Films Of Wim Wenders:

The Cinema of Wim Wenders Roger F. Cook, Gerd Gemünden, 1997 The Cinema of Wim Wenders the first anthology of scholarly work on Wenders is a unique anthropology of source materials and selected critical essays on the films of Wim Wenders a major filmmaker in the so called New German Cinema movement His work probably more than that of any other European director reflects the tension between the European auteur tradition and the increasing dominance of the American media industry In both his filmmaking and his critical writing he explores how the relationship between image and narrative manifests the basic opposition between these two film traditions This book serves as an introduction to the central concerns of his cinema while situating his work within German film history and the contemporary debates about postmodern film and media theory

The Films of Wim Wenders Robert Phillip Kolker, Peter Beicken, 1993-01-29 The authors trace the development of one of the most well known directors of the New German Cinema that flourished in the 1970s and early 1980s Examining Wim Wenders career from his early film school productions through his mature works of the 1970s this book also analyses the most recent works as well as the themes and preoccupations that unite his oeuvre As the authors note Wenders works have been profoundly influenced by American films especially the road movie genre His own work often features characters who are always on the move in an attempt to capture a glimpse of their identity and place in the world They also represent a generation of postwar Germans seeking to redeem themselves and the history of their country by turning to American popular culture particularly its music and movies

Wim Wenders, 2017 As well as being an acclaimed filmmaker and a member of the New German Cinema movement Wim Wenders b 1945 has also made an international name for himself as a photographer with shows all over the world While previous exhibitions have focused on his large format colour photography he now opens a treasure chest of Polaroids taken during the 1970s and 1980s to accompany an exhibition at the Photographers Gallery London Here are portraits of friends actors and personal heroes souvenirs of places and events from the life of a young travelling filmmaker impressions of his first trips to the US shots of movie icons on American TV screens the cinemas of provincial Germany in the 1970s and much more The adventure of shooting films around the world becomes an almanac of adventure curiosity and tranquillity Wenders s instant photographs are interwoven with his own stories memories and flights of fancy that weave the images into an intimate and poetic journey Instant Stories is a photographic road movie of the director s early years as he rose to global fame with films such as The Scarlet Letter Alice in the Cities Wrong Move Kings of the Road and The American Friend

Wim Wenders Olivier Delers, Martin Sulzer-Reichel, 2020-01-23 Wim Wenders Making Films That Matter is the first book in 15 years to take a comprehensive look at Wim Wenders s extensive filmography In addition to offering new insights into his cult masterpieces the 10 essays in this volume highlight the thematic and aesthetic continuities between his early films and his latest productions Wenders s films have much to contribute to current conversations on intermediality whether it be through his adaptations of important literary works or his filmic reinventions of famous paintings by Edward Hopper or Andrew Wyeth Wenders has also positioned himself as a decidedly transnational and translingual filmmaker taking on the challenge of representing peripheral spaces without falling into the trap of a neo colonial gaze Making Films That Matter argues that Wenders remains a true innovator in both his experiments in 3D filmmaking and his attempts to define a visual poetics of peace

The Films of Wim Wenders Robert Phillip Kolker, Peter Biecken, Wim Wenders, 1995 On the films of Wim Wenders

From Alice to Buena Vista Roger Bromley, 2001-02-28 This analysis of the films of Wim Wenders from the early 1970 s through the 1990 s attempts to place his work in the cultural and political context of the time Feminist analysis cultural theory and psychoanalysis combine to explore the major themes in the films with an emphasis on gender and narrative and on Wenders concern with the representation of otherness Wenders earlier films reflect concerns with identity and with issues of masculinity and detachment His later films reveal a preoccupation with seeing images and love which culminated in the international success of The Buena Vista Social Club As this study suggests Wenders later works manifest a shift in direction away from indifference and toward reconciliation ethical practice and relationships This study will appeal to film scholars to those with a special interest in German cinema and culture and to admirers of Wenders films Thematically arranged chapters begin with the early films and trace the masculinity identity and lost narrative motifs throughout Wenders oeuvre

On Film Wim Wenders, 2001 A volume that combines three influential works on the cinema by Wim Wenders one of the major international filmmakers of our time Wim Wenders s body of work is among the most extraordinary in modern cinema It includes such films as Paris Texas Wings of Desire Buena Vista Social Club and The Million Dollar Hotel Fortunately his passion for cinema also extends to writing about it and in this volume all his published essays on films and filmmaking as well as his thoughts on such disparate subjects as rock n roll architecture questions of German identity and the influence of America are brought back into print Including the essays that previously appeared in Emotion Pictures The Logic of Images and The Act of Seeing On Film discusses Wenders s development as a filmmaker from the time he picked up a camera at age twelve and offers a broad analysis of his guiding passions as he analyzes the full range of his work film by film and reveals his views on genres ranging from the American Western to the European avant garde along the way answering the deceptively simple question Why do you make films A volume that combines three influential works on the cinema by Wim Wenders one of the major international filmmakers of our time Wim Wenders s body of work is among the most extraordinary in modern cinema It includes such films as Paris Texas Wings of Desire Buena Vista Social Club and The Million Dollar Hotel Fortunately his passion for cinema also extends to writing about it and in this volume all his published essays on films and filmmaking as well as his thoughts on such disparate subjects as rock n roll architecture questions of German identity and the influence of America are brought back into print Including the essays that previously appeared in Emotion Pictures The Logic of Images and The Act of Seeing On Film discusses Wenders s development as a filmmaker from the time he picked up

