Review Clifford Smyth,1923 The Lost Whale Michael Parfit,Suzanne Chisholm,2013-06-25 The heartbreaking and true story of a lonely orca named Luna who befriended humans in Nootka Sound off the coast of Vancouver Island by Michael Parfit and Suzanne Chisholm One summer in Nootka Sound on the west coast of Vancouver Island British Columbia a young killer whale called Luna got separated from his pod Like humans orcas are highly social and depend on their families but Luna found himself desperately alone So he tried to make contact with people He begged for attention at boats and docks He looked soulfully into people s eyes He wanted to have his tongue rubbed When someone whistled at him he squeaked and whistled back People fell in love with him but the government decided that being friendly with Luna was bad for him and tried to keep him away from humans Policemen arrested people for rubbing Luna s nose Fines were levied Undaunted Luna refused to give up his search for connection and people went out to meet him like smugglers carrying friendship through the dark But does friendship work between species People who loved Luna couldn t agree on how to help him Conflict came to Nootka Sound The government built a huge net The First Nations members brought out their canoes Nothing went as planned and the ensuing events caught everyone by surprise and challenged the very nature of that special and mysterious bond we humans call friendship The Lost Whale celebrates the life of a smart friendly determined transcendent being from the sea who appeared among us like a promise out of the blue that the greatest secrets in life are still to be discovered

Fancies Versus Fads G. K. Chesterton,2019-11-19 In Fancies Versus Fads G K Chesterton embarks on a spirited exploration of the conflicting nature of human thought wherein he juxtaposes whimsical fancy with the rigid dogmas of contemporary fads Through a series of essays Chesterton employs his characteristic wit and keen insight to examine various cultural and philosophical trends of early 20th century England His prose is marked by an engaging conversational tone and rich imagery blending humor with profound social critique making this work a compelling commentary on the complexities of modern life The essays weave through musings on art religion and the absurdity of certain societal norms situating Chesterton firmly within the literary canon of the period as both a critic and a celebrant of life s eccentricities G K Chesterton a prolific writer and influential philosopher is often recognized for his paradoxical views and advocacy for the joy of the ordinary His experiences as a journalist and a public thinker during a time of rapid change in Victorian society likely inspired his exploration of fancies versus fads An ardent defender of traditional values amid the encroaching modernist sentiments Chesterton's works reveal his deep understanding of human nature informed by his Catholic faith and personal convictions Readers seeking an intellectually stimulating yet humorously introspective examination of culture will find Fancies Versus Fads to be an enriching read Chesterton's incisive observations encourage reflection on our own beliefs and the ephemeral nature of societal trends making this book a timely invitation to cherish the authenticity of human experience over the superficialities of modernity

Mastering Shakespeare Richard Gill, 2017-03-01 Mastering Shakespeare covers in detail the plays set in the National Curriculum through GCSE and A Level to the major elements of Shakespearean drama studied in further education courses The book is divided into sections that deal with comedy tragedy and history Also included are detailed sections on the most popular plays in the theatre and in the examination room The book deals with the basic themes of Shakespeare the kinds of characters he created the stories he was attracted to and the ways in which the plays work out on stage Among the plays studied are A Midsummer Night's Dream Merchant of Venice Julius Caesar Romeo and Juliet and Hamlet
