Final Refuge A Novel Of Eco Terrorism:

Final Refuge James L. Haley, 1994 In Texas a new kind of zoo opens the life work of Eric Jackson who has recreated the animals natural habitat The zoo is full of rare and valuable species and not surprisingly it attracts the attention of a criminal organization By the author of The Lions of Tsavo Conversations with Texas Writers Frances Leonard, Ramona Cearley, 2010-01-01 Larry McMurtry declares Texas itself doesn't have anything to do with why I write It never did Horton Foote on the other hand says I've just never had a desire to write about any place else In between those figurative bookends are hundreds of other writers some internationally recognized others just becoming known who draw inspiration and often subject matter from the unique places and people that are Texas To give everyone who is interested in Texas writing a representative sampling of the breadth and vitality of the state's current literary production this volume features conversations with fifty of Texas's most notable established writers and emerging talents The writers included here work in a wide variety of genres novels short stories poetry plays screenplays essays nonfiction and magazine journalism In their conversations with interviewers from the Writers League of Texas and other authors organizations the writers speak of their apprenticeships literary influences working habits connections with their readers and the domestic and public events that have shaped their writing Accompanying the interviews are excerpts from the writers work as well as their photographs biographies and bibliographies Joe Holley's introductory essay an overview of Texas writing from Cabeza de Vaca's 1542 Relation to the work of today's generation of writers who are equally at home in Hollywood as in Texas provides the necessary context to appreciate such a diverse collection of literary voices A sampling from the book This land has been my subject matter One thing that distinguishes me from the true naturalist is that I've never been able to look at land without thinking of the people who've been on it It's fundamental to me John Graves Writing is a way to keep ourselves more in touch with everything we experience It seems the best gifts and thoughts are given to us when we pause take a deep breath look around see what's there and return to where we were revived Naomi Shihab Nye I've said this many times in print the novel is the middle age genre Very few people have written really good novels when they are young and few people have written really good novels when they are old You just tail off and lose a certain level of concentration Your imaginative energy begins to lag I feel like I'm repeating myself and most writers do repeat themselves Larry McMurtry I was a pretty poor cowhand I grew up on the Macaraw Ranch east of Crane Texas My father tried very hard to make a cowboy out of me but in my case it never seemed to work too well I had more of a literary bent I loved to read and very early on I began to write small stories short stories out of the things I liked to read Elmer Kelton The Last Refuge Craig Robertson, 2014-05-22 You can run from your past but you can never hide from yourself When John Callum arrives on the wild and desolate Faroe Islands he vows to sever all ties with his previous life He desperately wants to make a new start and is surprised by how quickly he is welcomed into the close knit community But still the terrifying debilitating nightmares just won't stop Then the solitude is shattered by an almost unheard of crime on the islands murder A specialist team of detectives arrives from Denmark to help the local police who seem completely ill equipped for an investigation of this scale But as tensions rise and the community closes rank to protect its own John has to watch his back But far more disquieting than that John s nightmares have taken an even more disturbing turn and he can t be certain about the one thing he needs to know above all else Whether he is the killer

The Sun Collective He was nine when the vines first wrapped themselves around him and burrowed into his skin Now a college botany major Jeremy is desperately looking for a way to listen to the plants and stave off their extinction But when the grip of the vines becomes too intense and Health Services starts asking questions he flees to Brooklyn where fate puts him face to face with a group of climate justice activists who assure him they have a plan to save the planet and his plants As the group readies itself to make a big Earth Day splash Jeremy soon realizes these eco terrorists devotion to activism might have him and those closest to him tangled up in more trouble than he was prepared to face With the help of a determined differently abled flame from his childhood her deteriorating once rabble rousing grandmother and some shocking and illuminating revelations from the past Jeremy must weigh completing his mission to save the plants against protecting the ones he loves and confront the most critical question of all how do you stay true to the people you care about while trying to change the world Ellen Meeropol has an uncanny knack for examining the big topics of our contemporary world and putting a human face on them a must read Ann Hood author of The Obituary Writer Gripping irresistible characters The Berkshire Eagle

Writing Ecofiction Kevan Manwaring,2024-07-19 This creative writing textbook introduces students to ecofiction narrative writing that focuses on the environment Also known as climate fiction or cli fi an increasing number of short story writers novelists and pioneers of emerging forms such as interactive fiction are taking up the call to develop their own creative responses to the climate crisis This guide explores a cross section of genres and ways of writing about our world as well as the ethical and technical challenges involved It offers a discussion of classic and contemporary texts literary criticism and creative writing exercises The book covers a broad range of themes and styles of writing from works that engage with nature and landscape writing to those that take a more activist approach to climate change With an awareness of the Global South and the subaltern the framing of the Anthropocene wilderness and nature writing is challenged Each chapter offers a new perspective on ecofiction for the creative writer with reading suggestions and connections to other writers and texts and writing activities Designed for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate writing modules on the environment the book is also suitable for independent writers looking to expand their skillset Featuring 20 interviews with ecofiction authors Ana Filomena Amaral Austin Aslan Denise Baden David Barker TC Boyle Lynn Buckle Adam Connor Michelle Cook Julie Carrick Dalton April Doyle Anna Holmes Somto Ihezue RB Kelly Gill Lewis Anne Mordell Anthony Nanson Midge Raymond Manda Scott Mary Woodbury John Yunker An extensive and enthusiastic guide into the wild and varied worlds of eco fiction James Canton Director of Wild Writing MA University of Essex UK Don DeLillo Katherine Da Cunha Lewin, Kiron

Ward, 2018-10-04 Don DeLillo is widely regarded as one of the most significant and prescient writers of our time Since the 1960s DeLillo's fiction has been at the cutting edge of thought on American identity globalization technology environmental destruction and terrorism always with a distinctively macabre and humorous eye Don DeLillo Contemporary Critical Perspectives brings together leading scholars of the contemporary American novel to guide readers through DeLillo's oeuvre from his early short stories through to 2016's Zero K including his theatrical work As well as critically exploring DeLillo's engagement with key contemporary themes the book also includes a new interview with the author annotated guides to further reading and a chronology of his life and work Resilience and the Wandering Subject Supriya Daniel, Anu

Kuriakose, 2024-09-24 What are the different contours of defining a subject How does a subject form in the act of resilience This multi author book explores the concept of a wandering subject especially in the context of resilience The wandering subject can be understood as an ever forming subject through different mobilities This movement is not just the physical movement compelled by a certain agency but also the various mobilities of the selves of the subject mobilities through spaces the interconnections formed with other subjects and the fluidity between the subject object spaces at most times compelled by the spirit of resilience Each chapter of the book delves into the myriad modalities of movement in spaces that are imagined or real The space is always one of contestation be it emerging from gender conflict or that of a nation or a trauma inflicted by war In this mode of displacement either physical emotional or spiritual and at times a seepage of all the subject evolves and defines itself beyond the boundaries of binaries It questions available definitions of self subjecthood and identity and prompts one to imagine ways of comprehending and elucidating the concept of subject In this sense the book not only illuminates multiple perspectives on the subject but also compels the reader to formulate their own mode of grappling with this complex idea of the subject It renders itself as an aid to current and future scholars to re imagine and re configure the subject Public Health Nursing E-Book Marcia Stanhope, Jeanette Lancaster, 2024-03-13 Selected for Doody's Core Titles
