Final Station Umschlagplatz:

The Final Station Jarosław Marek Rymkiewicz, 1994 A Polish writer reconstructs the infamous square in Warsaw which served as an assembly point for Jews destined for the extermination camps He ponder on the indifference of so many Poles not to mention blackmail and denunciations The author is a Christian Stranger in Our Midst Harold B. Segel, 2018-07-05 A vibrant Jewish community flourished in Poland from late in the tenth century until it was virtually annihilated in World War II In this remarkable anthology the first of its kind Harold B Segel offers translations of poems and prose works mainly fiction by non Jewish Polish writers Taken together the selections represent the complex perceptions about Jews in the Polish community in the period 1530 1990 Handbook of Polish, Czech, and Slovak Holocaust Fiction Elisa-Maria Hiemer, Jiří Holý, Agata Firlej, Hana Nichtburgerová, 2021-06-21 The Handbook of Polish Czech and Slovak Holocaust Fiction aims to increase the visibility and show the versatility of works from East Central European countries It is the first encyclopedic work to bridge the gap between the literary production of countries that are considered to be main sites of the Holocaust and their recognition in international academic and public discourse It contains over 100 entries offering not only facts about the content and motifs but also pointing out the characteristic fictional features of each work and its meaning for academic discourse and wider reception in the country of origin and abroad The publication will appeal to the academic and broader public interested in the representation of the Holocaust anti-Semitism and World War II in literature and the arts Besides prose it also considers poetry and theatrical plays from 1943 through 2018 An introduction to the historical events and cultural developments in Poland Czechoslovakia Czech and Slovak Republic and their impact on the artistic output helps to contextualise the motif changes and fictional strategies that authors have been applying for decades The publication is the result of long term scholarly cooperation of specialists from four countries and several dozen academic centres

Philo-Semitic Violence Elzbieta Janicka, Tomasz Zukowski, 2021-07-07 Philo-Semitic Violence Poland's Jewish Past in New Polish Narratives addresses the growing popularity of philo-Semitic violence in Poland between the 2000 revelation of Polish participation in the Holocaust and the 2015 authoritarian turn Elzbieta Janicka and Tomasz Zukowski examine phenomena termed a new opening in Polish Jewish relations thought to stem from sociocultural change and the posthumous inclusion of those subjected to anti-Semitic violence The authors investigate the terms and conditions of this inclusion whose object is an imagined collective Jewish figure Different creators and media same friendly intentions same warm reception beyond class and political cleavages regardless of gender and age The made to measure Jewish figure confirms and legitimizes the majority narrative especially about Polish stances and behaviors during the Holocaust Enabled by this philo-Semitic feelings indulge the dominant group in Baudrillard's retrospective hallucinations The consequence aggression toward anyone who dares to interrupt the narcissistic self staging This book exposes the Polish ethno-religious identity regime that privileges the concern for the collective image over reality The authors inquiry shows how patterns of exclusion and violence are reproduced when anti-Semitism with its Christian sources and community building function is not openly problematized reassessed and rejected in light of its consequences and the basic principle of equal rights

European Cinema in the Twenty-First Century Ingrid Lewis, Laura Canning, 2020-05-23 This book rethinks the study of European Cinema in a way that centres on students and their needs in a comprehensive volume introducing undergraduates to the main discourses directions and genres of twenty first century European film Importantly this collection is the first of its kind to apply a transversal approach to European Cinema bringing together the East and the West while providing a broad picture of key trends aesthetics genres national identities and transnational concerns Lewis and Canning's collection effectively addresses some of the most pressing questions in contemporary European film such as ecology migration industry identity disability memory auteurship genre small cinemas and the national and international frameworks which underpin them Combining accessible original research with a thorough grounding in recent histories and contexts each chapter includes key definitions reflective group questions and a summative case study Overall this book makes a strong contribution to our understanding of recent European Cinema making it an invaluable resource for lecturers and students across a variety of film centred modules

Polish Film and the Holocaust Marek Haltof, 2012-01-01 During World War II Poland lost more than six million people including about three million Polish Jews who perished in the ghettos and extermination camps built by Nazi Germany in occupied Polish territories This book is the first to address the representation of the Holocaust in Polish film and does so through a detailed treatment of several films which the author frames in relation to the political ideological and cultural contexts of the times in which they were created Following the chronological development of Polish Holocaust films the book begins with two early classics Wanda Jakubowska's The Last Stage 1948 and Aleksander Ford's Border Street 1949 and next explores the Polish School period represented by Andrzej Wajda's A Generation 1955 and Andrzej Munk's The Passenger 1963 Between 1965 and 1980 there was an organized silence regarding sensitive Polish Jewish relations resulting in only a few relevant films until the return of democracy in 1989 when an increasing number were made among them Krzysztof Kieślowski's Decalogue 8 1988 Andrzej Wajda's Korczak 1990 Jan Jakub Kolski's Keep Away from the Window 2000 and Roman Polański's The Pianist 2002 An important contribution to film studies this book has wider relevance in addressing the issue of Poland's national memory

