Reapsome, 1999 Since 1988 in his acclaimed editorial column in World Pulse newsletter Reapsome has addressed the real issues in missions and courageously confronted us with often discomfiting truths In this remarkable book you'll find 100 of Jim's best editorials which still hold true today Missionalia, 2001 Contains abstracts of missiological contributions book reviews and articles American Book Publishing Record, 2001 International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 2000 Missions Howard Benjamin Grose, 1928 Matthew Frederick Dale Bruner, 2007 Drawing on great church teachers through the centuries and on the classical Christian creeds and confessions this book asks both what Matthew's Gospel said to its first hearers and what it says to readers today It shows how the focus of Matthew shifts from Jesus teaching about who he is to teaching mainly about what his church is World Christian Trends Ad30-ad2200 (hb), 2001 Year Book of the American Baptist Convention American Baptist Convention, 1971 Vols for 1950-72 include annual reports of the American Baptist Home Mission Society and the Woman's American Baptist Home Mission Society issued together of the Board of Education and Publication and of the Ministers and Missionaries Benefit Board and Along kingdom highways 1950-68-69 reports of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society and the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission Society 1969-70-72 reports of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society consolidated with the Woman's American Baptist Foreign Mission

Society for 1950 61 the annual report of the American Baptist Historical Society The Gospel of John Frederick Dale Bruner, 2012-02-22 The author of a much loved two volume Matthew commentary 1990 that he greatly revised and expanded fourteen years later Frederick Dale Bruner now offers The Gospel of John A Commentary more rich fruit of his lifetime of study and teaching Rather than relying primarily on recent scholarship Bruner honors and draws from the church's major John commentators throughout history including Augustine Chrysostom Aquinas Luther Calvin Bultmann Barrett and many more Alongside this historical interpretation is Bruner's own contemporary interpretation which incorporates a lucid translation of the text references to recent scholarship and his pastoral application of the Gospel to present day experience Like Bruner's other work this commentary is rich in biblical insights broadly historical and deeply theological Here is what Eugene Peterson said about Bruner's earlier work on Matthew This is the kind of commentary I most want a theological wrestling with Scripture Frederick Dale Bruner grapples with the text not only as a technical exegete although he does that very well but as a church theologian caring passionately about what these words tell us about God and ourselves His Matthew commentary is in the grand traditions of Augustine Calvin and Luther expansive and leisurely loving the text the people in it and the Christians who read it The same could well be said about the present John commentary which promises to be another invaluable resource for pastors teachers and laypeople alike The Homiletic Review ,1909 The Presbyterian ,1905 The Christian Evangelist ,1902 Minutes of the Wisconsin Baptist Anniversaries Wisconsin Baptist State Convention, 1880 Community of Missionary Disciples Bevans, Stephen B., 2024-04-17 Ecclesiology from a mission perspective The Presbyterian Magazine Cortlandt Van Rensselaer, 1851 The Presbyterian Magazine ,1851 Evangelicals and the End of Christendom Hugh Chilton, 2019-12-09 Exploring the response of evangelicals to the collapse of Greater Christian Britain in Australia in the long 1960s this book provides a new religious perspective to the end of empire and a fresh national perspective to the end of Christendom In the turbulent 1960s two foundations of the Western world rapidly and unexpectedly collapsed Christendom marked by the dominance of discursive Christianity in public culture and Greater Britain the powerful sentimental and strategic union of Britain and its settler societies disappeared from the collective mental map with startling speed To illuminate these contemporaneous global shifts this book takes as a case study the response of Australian evangelical Christian leaders to the cultural and religious crises encountered between 1959 and 1979 Far from being a narrow national study this book places its case studies in the context of the latest North American and European scholarship on secularisation imperialism and evangelicalism Drawing on a wide range of archival sources it examines critical figures such as Billy Graham Fred Nile and Hans Mol as well as issues of empire counter cultural movements and racial and national identity This study will be of particular interest to any scholar of Evangelicalism in the twentieth century It will also be a useful resource for academics looking into the wider impacts of the decline of Christianity and the British Empire in Western civilisation
