Multicultural America Ronald H. Bayor,2011-07-22 This encyclopedia contains 50 thorough profiles of the most numerically significant immigrant groups now making their homes in the United States telling the story of our newest immigrants and introducing them to their fellow Americans One of the main reasons the United States has evolved so quickly and radically in the last 100 years is the large number of ethnically diverse immigrants that have become part of its population People from every area of the world have come to America in an effort to realize their dreams of more opportunity and better lives either for themselves or for their children This book provides a fascinating picture of the lives of immigrants from 50 countries who have contributed substantially to the diversity of the United States exploring all aspects of the immigrants lives in the old world as well as the new Each essay explains why these people have come to the United States how they have adjusted to and integrated into American society and what portends for their future Accounts of the experiences of the second generation and the effects of relations between the United States and the sending country round out these unusually rich and demographically detailed portraits Korea and the Imperialists Young Park,2009 KOREA AND THE IMPERIALISTS Until the Korean War in 1950 except for evangelist Christian missionaries Americans were not interested in Korea or considered it important in the scheme of things Many did not know Korea had existed as an independent kingdom for centuries and others thought Korea might be a part of China or Japan Nationalism geopolitics and imperialism were the major determinants of international events in the late nineteenth and early twentieth century Greed and racism were the prime motivators of imperialism and non White societies of the world were the victims Korea was one of many countries that was invaded and made a sphere of influence With the support of America and Britain Japan destroyed Korea s traditional national identity and made Korea a colony in the Japanese Empire It was the perfect example of how imperialism profoundly affected the social economic and political life of countries subjugated by imperialist powers After World War II Korea was not granted independence because the Americans did not believe Koreans were capable of self government Korea was divided into two military occupation zones resulting in the creation of a Russian and an American satellite state In an effort to unite Korea North Korea invaded South Korea The U S China and the two Korean states fought a meaningless war and Korea remains divided Who are the Koreans Why are there two Koreas What is Korea s national identity What role does imperialism and racism play in the destruction of national identities Hopefully this brief history of Korea and the Imperialists will provide some answers The Empire of Civilization Brett Bowden,2010-10-19 The term civilization comes with considerable baggage dichotomizing people cultures and histories as civilized or not While the idea of civilization has been deployed throughout history to justify all manner of interventions and sociopolitical engineering few scholars have stopped to consider what the concept actually means Here Struggle for Freedom' 2008 Ed.
