The Grip of Fear Solur Zeng, 2013-01-08 In an impoverished city where everyman lives for himself Luke an inventor strives to improve the city through his numerous creations One day he stumbles upon powers of extreme danger the roots of evil in the city that hold it back As Luke and his friend Zack confront these dangers he learns that if he is to save his city he must not only confront himself but also do the impossible and defeat fear itself The Fear of God in 2 Corinthians 7:1

Euichang Kim, 2019-02-21 Euichang Kim focuses upon the phrase the fear of God drawn from 2 Corinthians exhortation to reconcile with God As opposed to these words appearing from no particular source Kim points to the wider contexts of Old Testament passages quoted by Paul and demonstrates that God's eschatological promises in particular his coming judgment his promise to redeem his people and the prospect of a new covenant are intertwined with this motif of fear Beginning with an analysis of the meaning of fear in both the Old Testament and the New Kim proceeds to the context of fear within 2 Corinthians Scripture the writings of Second Temple Judaism and the very eschatology of Paul suggesting that it stems from an awareness of God's judgment to come and serves to motivate righteous behavior Kim finally argues that in the context of 2 Corinthians the fear of God functions as the proper response to God's saving acts in Christ and provides motivation for believers to pursue a holy life in anticipation of the eschatological judgment to come Songs to the Wise 1

Michel-Pierre Huppé, 2016-07-14 Songs to the Wise 1 takes on a simple yet sizeable challenge to impart profound knowledge practical skills and universal truths in an immediately useful way and in as few words as possible Combining the power and play of rhyme with the authors extensive reading history and rich life experience its packed with wise words pithy messages and tangible takeaways to improve every aspect of ones life Whether read at length or browsed at leisure it will provide timely answers in challenging times clear guidance where maps have become scarce and balanced perspective as we journey through this world Paul

HJ Schoeps, 2022-05-26 A major study of the apostle to the Gentiles combining exceptional scholarship with an unusual approach Schoeps interprets Paul's theology in the light of his Jewish background which coloured and conditioned his Christological teaching Paul's conception of Jesus differs from that of the Synoptics what and how extensive the difference is and whence it is derived are among the questions Schoeps examines After surveying major problems in Pauline research the Author relates the apostle to primitive Christianity discussing his eschatology and his teachings on salvation the law and saving history The final chapter shows that Paul s distinctive doctrines result from two converging factors that Paul never saw Jesus in the flesh and the influence of Jewish teaching The consequence was his concern with the resurrected Saviour of the world the pre existent and eternal Son of God Schoeps shows that Paul betrayed a fundamental misconception of the law and the covenantal agreement between God and his chosen people The result is a thought provoking and somewhat startling study of the first the greatest and the most difficult of all Christian theologians War Trauma and
