Film and Television Scores, 1950-1979 Kristopher Spencer,2014-01-10 Hollywood film scores underwent a supersonic transformation from the 1950s through the 1970s This genre by genre overview of film and television soundtrack music covers a period of tremendous artistic and commercial development in the medium Film and television composers bypassed the classical tradition favored by earlier screen composers to experiment with jazz rock funk and avant garde styles This bold approach brought a rich variety to film and television productions that often took on a life of its own through records and CDs From Bernard Herrmann to Ennio Morricone the composers of the Silver Age changed the way movie music was made used and heard The book contains more than 100 promotional film stills and soundtrack cover art images     The Japanese Cinema Book Hideaki Fujiki,Alastair Phillips,2020-04-02 The Japanese Cinema Book provides a new and comprehensive survey of one of the world s most fascinating and widely admired filmmaking regions In terms of its historical coverage broad thematic approach and the significant international range of its authors it is the largest and most wide ranging publication of its kind to date Ranging from renowned directors such as Akira Kurosawa to neglected popular genres such as the film musical and encompassing topics such as ecology spectatorship home movies colonial history and relations with Hollywood and Europe The Japanese Cinema Book presents a set of new and often surprising perspectives on Japanese film With its plural range of interdisciplinary perspectives based on the expertise of established and emerging scholars and critics The Japanese Cinema Book provides a groundbreaking picture of the different ways in which Japanese cinema may be understood as a local regional national transnational and global phenomenon The book s innovative structure combines general surveys of a particular historical topic or critical approach with various micro level case studies It argues there is no single fixed Japanese cinema but instead a fluid and varied field of Japanese filmmaking cultures that continue to exist in a dynamic relationship with other cinemas media and regions The Japanese Cinema Book is divided into seven inter related sections Theories and Approaches Institutions and Industry Film Style Genre Times and Spaces of Representation Social Contexts Flows and Interactions Schwann Long Playing Record Catalog ,1969 Professors Are from Mars®, Students Are from Snickers® Ronald A. Berk,2023-07-03 Professors and students seem to come from different planets or candy bars Barriers frequently exist that impede their communication such as age income and cholesterol level Humor can break down these barriers so that professors can better connect with their students and other audiences It can be used as a teaching tool to facilitate learning Ron Berk describes and illustrates a wide variety of techniques that can be integrated systematically into instruction and professional presentations For professors who consider themselves as jocularly arthritic this book moreover provides a special feature it is close captioned for the humor impaired Berk s techniques are the product of ten years of inadequate development testing and research But why take the author s words at their face value Consider the testimonials of those who have actually attempted these methods in their own classes and presentations Before I tried Ron s methods in my philosophy class I had an attendance problem Now no one comes to class H I Slot Machine U Nevada Applying humor to my engineering courses led me to understand the meaning of humiliation and rejection J K Toyota College Kentucky British Cinema, Past and Present Justine Ashby,Andrew Higson,2013-05-13 British Cinema Past and Present responds to the commercial and critical success of British film in the 1990s Providing a historical perspective to the contemporary resurgence of British cinema this unique anthology brings together leading international scholars to investigate the rich diversity of British film production from the early sound period of the 1930s to the present day The contributors address British Cinema Studies and the concept of national cinema the distribution and reception of British films in the US and Europe key genres movements and cycles of British cinema in the 1940s 50s and 60s questions of authorship and agency with case studies of individual studios stars producers and directors trends in British cinema from propaganda films of the Second World War to the New Wave and the Swinging London films of the Sixties the representation of marginalised communities in films such as Trainspotting and The Full Monty the evolution of social realism from Saturday Night Sunday Morning to Nil By Mouth changing approaches to Northern Ireland and the Troubles in films like The Long Good Friday and Alan Clarke s Elephant contemporary art and quality cinema from heritage drama to the work of Peter Greenaway Derek Jarman Terence Davies and Patrick Keiller Celluloid Saviours Emily Caston,2020-05-22 In Celluloid Saviours the author analyses a corpus of US films dating from the silent era that she calls film blanc In these fantasy films a guardian spirit with extraordinary powers suspends the ordinary known laws of time and space and a main character reforms himself or herself in life changing ways The author argues that the historical pattern of film blanc relates to the rise and fall of liberal and reform thought in US politics specifically to conceptions of human nature as a tabula rasa This conception is evident both in the early feature films featuring angels such as Chaplin's The Kid and much later examples such as the 1980s box office hit Trading Places She argues that this narrative tradition runs from Hollywood's beginnings to the present day and is foreshadowed in the English ghost stories of Charles Dickens The classic era of film blanc is epitomised in the enduringly popular film It's a Wonderful Life More recent examples of narrative form analysed by Caston include The Truman Show and Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind

The Cinema of Britain and Ireland Brian McFarlane, 2005 A fresh concise but wide ranging introduction to and overview of British and Irish cinema this volume contains 24 essays each on a separate seminal film from the region Films under discussion include Pink String and Sealing Wax Room at the Top The Italian Job Orlando and Sweet Sixteen

Surveillance in Asian Cinema Karen Fang, 2017-02-24 Critical theory and popular wisdom are rife with images of surveillance as an intrusive repressive practice often suggestively attributed to eastern powers and opposed to western liberalism Hollywood dominated global media has long promulgated a geopoliticized east west axis of freedom vs control This book focuses on Asian and Asia based films and cinematic traditions obscured by lopsided western hegemonic discourse and more specifically probes these films treatments of a phenomenon that western film often portrays with neo orientalist hysteria Exploring recent and historical movies made in post social and anti Communist societies such as China Hong Kong Taiwan Vietnam and South Korea the book picks up on the political and economic concerns implicitly underlying Sinophobic and anti Communist Asian images in Hollywood films while also considering how these societies and states depict the issues of centralization militarization and technological innovation so often figured as distinctive of the difference between eastern despotism and western liberalism

Small-Gauge Storytelling Ryan Shand, 2013-05-30 What do you understand by the term home movie Do you imagine images of babies on the lawn sandcastles on the beach or travels with the family Did you know that amateur filmmakers have also explored fictional genres as diverse and fascinating as their professional counterparts that specific amateur film studios have risen and fallen or that household name directors owe their origins and inspirations to the amateur film movement Across a range of settings from the Canadian north west to the Russian far east this book offers an introduction to the amateur maker of film comedies thrillers adaptations and sci fi It records the ambitions and achievements of enthusiasts struggling to emulate the mainstream and tell their own stories armed with limited resources and endless initiative