The Holocaust Novel Efraim Sicher, 2013-10-31 The first comprehensive study of Holocaust literature as a major postwar literary genre The Holocaust Novel provides an ideal student guide to the powerful and moving works written in response to this historical tragedy This student friendly volume answers a dire need for readers to understand a genre in which boundaries and often blurred between history fiction autobiography and memoir Other essential features for students here include an annotated bibliography chronology and further reading list Major texts discussed include such widely taught works as Night Maus The Shawl Schindler's List Sophie's Choice White Noise and Time's Arrow

concerns building an idealized image of the society in which the Holocaust occurred It inspects the category of the bystander in Polish culture closely related to the witness since the war recognized as the axis of self presentation and majority politics of memory The category is of performative character since it defines the roles of event participants assumes passivity of the non Jewish environment and alienates the exterminated thus making it impossible to speak about the bystanders violence at the border between the ghetto and the Aryan side Bystanders were neither passive nor distanced rather they participated and played important roles in Nazi plans Starting with the war the authors analyze the functions of this category in the Polish discourse of memory through following its changing forms and showing links with social practices organizing the collective memory Despite being often critiqued this point of dispute about Polish memory rarely belongs to mainstream culture It also blocks the memory of Polish violence against Jews The book is intended for students and researchers interested in memory studies the history of the Holocaust the memory of genocide and the war and postwar cultures of Poland and Eastern Europe

Polish National Cinema Marek Haltof, 2002-04-01 In the years since World War II Poland has developed one of Europe's most distinguished film cultures However in spite of the importance of Polish cinema this is a domain in need of systematic study This book is the first comprehensive study of Polish cinema from the end of the 19th century to the present It provides not only an introduction to Polish cinema within a socio political and economic context but also to the complexities of East Central European cinema and politics Literature of the Holocaust Alan Rosen, 2013-11-14 During and in the aftermath of the dark period of the Holocaust writers across Europe and America sought to express their feelings and experiences through their writings This book provides a comprehensive account of these writings through essays from expert scholars covering a wide geographic linguistic thematic and generic range of materials Such an overview is particularly appropriate at a time when the corpus of Holocaust literature has grown to immense proportions and when guidance is needed in determining a canon of essential readings a context to interpret them and a paradigm for the evolution of writing on the Holocaust The expert contributors to this volume who negotiate the literature in the original languages provide insight into the influence of national traditions and the importance of language especially but not exclusively Yiddish and Hebrew to the literary response arising from the Holocaust An Iron Wind Peter Fritzsche, 2016-10-25 From a prize winning historian a vivid account of German occupied Europe during World War II that reveals civilians struggle to understand Pack of Thieves Richard Z. Chesnoff, 2011-07-27 It was the largest organized robbery in history the systematic looting of Europe's Jews by the Nazis in cooperation with most of the nations in Europe Axis Allied and neutral Award winning journalist Richard Z Chesnoff one of the first reporters to break the story that Swiss banks had hoarded the assets of Holocaust victims traveled to fourteen countries to research this heartbreaking compelling story of human greed Through exclusive interviews and information from hitherto classified files Chesnoff tells a tragic tale the vast scope of which is only beginning to be known Revealing new details that many would prefer remained secret Pack of Thieves describes the detective work used to trace Holocaust assets that continue to be hidden inside the financial systems of such Allied nations as France and the Netherlands Daring insightful and necessary Pack of Thieves is at once a fascinating piece of investigative journalism and an enraging account of one of history's greatest crimes

Women in European Holocaust Films Ingrid Lewis, 2018-01-19 This book considers how women's experiences have been treated in films dealing with Nazi persecution Focusing on fiction films made in Europe between 1945 and the present this study explores dominant discourses on and cinematic representation of women as perpetrators victims and resisters Ingrid Lewis contends that European Holocaust Cinema underwent a rich and complex trajectory of change with regard to the representation of women This change both reflects and responds to key socio cultural developments in the intervening decades as well as to new directions in cinema historical research and politics of remembrance The book will appeal to international scholars students and educators within the fields of Holocaust Studies Film Studies European Cinema and Women's Studies

In the Shadow of the Polish Eagle L. Cooper, 2000-10-31 The behaviour of many Poles towards the Jewish population during the Nazi occupation of Poland has always been a controversial issue Although the Poles are supposed not to have collaborated with the invaders there is evidence to show that in respect of the Jewish population the behaviour of many Poles including members of the underground was far from exemplary Poland is also the only European country where Jews were being murdered after the end of the war and where strong anti Semitic tendencies are still present This book analyses this question in an historical context and attempts to offer an explanation for the phenomenon of Polish anti Semitism during and after the end of the war The work is based on recently uncovered documents as well as on personal accounts of witnesses to the events during the war

Phototextualities Alex Hughes, Andrea Noble, 2003 How are photographs understood as narratives In this book twenty two original critical essays tackle this overarching question in a series of case studies moving chronologically across the history of photography from the 1840s to the twenty first century The contributors explore the intersections of photography with history memory autobiography time death mapping the discourse of Orientalism digital technology and representations of race and gender The essays range in focus from the role of photographic images in the memorialization of the Holocaust the Argentine Dirty War and Japanese American internment camps through Man Ray's classic image Noire et blanche and Nan Goldin's The Ballad of Sexual Dependency to the function of family albums in nineteenth century England and America

