Film Production Theory:

Film Production Theory Jean-Pierre Geuens, 2000-03-31 Most serious film books during the last twenty years have focused on theoretical issues film history or film analyses leaving production to the side This text however appropriate for film production courses fills that void opening the production process to pertinent argumentative notions and incorporating material from Heidegger Merleau Ponty and Derrida among others Although Geuens covers screenwriting lighting staging and framing among other production issues he avoids the strictly vocational or professional approach to film teaching currently applied to most production courses Geuens reevaluates what cinema could be to revive its full powers and attend to the mystery of the creative process To counter Hollywood's normative machinery he suggests taking back from the professionals important notions they have arrogated for themselves but rarely act upon artistry passion and engagement

Film Production Theory Jean-Pierre Geuens, 2000-03-31 Integrates contemporary film theory into the teaching of film production presenting alternatives to the standard Hollywood model of filmmaking Film Production Stephen Hoover, 2013-12 Film producing from idea to distribution Handy guide for the independent producer on developing material pre production production and post Suitable for textbook Film Production Theory in Disconnected, Last Stand at

Handbook of North Korean Cinema Travis Workman, Dong Hoon Kim, Immanuel Kim, 2025-01-23 This first handbook on North Korean cinema contests the assumption that North Korean film is unwatchable in terms of both quality and accessibility refusing to reduce North Korean cinema to political propaganda and focusing on its aesthetic forms and cultural meanings Since its founding in 1948 the Democratic People's Republic of Korea North Korea has played diverse roles a Cold War communist threat to the US the other half of a divided nation to South Korea an ally to the Soviet Union and China one model for anti colonialism to national liberation movements an exotic political and cultural anomaly in the era of globalization This handbook provides a solid and diverse foundation for the expanding scholarship on North Korean cinema It is also a road map for connecting this field to broader issues in film and media studies film history affect and ideology genre and transnational cinema cultures By connecting the worlds of North Korean cinema to broader questions in global cinema studies this book explores the complexity of a national cinema too often reduced to a single image Media/cultural Studies Rhonda Hammer, Douglas Kellner, 2009 This anthology is designed to assist teachers and students in learning how to better understand and interpret our common culture and everyday life With a focus on contemporary media consumer and digital culture this book combines classic and original writings by both leading and rising scholars in the field The chapters present key theories concepts and methodologies of critical cultural and media studies as well as cutting edge research into new media Sections on teaching media cultural studies and concrete case studies provide practical examples that illuminate contemporary culture ranging from new forms of digital media and consumer culture to artifacts from TV and film including Barbie and Big Macs soap operas Talk TV Facebook and YouTube The lively articles show that media cultural studies is an exciting and relevant arena and this text should enable students and citizens to become informed readers and critics of their culture and society
