Film Consciousness Spencer Shaw, 2015-03-10 The notion of film consciousness is one that has played around various film and philosophical discourses without ever really surfacing as a cogent theory. Representing the first major expression of film consciousness as a tangible concept, this critical study revisits notions of memory, retentional consciousness, narrative expectation, and spatio-temporal perception while also analyzing several major films. The first half of the book focuses on understanding the elements of the film experience and its associated consciousness through the descriptive tools of phenomenology. The second part develops the idea of film consciousness as a unique vision of the world and as a large element in the human understanding of reality. Throughout the work, the author combines the ideas of philosophers and film theorists from phenomenology such as Husserl, Merleau-Ponty, Bazin, and

Kracauer with the postmodernist work of Deleuze and transitional theorists Bergson and Benjamin Film

Disaster Cinema in Historical Perspective Nikita Mathias,2025-10-01 How do we experience disaster films in cinema And where does disaster cinema come from The two questions are more closely related than one might initially think For the framework of the cinematic experience of natural disasters has its roots in the mid eighteenth century when the aesthetic category of the sublime was re established as the primary mode for appreciating nature s violent forces In this book the sublime is understood as a complex and culturally specific meeting point between philosophical thought artistic creation social and technical development and popular imagination On the one hand the sublime provides a receptive model to uncover how cinematic disaster depictions affect our senses bodies and minds On the other hand this experiential framework of disaster cinema is only one of the most recent agents within the historical trajectory of sublime disasters which is traced in this book among a broad range of media from landscape and history painting to a variety of pictorial devices like Eidophusikon Panorama Diorama and finally cinema

The Oneiric in the Films of David Lynch Raphael Morschett,2024-06-27 The Oneiric in the Films of David Lynch is the first systematic book length study to explore the nature and function of dreams in David Lynch s different phases and audio visual formats There is hardly a contemporary film director whose name is as closely linked to the dream like as that of David Lynch Both popular and academic discourse frequently identify Lynch s films by their dreamlike qualities However in the existing literature on Lynch these qualities tend to remain underspecified in terms of their experiential dimension Departing from an interest in the phenomenon of dream experience this is the first systematic book length study exploring the nature and function of the oneiric in the director s different phases and audio visual formats It shows that over the course of 50 years Lynch has developed a cinematic aesthetics of the oneiric an ensemble of four dream related dimensions that unfolds its full potential in the dynamic interplay between sensory address and reflective medialization On the one hand the Lynchian oneiric presents a markedly sensory perceptual mode of experience both characters and viewers are challenged in their perceptual patterns while at the same time being immersed in the material dream scenario On the other hand the Lynchian oneiric provides a mode of both psychological and medial reflection Not only the characters but the films themselves are inclined to turn back on themselves in a dream exploring the preconditions possibilities and limitations of their own existence and ability to know the world The oneiric in Lynch s films is thus of phenomenological media theoretical and philosophical interest

Lived Moments Glen W. Norton, 2025-01-07 From the everyday concerns of Umberto D to the spiritual traces of Ma nuit chez Maud revelatory moments are intrinsic to the fabric of cinematic modernism Lived Moments conceptualizes the path from Italian Neorealism to the French New Wave as a trajectory unique in its expressions of the indeterminacy and contingency of daily life Drawing on film theory and criticism as well as the history of phenomenological thought Glen Norton offers illustrative readings of cinematic scenes exemplifying this modernist evolution in canonical films by Vittorio De Sica Roberto Rossellini Michelangelo Antonioni Jean Luc Godard and Eric Rohmer Norton describes how these filmmakers structure their characters lifeworlds via moments grounded by chance and multiplicity each having the potential to lift the opaque veil of inwardness Experienced in their immediacy these moments offer the viewer glimpses of a character s potential individuation As such they embody the difficult private and perhaps even incommunicable choices made in the midst of self reflection self awareness and self definition Lived Moments deepens our understanding of the history of cinematic modernism throwing new light on the canonical movements of Neorealism and the New Wave while also demonstrating the importance of lived moments for cinema more broadly The book stands as a model of how film analysis and film philosophy can be symbiotic rather than separate ways of thinking about cinematic experience