Mirrors of Destruction Omer Bartov, 2000 He then examines the pacifist reaction in interwar France to show how it contributed to a climate of collaboration with dictatorship and mass murder

Re-examining the Holocaust through Literature Aukje Kluge, Benn E. Williams, 2009-03-26 In the late 1980s Holocaust literature emerged as a provocative but poorly defined scholarly field The essays in this volume reflect the increasingly international and pluridisciplinary nature of this scholarship and the widening of the definition of Holocaust literature to include comic books fiction film and poetry as well as the more traditional diaries memoirs and journals Ten contributors from four countries engage issues of authenticity evangelicalism morality representation personal experience and wish fulfillment in Holocaust literature which have been the subject of controversies in the US Europe and the Middle East Of interest to students and instructors of antisemitism national and comparative literatures theater film history literary criticism religion and Holocaust studies this book also contains an extensive bibliography with references in over twenty languages which seeks to inspire further research in an international context

The Generation of Postmemory Marianne Hirsch, 2012-06-26 Can we remember other people's memories The Generation of Postmemory argues we can that memories of traumatic events live on to mark the lives of those who were not there to experience them Children of survivors and their contemporaries inherit catastrophic histories not through direct recollection but through haunting postmemories multiply mediated images objects stories behaviors and affects passed down within the family and the culture at large In these new and revised critical readings of the literary and visual legacies of the Holocaust and other related sites of memory Marianne Hirsch builds on her influential concept of postmemory The book's chapters two of which were written collaboratively with the historian Leo Spitzer engage the work of postgeneration artists and writers such as Art Spiegelman W G Sebald Eva Hoffman Tatana Kellner Muriel Hasbun Anne Karpff Lily Brett Lorie Novak David Levinthal Nancy Spero and Susan Meiselas Grappling with the ethics of empathy and identification these artists attempt to forge a creative postmemorial aesthetic that reanimates the past without appropriating it In her analyses of their fractured texts Hirsch locates the roots of the familial and affiliative practices of postmemory in feminism and other movements for social change Using feminist critical strategies to connect past and present words and images and memory and gender she brings the entangled strands of disparate traumatic histories into more intimate contact With more than fifty illustrations her text enables a multifaceted encounter with foundational and cutting edge theories in memory trauma gender and visual culture eliciting a new understanding of history and our place in it

Traumatizing Theory Karyn Ball, 2021-05-04 A volume in the Contemporary Theory Series edited by Frances Restuccia An interdisciplinary collection of essays that critically reflect on the value and limits of psychoanalysis for conceptualizing traumatic affect A page turner for anyone even remotely drawn to the subject of trauma Traumatizing Theory includes essays that go beyond psychoanalysis in rethinking the cultural significance of traumatic anxiety melancholy and the representation of suffering in testimony self narration and politics Traumatizing Theory is unmistakably on the cutting edge and moves trauma theory into a new postmodern phase Karyn Ball's introduction reframes debates about psychoanalysis within trauma studies Bettina Bergo's essay revisits the historical development of hysteria as Freud's model for traumatic anxiety in both men and women Dorothea Olkowski also focuses on traumatic anxiety but problematizes Freud's masculinist and scientific premises Sarah Murphy and Susannah Radstone examine the disciplinary effects of public confession and testimony while Ball and Kligerman critique Deleuze's post psychoanalytic Cinema books and Gerhard Richter's haunted October 18 1977 Cycle respectively as testimonies to the latent impact of traumatic history For Astrid Deuber Mankowsky philosophy serves ineluctably as a medium of testimony in

Sarah Kofman's autobiographical writings about ambivalence toward her biological Jewish mother and guilty love for the French woman who adopted Sarah during the Nazi occupation. Drucilla Cornell also explores conflicted self-narrations among transnationally adopted children and their parents. The collection concludes with essays by Juliet Flower MacCannell, Lauren Berlant, and John Mowitt on the politics of traumatic identification in the public sphere.

Troubled Memory, Second Edition Lawrence N. Powell, 2019-01-09 This powerful book tells the story of Anne Skorecki Levy, a Holocaust survivor who transformed the horrors of her childhood into a passionate mission to defeat the political menace of reputed neo-Nazi and Ku Klux Klan leader David Duke. The first book to connect the prewar and wartime experiences of Jewish survivors to the lives they subsequently made for themselves in the United States, Troubled Memory is also a dramatic testament to how the experiences of survivors as new Americans spurred their willingness to bear witness. Perhaps the only family to survive the liquidation of the Warsaw Ghetto as a group, the Skoreckis evaded deportation to Treblinka by posing as Aryans. The family eventually made their way to New Orleans, where they became part of a vibrant Jewish community. Lawrence Powell traces their dramatic odyssey and explores the events that eventually triggered Anne Skorecki Levy's brave decision to honor the suffering of the past by confronting the recurring specter of racist hatred.
