

The knowledge of the different types of figure does not 'add up' somehow to a kind of inductive knowledge of figure in general. [...] Even more forcefully, figure is the context in which definition and delimitation are the same thing, for to give a definition of a figure is to give its boundary and to give its boundary is to give the figure as 'definition' and as 'boundary'). The notion of figure links the particular figures to be studied to the general problem of relating limitation to what is delimited in the case of surfaces. At the same time the notion of figure provides the method by which these examples of bounding are to be known.

Rhetorical Figures in Science Jeanne Fahnestock, 1999-07-01 Rhetorical Figures in Science breaks new ground in the rhetorical study of scientific argument as the first book to demonstrate how figures of speech other than metaphor have been used to accomplish key conceptual moves in scientific texts Examples both verbal and visual range across disciplines and centuries to reaffirm the positive value of these once widely taught devices The SAGE Handbook of Rhetorical Studies Andrea A. Lunsford, Kirt H. Wilson, Rosa A. Eberly, 2008-10-29 The SAGE Handbook of Rhetorical Studies surveys the latest advances in rhetorical scholarship synthesizing theories and practices across major areas of study in the field and pointing the way for future studies Edited by Andrea A Lunsford and Associate Editors Kirt H Wilson and Rosa A Eberly the Handbook aims to introduce a new generation of students to rhetorical study and provide a deeply informed and ready resource for scholars currently working in the field Brill's Companion to the Reception of Ancient Rhetoric, 2021-12-06 This volume examining the reception of ancient rhetoric aims to demonstrate that the past is always part of the present in the ways in which decisions about crucial political social and economic matters have been made historically or in organic interaction with literature philosophy and culture at the core of the foundation principles of Western thought and values Analysis is meant to cover the broadest possible spectrum of considerations that focus on the totality of rhetorical species i e forensic deliberative and epideictic as they are applied to diversified topics including but not limited to language science religion literature theatre and other cultural processes e g athletics politics and leadership pedagogy and gender studies and cross cultural geographical and temporal contexts The Rhetorlogue John Demosthenes N. Ruffin, 1922 Quintilian's Institutes of Oratory Quintilian, 1902 Metanoia Adam Ellwanger, 2020-02-25 Western culture is in a moment when wholly new kinds of personal transformations are possible but authentic transformation requires both personal testimony and public recognition In this book Adam Ellwanger takes a distinctly rhetorical approach to analyzing how the personal and the public relate to an individual's transformation and develops a new vocabulary that enables a critical assessment of the concept of authenticity The concept of metanoia is central to this project Charting the history of metanoia from its original use in the classical tradition to its adoption by early Christians as a term for religious conversion Ellwanger shows that metanoia involves a change within a person that results in a truer version of him or herself a change in character or ethos He then applies this theory to our contemporary moment finding that metanoia provides unique insight into modern forms of self transformation Drawing on ancient and medieval sources including Thucydides Plato Paul the Apostle and Augustine as well as contemporary discourses of self transformation such as the public testimonies of Caitlyn Jenner and Rachel Dolezal Ellwanger elucidates the role of language in signifying and authenticating identity Timely and original Ellwanger's study formulates a transhistorical theory of personal transformation that will be of interest to scholars working in social theory philosophy rhetoric and the history of Christianity The Attic Orators from Antiphon to Isaeos Richard Claverhouse
