Film On Four 1982 1991 A Survey:

Forgotten British Film Philip Gillett, 2017-05-11 Some films are remembered long after they are released others are soon forgotten but do they deserve oblivion Are factors other than quality involved This book exhumes some of the films released in Britain over the last seventy years from Daybreak 1948 to 16 Years of Alcohol 2003 and considers the reasons for their neglect As well as exploring the contributions of those involved in making the films the book examines such issues as marketing and the response of critics and audiences Films are grouped loosely into categories such as B films and television films Some works were little seen when they were first released and have stayed that way others were popular in their day but have slipped into obscurity In some cases social change has overtaken them making the attitudes or subjects they depict seem dated Even being released as a DVD does not guarantee that a title will be rehabilitated In addition how significant is the American market This book should appeal to lovers of British film as well as to film studies students and everybody curious about the vagaries of success and failure in the arts     The Films of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen ,2023-04-20 This collection of Laura Mulvey and Peter Wollen s film scripts vividly evokes the close connection between their influential work as theorists and their work as filmmakers It includes scripts for all six of Mulvey and Wollen s collaborative films Wollen s solo feature film Friendship s Death 1987 and Mulvey s later collaborations Each text is followed by a new essay by a leading writer offering a critical interpretation of the corresponding film The collection also includes Wollen s short story Friendship s Death 1976 the outlines for two unrealised Mulvey and Wollen collaborations and a selection of scanned working documents The scripts and essays collected in this volume trace the historical significance of a complex cinematic project that brought feminist semiotic and psychoanalytic concerns together with formal devices and strategies The book includes original contributions from Nora M Alter Kodwo Eshun Nicolas Helm Grovas Esther Leslie Laura Mulvey Volker Pantenburg Griselda Pollock B Ruby Rich and Sukhdev Sandhu     A Companion to British and Irish Cinema John Hill, 2019-07-18 A stimulating overview of the intellectual arguments and critical debates involved in the study of British and Irish cinemas British and Irish film studies have expanded in scope and depth in recent years prompting a growing number of critical debates on how these cinemas are analysed contextualized and understood A Companion to British and Irish Cinema addresses arguments surrounding film historiography methods of textual analysis critical judgments and the social and economic contexts that are central to the study of these cinemas Twenty nine essays from many of the most prominent writers in the field examine how British and Irish cinema have been discussed the concepts and methods used to interpret and understand British and Irish films and the defining issues and debates at the heart of British and Irish cinema studies Offering a broad scope of commentary the Companion explores historical cultural and aesthetic questions that encompass over a century of British and Irish film studies from the early years of the silent era to the present day Divided into five sections the Companion discusses the social and cultural forces shaping British and Irish cinema during different periods the contexts in which films are produced distributed and exhibited the genres and styles that have been adopted by British and Irish films issues of representation and identity and debates on concepts of national cinema at a time when ideas of what constitutes both British and Irish cinema are under question A Companion to British and Irish Cinema is a valuable and timely resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students of film media and cultural studies and for those seeking contemporary commentary on the cinemas of Britain and Ireland Tears of laughter Nigel Mather, 2019-01-04 Tears of laughter examines the interactions of comedy and drama in three vital thematic strands of British cinema during the 1990s comedies exploring issues of class culture and community in British society ethnic comedy dramas engaging with complex issues of identity and allegiance in modern Britain and romantic comedies featuring characters searching somewhat desperately or frantically for a suitable and desirable long term or short term partner Films to be discussed in detail include Brassed Off 1996 The Full Monty 1997 East is East 1999 Four Weddings and a Funeral 1994 Notting Hill 1999 and a post 1990s romantic comedy Love Actually 2003 The study discusses these specific films and a range of other 1990s British comedy drama films within the context of community orientated Ealing comedy classics contentious situation comedies treating race relations as both a laughing matter and a site of conflict Till Death Us Do Part and Love Thy Neighbour and romantic comedies set and produced in Britain It is aimed at film studies academics students and film enthusiasts

