Points of Resistance Lauren Rabinovitz, 2003 In detailing the relationship of three women filmmakers' lives and films to the changing institutions of the post World War II era Lauren Rabinovitz has created the first feminist social history of the North American avant garde cinema At a time when there were few women directors in commercial films the postwar avant garde movement offered an opportunity Rabinovitz argues that avant garde cinema open to women because of its marginal status in the art world included women as filmmakers organizers and critics Focusing on Maya Deren Shirley Clarke and Joyce Wieland Rabinovitz illustrates how women used bold physical images to enhance their work and how each provided entrance to her subversive art while remaining culturally acceptable She combines archival materials with her own interviews to show how the women's labor and films even their identities as women filmmakers were produced disseminated and understood With a new preface and an updated bibliography Points of Resistance simultaneously demonstrates the avant garde's importance as an organizational network for women filmmakers and the processes by which women remained marginal figures within that network

Image and Identity R. Bruce Elder, 2006-01-01 What do images of the body which recent poets and filmmakers have given us tell us about ourselves about the way we think and about the culture in which we live In his new book A Body of Vision R Bruce Elder situates contemporary poetic and cinematic body images in their cultural context Elder examines how recent artists have tried to recognize and to convey primordial forms of experiences He proposes the daring thesis that in their efforts to do so artists have resorted to gnostic models of consciousness He argues that the attempt to convey these primordial modes of awareness demands a different conception of artistic meaning from any of those that currently dominate contemporary critical discussion By reworking theories and speech in highly original ways Elder formulates this new conception The works of Brakhage Artaud Schneeman Cohen and others lie naked under Elder's razor sharp dissecting knife and he exposes the essence of their work cutting deeply into the themes and theses from which the works are derived His remarks on the gaps in contemporary critical practices will likely become the focus of much debate NWSA Journal, 2002 Optic Antics Michele Pierson, David E. James, Paul Arthur, 2011-04-19 This volume gathers many of the best known writers on the avant garde from three continents to write on the cinema of Ken Jacobs who is arguably the most important living experimental filmmaker Practical Dreamers Mike Hoolboom, 2004-04-14 The streets are full of admirable craftsmen but so few practical dreamers Man Ray What if there were movies made the same way as suits custom fitted each one tailored for one person Not broadcast but narrowcast Not theatres around the world showing the same globalized pictures but instead a local circumstance a movie so particular so peculiar it could cure night blindness or vertigo Welcome to the world of fringe movies where artists have been busy putting queer shoulders to the wheels or bending light to talk about First Nations rights and making it funny at the same time or demonstrating how a personality can be taken apart and put together again all in the course of a ten minute movie which might take years to make Practical Dreamers takes us to this other side of the media plantation In it twenty seven Canadian artists dish about how they get it done and why it matters The conversations are personal up close and jargon free smart without smarting The stellar cast includes smartbomb Steve Reinke visionary Peter Mettler Middle East specialist Jayce Salloum queer Asian avatars Richard Fung Midi Onodera Ho Tam and Wayne Yung footage recyclers Aleesa Cohene and Jubal Brown overhead projector king Daniel Barrow First Nations vets Kent Monkman and Shelley Niro international art presence Paulette Philips and documentarian Donigan Cumming These in depth talks come lavishly illustrated in an oversized volume Joyce Wieland's 'The Far Shore' Johanne Sloan, 2010-05-29 The Far Shore 1976 made under the direction of celebrated visual artist and experimental filmmaker Joyce Wieland is one of Canada's most innovative contributions to cinema The film borrows elements from the life of Canadian painter Tom Thomson who is represented by the character of Tom McLeod The main character however is not Tom but the fictional creation of Eulalie de Chicoutimi the married Qu'becoise woman who loves him Using Eulalie's perspective Wieland was able to re frame Thomson's life and story as a romantic melodrama while infusing it with subversive commentary on gender nature and nationalism and ultimately on the value of art Here Wieland specialist Johanne Sloan offers a fascinating new perspective on The Far Shore making it more accessible by discussing Wieland's utopian fusion of art and politics the importance of landscape within Canadian culture and the on going struggle over the meaning of the natural environment