Wim Wenders Anonym,2008 Professionally Wenders left Europe for the United States only once And it was a disaster The shooting or better the two shootings of Hammett between 1977 and 1982 as an employed director under Francis Ford Coppola s control ended in a personal nightmare It was a kind of filmmaking he never would accept Accustomed to writing his own story which would usually change during the process of filming and used to choosing his actors and his crew Coppola s Hollywood style approach in the production of Hammett was a blow to Wenders professional ambitions in the United States Asked if he wanted to work there again he said that it would be too much of a loss of autonomy The way they despise and destroy their abundance of talent is appalling The films are not made by artists but by agents and lawyers A couple of years later his tone appeared to be more moderate It was a comprehensive experience and one of the most important at the same time Nevertheless ever since Hammett all of Wenders movies have been produced and financed through Europe America as a mythical place and the place of his dreams developed in his early youth The fascination for this country for its culture especially for its cinema and its music has been decisive throughout his life After seeing Easy Rider in 1968 at the age of 23 he later explained that after leaving the cinema he realized that he indeed looked like the people in the film that he loved Jimi Hendrix that he s not served in many places and that he too spent time in jail for literally nothing This is not just a statement about a film more than that it seemed to be an identification with the protagonists of Easy Rider But on the other hand doubts about American colonization in the heads of Europe obviously arose just as early Wenders Hammett experience followed the decade of the 1970s which in the United States according to the Time Magazine as far as foreign films are concerned belonged to the Germans Wenders made more movies in or about the United States than any of the protagonists of the New German Cinema and his early work already mirrors his affinity to and influence of U S American cinema and music

The Cinema of Wim Wenders Alexander Graf,2002 The Cinema of Wim Wenders The Celluloid Highway is a new study of the films of this most prominent of German directors and penetrates the seductive sounds and images for which he is best known The book analyses the individual films in the context of a preoccupation central to all of Wenders work and writings why modern cinema a recording art solely composed of sounds and images naturally developed into a primarily narrative medium a domain traditionally associated with words and sentences With its emphasis on analysing the films themselves this book identifies and critically elucidates Wenders chief artistic motivation that the act of seeing can constitute a creative act in its own right

Wim Wenders: Instant Stories Wim Wenders,2021 As well as being an acclaimed filmmaker and a member of the New German Cinema movement Wim Wenders b 1945 has also made an international name for himself as a photographer with shows all over the world He now opens a treasure chest of Polaroids taken during the 1970s and 1980s Here are portraits of friends actors and personal heroes souvenirs of places and events from the life of a young travelling filmmaker impressions of his first trips to the US shots of movie icons on American TV screens the cinemas of provincial Germany in the 1970s and much more The adventure of shooting films around the world becomes an almanac of adventure curiosity and tranquillity Wenders instant photographs are interwoven with his own stories memories and flights of fancy that weave the images into an intimate and poetic journey Instant Stories is a photographic road movie of the director's early years as he rose to global fame with films such as The Scarlet Letter Alice in the Cities Wrong Move Kings of the Road and The American Friend With 403 illustrations

Written in the West, 2015 In late 1983 looking for the subjects and locations that would bring the desolate landscape of the American West to life for his iconic film Paris Texas German filmmaker Wim Wenders took his Makina Plaubel 6 x 7 camera on the road Driving through Texas Arizona New Mexico and California Wenders was captivated by the unique saturated colorful light of the vast wild landscape of the American West even in the 20th century a land associated with cowboys and outlaws and suffused with the mythology of the frontier The series he produced Written in the West was first exhibited in 1986 at the Centre Pompidou in Paris and first published in 2000 Roughly three decades later in this expanded edition Wenders adds 15 new images of the sleepy town that gave the movie its name though no footage was ever actually shot there Made with a Fuji 6 x 4 5 camera the new photographs are poetic documents of an abiding fascination and a search for personal memories Together they add an essential new chapter to Wenders classic Written in the West now Revisited Over the past four decades through films like Paris Texas 1984 Wings of Desire 1987 Buena Vista Social Club 1999 and Pina 2011 Wim Wenders born 1945 has distinguished himself as one of the leading lights of New German Cinema and one of the great directors in contemporary film Wenders has had an equally distinguished career in photography his photographs are exhibited and collected internationally

Arcilla, 2020-02-06 What is education Most of the time we have little patience for this question because we take the answer to be obvious we identify education with school learning This book focuses on education outside of the school context as a basis for criticizing and improving school learning Following the examples of Jean Jacques Rousseau and John Dewey Arcilla seeks to harmonize schooling with a more pervasive education we are all naturally undergoing He develops a philosophical theory of education that stresses the experience of being led out a theory latent in the Latin term educere by examining the road movies of Wim Wenders This book contributes both to our understanding of another crucial kind of education our schooling could better serve and to our appreciation of what unifies and distinguishes Wenders's achievements in cinema