Thatcher and After Elizabeth Ho, 2010-07-16 The first substantial interdisciplinary cross genre critique of Margaret Thatcher and her cultural afterlife exploring Thatcher's legacy across a range of areas including public policy broadcast media film poetry architectural design political cartoons and literature An Accented Cinema Hamid Naficy, 2018-06-05 In An Accented Cinema Hamid Naficy offers an engaging overview of an important trend the filmmaking of postcolonial Third World and other displaced individuals living in the West How their personal experiences of exile or diaspora translate into cinema is a key focus of Naficy's work Although the experience of expatriation varies greatly from one person to the next the films themselves exhibit stylistic similarities from their open and closed form aesthetics to their nostalgic and memory driven multilingual narratives and from their emphasis on political agency to their concern with identity and transgression of identity The author explores such features while considering the specific histories of individuals and groups that engender divergent experiences institutions and modes of cultural production and consumption Treating creativity as a social practice he demonstrates that the films are in dialogue not only with the home and host societies but also with audiences many of whom are also situated astride cultures and whose desires and fears the filmmakers wish to express Comparing these films to Hollywood films Naficy calls them accented Their accent results from the displacement of the filmmakers their alternative production modes and their style Accented cinema is an emerging genre one that requires new sets of viewing skills on the part of audiences Its significance continues to grow in terms of output stylistic variety cultural diversity and social impact This book offers the first comprehensive and global coverage of this genre while presenting a framework in which to understand its intricacies Independent Television in Britain P. Bonner, L. Aston, 2002-12-13 Success out of near disaster finances taken to the edge of bankruptcy resignations this volume tells the dramatic stories of the major new commercial television developments in Britain between 1981-92 This is an authoritative account from the people involved and from official documents of the launches and first ten years of Channel 4 and TV-am the expansion of cable television and early difficulties of satellite broadcasting

Paving the Empire Road Darrell M. Newton, 2013-07-19 Beginning in the 1930s and moving into the post millennium Newton provides a historical analysis of policies invoked and practices undertaken as the Service attempted to assist white Britons in understanding the impact of African Caribbeans and their assimilation into constructs of Britishness Management soon approved talks and scientific studies as a means of examining racial tensions as ITV challenged the discourses of British broadcasting Soon BBC2 began broadcasting and more issues of race appeared on the screens each reflecting sometimes comedic somewhat dystopic often problematic circumstances of integration In the years that followed however social tensions such as the Nottingham and Nottingham Hill riots led to transmissions that included a series of news specials on Britain's Colour Bar and docudramas such as A Man From the Sun that attempted to frame the immigrant experience for British television audiences but from the African Caribbean point of view Subsequent chapters include an extensive analysis of television programming along with personal interviews Topics include current representations of race the future of British television and its impact upon multiethnic audiences Also detailed are the efforts of black Britons working within the British media as employees of the BBC writers producers and actors

Home, Exile, Homeland Hamid Naficy, 2013-08-21 Global changes in capital power technology and the media have caused massive shifts in how we define home and community leaving redrawn territories and globalized contexts This interdisciplinary study of the media brings together essays by accomplished critics to discuss the way film television music and computer and electronic media are shaping identities and cultures in an increasingly globalized world Ranging from intensely personal to highly theoretical the contributors explore our complex negotiation of home and homeland in a postmodern world Contributors Homi Bhabha Thomas Elsaesser Rosa Linda Fregoso Teshome H. Gabriel George Lipsitz Margaret Morse David Morley John Peters Patricia Seed Ella Shohat and Vivian Sobchack

My Beautiful Laundrette Christine Geraghty, 2004-10-29 Described by Stuart Hall as one of the most riveting and important films produced by a black writer in recent years My Beautiful Laundrette was a significant production for its director Stephen Frears and its writer Hanif Kureishi Omar member of a Pakistani family getting ahead in 1980s Thatcher's Britain is charged to make over a rundown launderette and in the process falls in love with the brooding Johnny Daniel Day Lewis in career making form Christine Geraghty interrogates My Beautiful Laundrette as a crossover film between television and cinema realism and fantasy and as an independent film targeting a popular audience She deftly shows how it has remained an important and watchable film in the 1990s and early 2000s and her exploration of the film itself is a remarkable original and entertaining achievement

