrity of the documentary or non fiction form itself especially when it adopts diaristic interactive socially engaged and advocatory strategies to represent mental illness and healthcare provision The relationship between documentary film and the constellation of insights arguments communities and individuals associated with the moment of radical psychiatry remains a complex but indispensable legacy of the post war era

Once Upon A Prime Time Ananth Mahadevan, 2020-07-20 In Once Upon A Prime Time Ananth Mahadevan pens the memoirs of his journey on Indian television From first hand experiences with film makers who were the founding fathers of television serials to today's consumerism driven shows he has tasted them all The book reads like an autobiography yet covers virtually every major player who was responsible for the nostalgia that Indian television now evokes It incorporates exclusive moments with many celebrities and award winning directors Join the actors on their sets as they perform for television and learn about the stories that made the shows come to life Covering artistes and makers who impacted our world such as Amitabh Bachchan Hrishikesh Mukherjee Sai Paranjpye Basu Chatterjee Kundan Shah Ravi Chopra Ramesh Sippy Farooque Shaikh Aziz Mirza Gulzar and Govind Nihalani The book is in all probability the first ever story of Indian television Besides taking one down memory lane this could be a throwback for all those connected with the medium past and present It gives you a feeling of travelling through time and watching history being made behind the scenes The book reads like an autobiography but covers every major player who was responsible for the nostalgia that Indian television now evokes Hema Malini

Shooting in the Wild Chris Palmer,2010-05-11 Wildlife and nature films are a hugely popular entertainment genre networks such as Animal Planet and Discovery are stars in the cable television universe viewers flock to IMAX theaters to see jaw dropping footage from the wild and the venerable BBC still scores triumphs with series such as Planet Earth As cinematic technology brings ever more breathtaking images to the screen and as our direct contact with nature diminishes an ever expanding audience craves the indirect experience of wild nature that these films provide But this success has a dark side as Chris Palmer reveals in his authoritative and engrossing report on the wildlife film business A veteran producer and film educator Palmer looks past the headlines about TV host Steve Irwin s death by stingray and filmmaker Timothy Treadwell falling prey to his beloved grizzlies to uncover a more pervasive and troubling trend toward sensationalism extreme risk taking and even abuse in wildlife films He tracks the roots of this trend to the early days of the genre and he profiles a new breed of skilled ethical filmmakers whose work enlightens as well as entertains and who represent the future that Palmer envisions for the industry he loves

Biko's Ghost Shannen L. Hill,2015-05-21 When you say Black is Beautiful what in fact you are saying is Man you are okay as you are begin to look upon yourself as a human being With such statements Stephen Biko became the voice of Black Consciousness And with Biko s brutal death in the custody of the South African police he became a martyr an enduring symbol of the horrors of apartheid Through the lens of visual culture Biko s Ghost reveals how the man and the ideology he promoted have profoundly influenced liberation politics and race discourse in South Africa and around the globe ever since Tracing the linked histories of Black Consciousness and its most famous proponent Biko s Ghost explores the concepts of unity ancestry and action that lie at the heart of the ideology and the man It challenges the dominant historical view of Black Consciousness as ineffectual or racially exclusive suppressed on the one side by the apartheid regime and on the other by the African National Congress Engaging theories of trauma and representation and icon and ideology Shannen L Hill considers the martyred Biko as an embattled icon his image portrayals assuming different shapes and political meanings in different hands So too does she illuminate how Black Consciousness worked behind the scenes throughout the 1980s a decade of heightened popular unrest and state censorship She shows how in streams of imagery that continue to multiply nearly forty years on Biko s visage and the ongoing life of Black Consciousness served as instruments through which artists could combat the abuses of apartheid and unsettle the rainbow nation that followed

Why Docudrama? Alan Rosenthal,1999 Defining and examining the rationale of docudrama the nine essayists in the first part discuss the history and development of docudrama on TV and in film they also consider the place of truth in docudrama the main critiques of the form and the audience s susceptibilities and expectations In investigating the actual filmmaking process the eight essays in the second part focus on how docudrama as a commodity is created in the United States and England Part essay part case study and part interview this section also explores how Hollywood and the commercial networks as well as producers and writers work and think The final part presents an in depth critique of a number of controversial docudramas that have helped form and shape public opinion including Battleship Potemkin Roots Reds JFK Mississippi Burning Schindler s List and In the Name of the Father Making A Bridge Too Far Simon Lewis,2024-05-07 A Bridge Too Far released in 1977 proved to be the last epic WWII movie made in the Hollywood studio system Its ambitious goal to recreate the doomed Allied plan called Operation Market Garden in September 1944 Market Garden s goal was to surprise the Germans with a mammoth parachute drop behind their lines and bring a quick end to the war but the plan became a disaster for the Allies with the battle for the Arnhem bridge vicious as the Red Devils of British First Airborne held out against overwhelming odds Producer Joseph E Levine packed his cast with the top stars of the 1970s including Anthony Hopkins Robert Redford Sean Connery James Caan Michael Caine Elliott Gould Dirk Bogarde and Laurence Olivier and shot the film on location in and around Arnhem Making Dirk Bogarde was a British war veteran who had participated in Market Garden and bore the mental scars to prove it Nature's Saviours Graham Huggan,2013-08-22 Today s celebrity conservationists many of whom made their reputations through television and other visual media play a major role in drawing public attention to an increasingly threatened world This book one of the first to address this contribution focuses on five key figures the English naturalist David Attenborough the French marine adventurer Jacques Yves Cousteau the American primatologist Dian Fossey the Canadian scientist broadcaster activist David Suzuki and the Australian crocodile hunter Steve Irwin Some of the issues the author addresses include What is the changing relationship between western conservation and celebrity How has the spread of television helped shape and mediate this relationship To what extent can celebrity conservation be seen as part of a global system in which conservation like celebrity is big business The book critically examines the heroic status accorded to the five figures mentioned above taking in the various discourses around nature science nation gender through which they and their work have been presented to us In doing so it fills in the cultural historical and ideological background behind contemporary celebrity conservationism as a popular expression of a chronically endangered world The Chimpanzees of the Tai Forest Christophe Boesch,Roman Wittig,Catherine Crockford,Linda Vigilant,Tobias Deschner,Fabian Leendertz,2019-11-28 An engaging account of the research and key findings on Ta chimpanzees to celebrate the 40th anniversary of this project Environmental Education and Awareness - Volume II Bhaskar Nath,2009-09-23 Environmental Education and Awareness is a component of Encyclopedia of Human Resources Policy Development and Management which is part of the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias The Theme is organized into seven different topics which represent the main scientific areas of the theme The first topic Formal Environmental Education at Preschool Primary and Secondary Levels important issues of children s formal environmental education are discussed in this topic considering that as future adults today s children are more likely than not to make adverse impacts on the natural environment and earth s life support
