Documentary Film in the New Millennium María Guadalupe Arenillas, Michael J. Lazzara, 2016-06-23 Nearly two decades into the new millennium Latin American documentary film is experiencing renewed vibrancy and visibility on the global stage. While elements of the combative politicized cinema of the 1960s and 1970s remain, the region's production has become increasingly subjective, reflexive, and experimental, though perhaps no less political. At the same time, Latin American filmmakers both respond to and shape global tendencies in the genre. This book highlights the richness and heterogeneity of Latin American documentary film, surveys a broad range of national contexts, styles, and practices, and expands current debates on the genre. Thematic sections address the subjective turn of the 1990s and 2000s and the move beyond it, the ethics of the encounter between the filmmaker and the subject, object of his or her gaze, and the performance of truth and memory, a particularly urgent topic as Latin American countries have transitioned from dictatorship to democracy.

Directing for Stage and Screen J. Stanley, M. Monta, 2007-12-25 If directing dramatic productions interests you, this book is a basic guide to show you how to apply the principles of directing to any dramatic medium: stage, television, or film. The authors, who have worked in all three media, illustrate how the principles of one medium relate to the other two.

Whitaker's Cumulative Book List, 1979 Writing and Producing Television Drama in Denmark Eva Novrup Redvall, 2013-11-27 Offering unique insights into the writing and production of television drama series such as The Killing and Borgen, produced by DR, the Danish Broadcasting Corporation. Novrup Redvall explores the creative collaborations in writers rooms and production hotels through detailed case studies of Denmark's public service production culture

Intersecting Film, Music, and Queerness Jack Curtis Dubowsky, 2016-04-08 Intersecting Film Music and Queerness uses musicology and queer theory to uncover meaning and message in canonical American cinema. This study considers how queer readings are reinforced or nuanced through analysis of musical score. Taking a broad approach to queerness that questions heteronormative and homonormative patriarchal structures, binary relationships, gender assumptions, and anxieties, this book challenges existing interpretations of what is progressive and what is retrogressive in cinema. Examined films include Bride of Frankenstein, Louisiana Story, Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer, Blazing Saddles, Edward Scissorhands, Brokeback Mountain, Boys Don't Cry, Transamerica, Thelma & Louise, Go Fish, and The Living End, with special attention given to films that subvert or complicate genre. Music is analyzed with concern for composition, intertextual references, absolute musical structures, song lyrics, recording, arrangement, and performance issues. This multidisciplinary work featuring groundbreaking research, analysis, and theory offers new close readings and a model for future scholarship.
