Figuring Animals:

Figuring Animals M. Pollock, C. Rainwater, 2016-10-03 This is a collection of fifteen essays which expose weaknesses in western epistemological frames of reference that for centuries have limited our views and thus our experiences of animal being including our own The volume contributes to current discussions of new ways of seeing the other inhabitants of this world and more effective ways of sharing the world with them The contributors draw on and complement the growing field of ecocriticism but because the contributors draw on an array of disciplinary and cultural perspectives it will appeal to a wide audience ranging from literary scholars philosophers art historians anthropologists and cultural historians including graduate and undergraduate students in all these disciplines to laypersons interested in nature writing and environmental issues

The Figure of the Animal in Modern and Contemporary Poetry Michael Malay, 2018-06-05 This book argues that there are deep connections between poetic thinking and the sensitive recognition of creaturely others It explores this proposition in relation to four poets Marianne Moore Elizabeth Bishop Ted Hughes and Les Murray Through a series of close readings and by paying close attention to issues of sound rhythm simile metaphor and image it explores how poetry cultivates a special openness towards animal others The thinking behind this book is inspired by J M Coetzee's The Lives of Animals In particular it takes up that book's suggestion that poetry invites us to relate to animals in an open ended and sympathetic manner Poets according to Elizabeth Costello the book's protagonist return the living electric being to language and doing so compel us to open our hearts towards animals and the claims they make upon us There are special affinities for her between the music of poetry and the recognition of others But what might it mean to say that poets to return life to language And why might this have any bearing on our relationship with animals Beyond offering many suggestive starting points Elizabeth Costello says very little about the nature of poetry's special relationship with the animal one aim of this study then is to ask of what this relationship consists not least by examining the various ways poets have bodied forth animals in language
