The Monstered Self Eduardo González, 1992 Viewing stories and novels from an ethnographic perspective Eduardo González here explores the relationship between myth ritual and death in writings by Borges Vargas Llosa Cortazar and Roa Bastos He then weaves this analysis into a larger cultural fabric composed of the works of Chaucer Shakespeare Joyce Benjamin H G Wells Kafka Poe and others What interests González is the signature of authorial selfhood in narrative and performance which he finds willfully and temptingly disfigured in the works he examines horrific and erotic subservient and tyrannical charismatic and repellent Searching out the personal image and plot González uncovers two fundamental types of narrative one that strips character of moral choice and another in which characters' choices deprive them of personal autonomy and hold them in ritual bondage to a group Thus The Monstered Self becomes a study of the conflict between individual autonomy and the stereotypes of solidarity Written in a characteristically allusive elliptical style and drawing on psychoanalysis religion mythology and comparative literature The Monstered Self is in itself a remarkable performance one that will engage readers in anthropology psychology and cultural history as well as those specifically interested in Latin American narrative

Space and the Postmodern Fantastic in Contemporary Literature Patricia García, 2015-04-24 Arising from the philosophical conviction that our sense of space plays a direct role in our apprehension and construction of reality both factual and fictional this book investigates how conceptions of postmodern space have transformed the history of the impossible in literature Deeply influenced by the work of Jorge Luis Borges and Julio Cortazar there has been an unprecedented rise in the number of fantastic texts in which the impossible is bound to space space not as scene of action but as impossible element performing a fantastic transgression within the storyworld This book conceptualizes and contextualizes this postmodern fantastic use of space that disrupts the reader's comfortable notion of space as objective reality in favor of the concept of space as socially mediated constructed and conventional In an illustration of the transnational nature of this phenomenon García analyzes a varied corpus of the Fantastic in the past four decades from different cultures and languages merging literary analysis with classical questions of space related to the fields of philosophy urban studies and anthropology Texts include authors such as Julio Cortazar Argentina John Barth USA J G Ballard UK Jacques Sternberg Belgium Fernando Iwasaki Per Juan Jos Mill s Spain and ric Faye France This book contributes to Literary Theory and Comparative Literature in the areas of the Fantastic narratology and Geocriticism and informs the continuing interdisciplinary debate on how human beings make sense of space

Aprendemos cada día a buscar estrategias que mejoren el proceso de enseñanza aprendizaje y nos permitan generar no solo conocimientos sino también competencias en las personas con las que trabajamos cada día. Durante la celebración de las X Jornadas de Innovación en Educación Digital tuvimos la oportunidad de compartir experiencias, perspectivas e inquietudes en las comunicaciones que diversos docentes universitarios de la Universidad Rey Juan Carlos presentaron. Las 38 mejor valoradas por el comité científico fueron invitadas a participar con un capítulo completo que tras ser sometidos a un proceso de revisión por pares ciegos han quedado recogidos junto con cinco capítulos de los docentes encargados de la coordinación de las diferentes áreas en este libro que tienes en las manos. Hace décadas que comprendimos que la educación no se limita a los confines de la formación reglada. Más bien se concibe como un viaje cuyo destino es difícil de divisar en el horizonte. Ya no basta con adquirir un conjunto fijo de conocimientos y habilidades sino que debemos dominar el arte de aprender, paradigma que entendemos como un proceso continuo de mejora y al mismo tiempo como una actitud ante la vida. Aprender implica reconocer que el conocimiento no es estático y que para desplegar todo nuestro potencial necesitamos desarrollar una serie de destrezas lideradas por la curiosidad. Y esta curiosidad unida a la motivación es la que nos hace maestros en el oficio de aprender.
