Films And Feelings:

Emotion Pictures Lucy Fischer, 2022-11-07 This book investigates a group of exceptional films that single mindedly consider one particular emotion be it pity lust grief or anxiety to examine cinematic emotion in depth Drawing on philosophical and psychological approaches Fischer s unique analysis offers unparalleled case studies for comprehending emotion in the movies The book provides the reader with an opportunity to contemplate what notion of a particular emotion is advanced onscreen to describe how the unique tools and aesthetics of cinema are utilized to do so to place such representations in dialogue with film theory as well as philosophical and psychological commentary and to illustrate the important dichotomy between filmic portrayals and audience response Beyond film and media scholars and students this book will have resonance for academics and practitioners in several fields of psychology including social work psychiatry and therapy

Films and Feelings Raymond Durnat, 1967 Film and the Emotions, Volume XXXIV Peter A. French, Howard K. Wettstein, Michelle Saint, 2010-10-04 Film and the Emotions explores the complicated relationship between filmed entertainment such as movies and television shows and our capacity to feel emotions This volume of The Midwest Studies in Philosophy covers topics such as the role of imagination in our capacity to respond emotionally to films how emotions felt in response to films relate to emotions felt about real events and the moral implications of responding emotionally to fictions among others This collection includes nineteen original articles from experts on film and emotion including Noel Carroll Gregory Currie Susan Feagin Stacie Friend Robert Hopkins Peter Lamarque and Peter Goldie Derek Matravers Carl Plantinga and Murray Smith

Feeling Cinema Tarja Laine, 2013-04-25 There is an upsurge of interest in contemporary film theory towards cinematic emotions Tarja Laine s innovative study proposes a methodology for interpreting affective encounters with films not as objectively readable texts but as emotionally salient events Laine argues convincingly that film is not an immutable system of representation that is meant for one way communication but an active dynamic participant in the becoming of the cinematic experience Through a range of chapters that include Horror Hope Shame and Love and through close readings of films such as The Shining American Beauty and Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind Laine demonstrates that cinematic emotions are more than mere indicators of the properties of their objects They are processes that are intentional in a phenomenological sense supporting the continuous shifting and reciprocal exchange between the film s world and the spectator s world Grounded in continental philosophy this provocative book explores the affective dynamics of cinema as an interchange between the film and the spectator in a manner that transcends traditional generic patterns

Moving Viewers Carl Plantinga, 2009-04-08 Everyone knows the thrill of being transported by a film but what is it that makes movie watching such a compelling emotional experience In Moving Viewers Carl Plantinga explores this question and the implications of its answer for aesthetics the psychology of spectatorship and the place of movies in culture Through an in depth discussion of mainstream Hollywood films Plantinga investigates what he terms the paradox of negative emotion and the function of mainstream narratives as ritualistic fantasies He describes the sensual nature of the movies and shows how film emotions are often elicited for rhetorical purposes He uses cognitive science and philosophical aesthetics to demonstrate why cinema may deliver a similar emotional charge for diverse audiences Selected Films on Child Life ,1962 Selected Films on Child Life Inez Durfee Lohr,1962 The Pedagogy of Pop Edward Janak,Denise F. Blum,2012-12-15 Media competes with public schools in terms of student engagement and time However the two needn t be mutually exclusive The Pedagogy of Pop Theoretical and Practical Strategies for Success discusses a variety of strategies and approaches for using social and mass media as tools through which teachers might improve schooling While there is a vast body of literature in this field editors Edward A Janak and Denise Blum have created a text which differs in two substantive ways scope and sequence In terms of scope this work is unique in two facets first it presents both theory and practice in one volume bridging the two worlds and second it includes lessons from secondary and postsecondary classrooms allowing teachers on all levels to learn from each other In terms of sequence The Pedagogy of Pop draws on lessons from both historical and contemporary practice The introductory section of Janak and Blum s collection presents a pair of papers that use somewhat different approaches to examine the historical roots of contemporary critique Part I presents a series of chapters designed to provide guidelines and theories through which educators on all levels can think about their practice focusing more on the why of their approach than the how Part II presents a more hands on approach by sharing a variety of specific strategies for incorporating pop culture in all its forms technology music television video games etc in both secondary and postsecondary classrooms The conclusion shows the praxis of teaching with popular culture presenting a counterpoint to current thinking as well as a case study of the best of what can happen when popular culture is applied effectively Aqui Se Habla Español ,1980 Technical Report NAVTRADEVCE 269-7 ,1956 The Film Experience Timothy Corrigan,Patricia White,2012-01-03 A comprehensive introduction to film that recognizes students as movie fans and helps them understand the art form s full scope The authors situate their strong coverage of the medium s formal elements within the larger cultural contexts that inform the ways we watch film from economics and exhibition to marketing and the star system Blackwells
