I Wake Up Screaming! Frank Daniel Gilroy, 1993 George Stevens was the first to know months before Frank D Gilroy had even an inkling As they scouted locations for The Only Game in Town in 1968

Stevens repeatedly handed Gilroy his viewfinder to consider possible scenes. Asked to explain why he was so insistent on this procedure, Stevens answered with certainty, "You're going to direct some day." Gilroy recalled Stevens' words two years later when, unhappy with the limited role of screenwriter, he optioned Desperate Characters by Paula Fox, determined not only to adapt her novel for the screen but to direct the film. Fortunately for film buffs, film historians, film students, and prospective independent film producers, Gilroy is a compulsive diarist who wrote I Wake Up Screaming while he made four independent feature films, each accorded three stars in Leonard Maltin's TV Movies and Video Guide for a total investment of two million dollars for all four films. These intimate logs of the making of Desperate Characters, Once in Paris, The Gig, and The Luckiest Man in the World show clearly that a film school that doesn't include in its curriculum discussions of negotiating with the Teamsters and of raising money by independent producers is leaving out vital parts of the film-making process. Because Gilroy wrote the scripts, raised the money, assembled the production team, directed, opened each of the four films, and even ventured into the murky world of distribution, I Wake Up Screaming is a vast repository of information about film-making in general and independent film-making in particular. It is not recommended for anyone who wishes to preserve a fairy-tale notion about feature film-making. When Gilroy first considered publishing these logs, his wife encouraged him: "Do it," she said. "If it stops one person from following in your footsteps, it will be worthwhile."
