

The image features a broken gold chain against a vibrant blue background with white light rays emanating from the center. The chain is split into two parts, with several links floating in the air between them, suggesting a recent break. The top part of the chain extends from the upper right corner, and the bottom part extends from the lower left corner. The central area where the chain broke is filled with a bright, starburst-like light effect.

King, 2013-10-23 Offers essays and dialogues by well known Buddhist and Christian scholars on topics that were of primary interest to Frederick J Streng in whose honour the volume was created Topics include interreligious dialogue ultimate reality nature and ecology social and political issues of liberation and ultimate transformation or liberation

Jesus Christ and Yoga Shyam Sundar Goswami, 2023-07-24 Only through spirituality can man s meanness and smallness be conquered and his divine nature manifested To transform materialistic influences requires a gigantic spiritual effort and living spiritual inspiration This can only be achieved by a great spiritual master Jesus Christ who by millions of people is regarded as an incarnation of God came into our world to teach us spiritual truths by which we can be free from bondage and attain immortality His teaching does not consist of mere words but is based on his own realization in silent prayer His spirituality was not like something grafted on his personality reality and strength were exhibited in his mode of life and his activities He came to this world as the Divine Light to show the path which leads to God to human beings who forgot about him in their deep immersion in the vast ocean of worldliness His spiritual life inspires us This book is an attempt to study the teachings and activities of Jesus Christ for our spiritual development Interreligious learning is the norm today and we have much to learn from how people in other faiths see and interpret even our most fundamental and treasured beliefs But we need to learn well we need stellar examples of deep learning Shyam Sundar Goswami s Jesus Christ and Yoga goes deep into the mystery of Jesus in great detail and with great imagination drawing on every resource available to the Goswami Jesus is seen differently indeed from this fresh perspective even as yoga itself is transformed in the light of Christ the great yogi Goswami s classic study accessible once more is now more timely than ever Francis X Clooney SJ Parkman Professor of Divinity Harvard University Sri Goswami s remarkable familiarity with the teachings of Jesus and his citations of corresponding teachings by the seers of ancient India offer a significant learning experience for both Christians and members of Eastern religions The notable resonance albeit not complete between classical yoga teaching and aspects of Christian theology and spiritual practice takes yoga far beyond being just a physical feel good experience into being a means for acquiring divine knowledge and deepening one s relationship with God Fr Thomas Ryan CSP author of Prayer of Heart and Body Meditation and Yoga as Christian Spiritual Practice Emmanuel Levinas' Conceptual Affinities with Liberation Theology Alain Mayama, 2010 Emmanuel Levinas' Conceptual Affinities with Liberation Theology analyzes Levinas work in relation to two important liberation theologians Gustavo Guti rrez and Jon Sobrino whose scholarship like his needs to be brought into greater contemporary debate about the subject s encounter with the other More specifically this book argues that for Levinas Guti rrez and Sobrino commitment to the neighbor is the necessary context for understanding God They posit the human other as the possibility of the subject s subjectivity To be human is to act with love toward one s neighbor Thus the author articulates the possibility of reading Levinas philosophy as a revalidation of one of the truths of Christianity the concern for the humanity of every human person as expressed in Christian theology in general and liberation theology in particular In order to show the relevance of Levinas philosophy for Christian theology in general the author discusses three Christian scholars Enrique Dussel Jean Luc Marion and Michael Purcell Although they challenge some aspects of Levinas philosophy they nevertheless see its significance for Christian theological anthropology The discussion concludes by proposing Levinas philosophy and liberation theology s turn to the neighbor as significant for addressing contemporary socio political and ethnic conflicts in sub Saharan Africa T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation, 2024-03-07 The T how the doctrine of creation informs and is informed by various dogmatic commitments and how the doctrine of creation relates to a range of human concerns and activities The Handbook represents a celebration of fascination with bewilderment at lament about and hope for all that is and serves as a scholarly innovative and constructive reference for those interested in attending to what Christian belief has to contribute to thinking about and living with the mysterious existence named creation John, the Maverick Gospel Robert Kysar, 1993-01-01 This book introduces the reader to the Gospel of John in a unique way Robert Kysar focuses on the religious thought of the Fourth

Gospel providing a survey of the major theological themes He argues that the religious thought of the Fourth Gospel is different than other New Testament literature and presents it in the context of universal religious questions so that it may be viewed as a fundamental human expression of the religious quest This excellent book written in a lively style is distinguished from other introductions to the Fourth Gospel by the way in which it invites the reader to be involved in the reading of the Gospel itself

Ethics without Principles Roy H. May Jr., 2015-10-21 Ethics in the West too often equates morality with universal moral principles thus imposing lifestyles and moral criteria that do not respect differences and local histories Even Christianity proposes ethics that is based on eternal absolute and universal truths or principles independent of sociocultural and historical contexts The problem is that these universal moral laws become a means of social control to exclude those who are different non Christian religions nonwhite races non Western cultures and poor and marginalized social classes everywhere To these can be added minorities marginalized because of sexual orientation physical handicaps and women of all sectors and cultures Another kind of ethics is urgent For these reasons Christians in Latin America and other parts are seeking innovative ways of envisioning ethics from their marginalized and discriminated social locations in order to find another possible ethics an ethics that is not universal and not based on eternal truths or principles but rather is contextual and historical and that takes into account real life realities Only an ethics that does this will be liberative Important steps toward this other possible ethics have been taken by the theology of liberation by developing a contextual and intercultural morality

Moments of Truth John F. MacArthur, 2012-01-16 We are in desperate need of moments of truth Truth that can shine through the clutter of modern life Truth that we can welcome without hesitation Truth that is good for our souls The Bible is the only source for such truth and pastor John MacArthur is absolutely committed to sharing and illuminating God's truth for us From creation to parenting leadership to the end times Moments of Truth addresses practical and foundational subjects in bite size pieces Day by day MacArthur quotes Scripture and helps us apply it to our lives with eye opening lessons and probing questions that are relevant to the season Spend time each day with Moments of Truth and see how God uses the truth to set you free

