Holm,2007-11-01 Just what is independent cinema D K Holm columnist for Kevin Smith s website and author of Robert Crumb and Quentin Tarantino aims to define a term that can be difficult to distinguish from categories such as avant garde underground experimental or art films By contrasting studio era Hollywood with changes in the business since the 1970s and chronicling the rise of companies such as Miramax and New Line this book shows the birth of a commercial environment in which the new independent cinema could emerge Detailed assessments and previously unpublished interviews with filmmakers such as James Mangold Walk the Line Jill Sprecher Clockwatchers and Guy Maddin The Saddest Music in the World show the vastly different roles independent cinema can play in different hands An accompanying DVD features Paul Cronin s documentary Film as a Subversive Art Amos Vogel and Cinema 16 about the founder of the New York Film Festival and one of the country s most important film societies Gender and Humor Delia Chiaro,Raffaella Baccolini,2014-05-09

In the mid seventies both gender studies and humor studies emerged as new disciplines with scholars from various fields undertaking research in these areas The first publications that emerged in the field of gender studies came out of disciplines such as philosophy history and literature while early works in the area of humor studies initially concentrated on language linguistics and psychology Since then both fields have flourished but largely independently This book draws together and

Paul G. Pickowicz, Yingjin Zhang, 2016-12-15 This cutting edge book examines the rapidly developing scene of Chinese independent documentary arguably the most courageous player in contemporary Chinese visual culture The authors explore two areas that are of special interest to China studies and film studies respectively 1 filming the everyday in twenty first century China to foreground contestation and diversity and 2 exploring the aesthetic of remembering in an embodied documentary practice which turns the gaze on artists themselves and encourages the viewer s engagement with the filmed subjects and environment Highlighting documentary contestation in China the book traces its cacophony of expressions some of it featuring confrontations with domineering elites some of it highlighting negotiations among the independent filmmakers themselves Their goal is not a movement that seeks to establish and impose a single truth but rather a creative dynamic that fosters a community of tolerance and respects diverse forms of expression Independent documentary is quite literally a moving target that is witnessing ongoing and widening diversity and complexity when it comes to directors themes aesthetics human subjects audiences and impact The authors stress the enormous potential of cultural production that features non elites including amateurs and that dwells on the everyday the bottom up the grassroots the seemingly mundane and the apparently marginal The book s emphasis on contemporary issues and its discussion of aesthetic experiments will appeal to all readers interested in China s culture media politics and society
