Film Studies, 2008      Studying Feminist Film Theory Terri Murray, 2019-12-17 This book is aimed at helping media and film studies teachers introduce the basics of feminist film theory No prior knowledge of feminist theory is required the intended readers being university undergraduate teachers and students of film and media studies Areas of emphasis include spectatorship narrative and ideology Many illustrative case studies from popular cinema are used to offer students an opportunity to consider the connotations of visual and aural elements of film narrative conflicts and oppositions the implications of spectator positioning and viewer identification and an ideological critical approach to film Explanations of key terminology are included along with classroom exercises and practice questions Each chapter begins with key definitions and explanations of the concepts to be studied including some historical background where relevant Case studies include film noir Kathryn Bigelow's Strange Days and the work of directors Spike Lee Claire Denis and Paul Verhoeven Studying Feminist Film Theory is a revised and expanded version of Feminist Film Studies A Teacher's Guide published by Auteur in 2007

Alternative Europe Ernest Mathijs, Xavier Mendik, 2004 Whether defined by comic excesses cult horrors or surreal vampire experimentations trash and exploitation cinema represents the alternative face of European film Although extremely popular with post war audiences these historically significant traditions of Eurotrash have often been ridiculed or ignored by an established film criticism eager to define legitimate European cinema as either avant garde or socially realist Alternative Europe Eurotrash and Exploitation Cinema Since 1945 investigates these previously under explored national traditions of film culture with essays and festival reports uncovering the social and cultural trends and tensions within a wide range of European exploitation movies The volume considers such engaging and challenging topics as Russian Belgian and Italian horror cinema Gothic musclemen movies Nazi sexploitation cycles German erotic cinema and 1970s European rogue cop thrillers Alternative Europe also includes interviews with trash directors and icons such as Brian Yuzna J rg Buttgereit and Giovanni Lombardo Radice

A Critical Companion to Stanley Kubrick Elsa Colombani, 2020-10-16 A Critical Companion to Stanley Kubrick offers a thorough and detailed study of the films of the legendary director Labeled a recluse a provocateur and a perfectionist Kubrick revolutionized filmmaking from the use of music in film narrative pacing and structure to depictions of war and violence An unparalleled visionary his work continues to influence contemporary cinema and visual culture This book delves into the complexities of his work and examines the wide range of topics and the multiple interpretations that his films inspire The eighteen chapters in this book use a wide range of methodologies and explore new trends of research in film studies providing a series of unique and novel perspectives on all of Kubrick's thirteen feature films from Fear and Desire 1953 to Eyes Wide Shut 1999 as well as his work on A.I. Artificial Intelligence Steven Spielberg 2001      Reel Rebels: the London Film-Makers' Co-Operative 1966 to 1996 Joy I.

Payne, 2015-07-17 The London FilmMakers Cooperative was founded in 1966 by a group of artists who sought to explore the possibilities of the moving image whilst maintaining autonomy over the production distribution and exhibition of their work Although their films were not overtly political artists nevertheless expressed their political attitudes by creating nonnarrative films thereby rejecting conventional narrative structures associated with mainstream commercial cinema which they perceived as supporting the dominant ideology in society A return to narrative in the 1980s coincided with the introduction of British Art Cinema and the art house films of Derek Jarman Peter Greenaway and Sally Potter all of whom made experimental films in the early days of the London Co op      New German Literature Julian Preece, Frank Finlay, Ruth J. Owen, 2007

Twenty five essays by scholars from the UK Ireland Germany and Australia explore two aspects of new German language literature The first dozen studies focus on the variety and depth of the dialogue in the sense of reciprocal influences between literature photography film painting architecture and music The remaining essays alight on Life Writing in most of its forms diaries memoirs autobiographies and autobiographical fiction and examine its centrality in recent years in German literature not least because of the shadow which World War Two continues to cast over national life      On Joanna Russ Farah

Mendlesohn, 2012-01-01 This critical anthology presents a multifaceted look at one of the most original and influential voices in both science fiction and feminism Best known for her groundbreaking feminist sci fi novel The Female Man 1975 Joanna Russ has produced an important and wide ranging body of fiction and essays Her many publications include How to Suppress Women's Writing 1983 and she has won both of science fiction's most prestigious awards the Nebula and the Hugo In this volume a diverse range of scholars examine every aspect of Russ's body of work and provide a critical assessment that is long overdue The first section gives readers a contextual overview of Russ's works including discussions of Russ's role in the creation of a feminist science fiction tradition The second section offers detailed analyses of some of Russ's writing Contributors include Andrew M Butler Brian Charles Clark Samuel R Delany Edward James Sandra Lindow Keridwen Luis Paul March Russell Helen Merrick Dianne Newell Graham Sleight Jen a Tallentire Jason Vest Sherryl Vint Pat Wheeler Tess Williams Gary K Wolfe and Lisa Yaszek      The Forgotten Film Adaptations of D.H. Lawrence's Short Stories Jason Mark Ward, 2016-07-11 This book looks beyond fidelity to emphasize how each adaptation of D H Lawrence's short stories functions as a creative response to a text foregrounding the significance of its fluidity transtextuality and genre The adaptations analysed range from the first to the most recent and draw attention to the fluidity of textual sources the significance of generic conventions and space in film the generic potentialities latent within Lawrence's tales and the evolving nature of adaptation By engaging with recent advances in adaptation theory to discuss the evolving critical reception of the author's work and the role of the reader this book provides a fresh forward looking approach to Lawrence studies

Jane Campion Hilary Radner, Alistair Fox, Irène Bessière, 2009 An innovative collection of original essays on Jane Campion renowned female auteur filmmaker In Jane Campion Cinema Nation Identity a diverse group of contributors challenge the view that Campion's body of work lacks coherence or unity to instead examine the important characteristics and themes that underlie it Editors Hilary Radner Alistair Fox and Irène Bessière have compiled rich original scholarship on Campion's oeuvre to probe issues previously neglected by scholars like her debt to New Zealand sources and her personal views of family dynamics and those that benefit from additional insight such as her place in the feminist filmmaking tradition This volume also investigates Campion's distinct cinematic style in light of these issues to examine the source of her enduring cross cultural and international appeal Contributors in the first section explore the creation of subjectivity and identity in Campion's films which include well known works like The Piano and Holy Smoke to trace the unique perspectives of Campion's characters and Campion herself as director In the second section essays analyze Campion's close relationship with literature and argue that the singular vision in her literary adaptations stems from her New Zealand background and her personal mythology Contributors in the third section argue that while Campion devotes considerable attention to the evocation of feminine internal space she also uses the symbolic potential of her external physical locations to register what is taking place in the inner life of her characters and reflect their search for personal fulfillment A final group of essays presents a variety of responses to Campion's films demonstrating that Campion is a highly personal and idiosyncratic director who nonetheless manages to fascinate viewers across a broad cultural spectrum Taken together contributors in Jane Campion Cinema Nation Identity present a compelling analysis of Campion's status as a leading female filmmaker with close attention to her distinctive cinematic style and particular mise en scene The collective nature of this volume will appeal to students and teachers of film literature and gender studies as well as fans of Campion's work

"The Lives of Others" and Contemporary German Film Paul Cooke, 2013-06-26 This volume offers the first book length academic investigation of Florian Henckel von Donnersmarck's Oscar winning film The Lives of Others 2006 The aim of this edited collection is twofold On the one hand it offers new insight into one of the most successful German films of the past two decades placing The Lives of Others within its wider historical political aesthetic and industrial context On the other it offers this group of scholars which includes many of the leading international figures in the field opportunity to make a series of interventions on the state of contemporary German film and German film studies