To Teach the Truth Schubert M. Ogden, 2015-03-31 But will it teach The only good answer to this question often asked about a Christian theology is to teach it which is to say to teach according to it to what it indicates reflectively and critically valid Christian teaching ought to be This volume of selected courses and seminars documents a career long attempt to do exactly that Concerned at once to be faithful to the Christian witness and to speak intelligibly and credibly to women and men here and now it represents the way of doing church teaching and so clarifying the meaning of the Christian commitment that is of a piece with the distinctive way of doing Christian theology set forth and argued for in Schubert Ogden's other books and articles This is why the courses and seminars seek to address the real questions of persons about being a Christian today and include extended treatment of such basic issues as the authority of Scripture and the credibility of the Apostles Creed It is also why each of them in its way indirectly calls for a Christian decision Thus together with its companion volume To Preach the Truth this book offers a model for bearing witness to the truth as Christians understand it

After History Piotr Stolarski, 2012-01-05 What if living in the past and for the past was no longer tenable no longer acceptable What if being stuck in the past became a force for alienation breaking down and coming to seem like a false consciousness divorced from the present and from all true human happiness What if history were dead Would that matter After History On the Death of History and the New Culture by Dr Piotr Stolarski gets to grip with the pretensions and soul destroying irrelevance of academic history arguing that a new existential historiography abandoning a Man centred Enlightenment vision and now allied to philosophy and theology is possible and necessary Analysing the significance practices and characteristics of History in detail the author argues for the abandonment of a History dead to and disdainful of the present and sketches the possibilities left to historians after the Death of History embodied in a Neo Renaissance eclecticism allying faith to a reformed historiography

Religious Truth and Identity in an Age of Plurality Peter Jonkers, Oliver J. Wiertz, 2019-08-05 This book deals with the intellectual aspects of having diverse religious expressions in proximity and the socio political consequences It provides a multi disciplinary perspective on this complex subject cross fertilizing work on religious plurality with truth claims from theologians as well as philosophers from the continental and analytic traditions The book includes three major parts Part 1 explores the ideas around religious diversity and truth Part 2 draws out the epistemic import of religious diversity and Part 3 concludes the volume by examining the practical and social aspects of religious diversity Bringing a transdisciplinary perspective to a topic that remains at the forefront of conversation around the religious life of the world this book will be of great interest to scholars of Religious Studies Theology and the Philosophy of Religion

And There Was No Poor Among Them Ryan D. Ward, 2023-05-16 While The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter day Saints has expanded many fundamental Christian doctrines salvation is still understood as pertaining exclusively to the next life How should we understand salvation and what does the timing of the Restoration reveal about God's vision of salvation for a suffering world To answer these questions author Ryan Ward traces the theological evolution of salvation from the liberation of Israel from oppression to the Western Christian development of salvation as an individualistic transactional atonement This evolution corresponded with the shift of Christianity from a covenant community to an official state religion aligned with imperial power structures Ward also explores the economic and social movements in the centuries leading up to the Industrial Revolution which solidified the power of propertied elites at the expense of the poor plundered entire continents and killed millions Synthesizing these theological and historical threads And There Was No Poor Among Them Liberation Salvation and the Meaning of the Restoration asserts that the Restoration is God's explicit rejection of social and economic systems and ideologies that have led to the globalization of misery Instead Ward shows how the Restoration and the gospel of Christ is an invitation to a participatory salvation realized in Zion

Chong,2019-02-07 Since its emergence in the sixties of the last century liberation theology in Latin America has paid little attention to the areas of aesthetics and art At the same time theological aesthetics seldom has been directly and explicitly concerned about the reality of the poor and the struggle for justice This mutual disinterest between liberation theology and theological aesthetics is regrettable because discerning a correlation between them would benefit both theological disciplines in their attempt to understand the saving action of God in the world It is the intention of this book to fill that gap A Theological Aesthetics of Liberation correlates liberation theology and theological aesthetics exploring different themes such as the liberating power of art and how the Spirit of God is involved in the process of liberation in and through art This study is a critical reflection upon the question of the beauty of Jesus Christ especially in relationship with the event of the cross and upon its meaning for Christian life This book analyzes such topics in conversation with important theologians Gustavo Gutierrez Jon Sobrino Karl Rahner Hans Urs von Balthasar Edward Schillebeeckx and other contemporary Christian theologians who have explored these themes Liberation through Reconciliation O. E.

Littlejohn,2025-09-18 In an age where thinking is too often restricted to its scientific exercise how better to liberate the full powers of our reason than to engage with the possibility of what exceeds them What better way to measure our progress beyond modernist metaphysics and the contemporary nihilism it generated than to discuss the question of God Written by specialists in French philosophy the essays in this volume use the question of God to identify problematic metaphysical patterns still carved into our thought as well as to reconstruct new paths for philosophy that open beyond these limitations. Discussing the work of Kant, Nietzsche, Husserl, Heidegger, H. Arendt, Levinas, Derrida, and others, contributions range across topics including the influence of Neo-Platonic philosophy on theology, the errors of modern rationalism and phenomenology, and interest in religion. Even when drawing on resources from faith traditions, this French engagement with the question of God defies any simplistic attempt to relegate its efforts to theology; the authors of this volume clearly demonstrate its deeply embedded relation to the history of thought and its relevance to questions central for the task of philosophy today. With a special attention to the work of significant philosophers less known outside of France, this volume promises to deepen the Anglophone reception and understanding of contemporary French philosophy.