Big Picture, Small Screen John

How to Read a Film James Monaco, 2009-05-08 Richard Gilman referred to How to Read a Film as simply the best single work of its kind And Janet Maslin in The New York Times Book Review marveled at James Monaco s ability to collect an enormous amount of useful information and assemble it in an exhilaratingly simple and systematic way Indeed since its original publication in 1977 this hugely popular book has become the definitive source on film and media Now James Monaco offers a special anniversary edition of his classic work featuring a new preface and several new sections including an Essential Library One Hundred Books About Film and Media You Should Read and One Hundred Films You Should See As in previous editions Monaco once again looks at film from many vantage points as both art and craft sensibility and science tradition and technology After examining film's close relation to other narrative media such as the novel painting photography television and even music the book discusses the elements necessary to understand how films convey meaning and more importantly how we can best discern all that a film is attempting to communicate In addition Monaco stresses the still evolving digital context of film throughout one of the new sections looks at the untrustworthy nature of digital images and sound and his chapter on multimedia brings media criticism into the twenty first century with a thorough discussion of topics like virtual reality cyberspace and the proximity of both to film With hundreds of illustrative black and white film stills and diagrams How to Read a Film is an indispensable addition to the library of everyone who loves the cinema and wants to understand it better

The Cinema of Ken Loach Jacob Leigh, 2002 The Cinema of Ken Loach Art in the Service of the People examines the linking of art and politics that distinguishes the work of this leading British film director Loach's films manifest recurrent themes over a long period of working with various collaborators yet his handling of those themes has changed throughout his career This book examines those changes as a way of reaching an understanding of Loach's style and meaning It evaluates how Loach incorporates his political beliefs and those of his writers into his work and augments this thematic interpretation with contextual information gleaned from original archive research and new interviews

BOOK JACKET By Angels Driven Chris Lippard, 1996-08-16 Derek Jarman was one of the most innovative British filmmakers of his generation Working largely outside the British film establishment and within tight budgetary constraints he produced a series of features and shorter films that are highly personal and yet responsive to major issues of our time For Jarman the most compelling of these was undoubtedly the celebration of gay culture and the battle for gay rights in which he was prominent until his death This book brings together seven new essays on Jarman's work one of the director's last interviews and supporting filmography and bibliography This book brings together seven new essays on Jarman's work one of the director's last interviews and supporting filmography and bibliography The contributions examine the full range of his output from Sebastiane 1976 to Blue 1993 and include discussion of his approach to narration his role as gay activist his commitment to English artistic traditions and fascination with the age of Shakespeare and the changing aesthetic preferences of his last films

Sexual Sports Rhetoric Linda K. Fuller, 2010 Sexual Sports Rhetoric Global and Universal Contexts is concerned with wider international applications of language to sport Topics discussed range from women's volleyball uniforms ballroom dancing female athletes as victims soccer fans nudity debates homophobia misogyny Title IX NASCAR extreme sports and trekking to Japanese sports reports Canadian hockey sailors in the French press British portrayals of Wimbledon champs Australian heroes German sports editorials and masculinity relative to Mount Everest Publisher's description British Cinema in the 1980's W. John Hill, 1999 In recent years the role and identity of British cinema has been changing and it is these changes with which British Cinema in the 1980's is concerned It looks at the increasing domination of the world film industry by Hollywood and the response of British filmmaking to this the role of government and the increasingly close relationship between film and television It also examines the kinds of images British cinema produced in this period and how they relate to a shifting sense of British identity The book not only looks at the appeal of images of the past in the heritage film such as Howards End and films of Empire such as A Passage to India but also discusses the more questioning images of the present by the state of the nation film such as Letter to Brezhnev and My Beautiful Laundrette In doing so it explores how these films deal with issues of class gender and ethnicity and how these in turn connect to our understanding of the Britishness of British cinema British Cinema in the 1980s will become the definitive study of an important period of British filmmaking Bringing together a discussion of British society the British film industry and British films John Hill provides an accessible analysis of the main themes and issues characterizing British cinema of the time
