Acknowledgements Introduction Duncan Cameron Section 1 An Overview 1 Constitutionalizing the Canadian American Relationship Stephen Clarkson 2 Continental Corporate Economics Bruce Green Finance in the European Union Marta Postuła, Mariusz Lipski, 2024-09-02 While global challenges continue to reshape the here and now public and corporate finance management needs to adapt quickly to increase the efficiency of institutions enterprises and policies to face our new reality There are very few publications that offer a comprehensive approach to the financing of environmental protection activities by the European Union This book explores this topic from various angles and levels as well as highlighting the determinants that influence micro and macro level decisions in this area It presents an in depth and unique analysis of the sources of funding for environmental measures implemented by European Union institutions against the backdrop of national expenditure by Member States and analyses the plausibility of the adopted targets in the run up to 2050 in the context of the war in Ukraine and ad hoc energy policy solutions This book is a voice in an ongoing discussion among the community of practitioners and theoreticians on sources of financing for the energy transition to achieve independence from Russian sources in the quickest possible timeframe. It demonstrates that environmental measures cannot occur without the financial participation of economic actors and financial institutions, particularly the capital market, and further underscores the scale of involvement in environmental projects as measured by the value of green loans and green bonds covered by European financial institutions. The authors offer policy recommendations for financing activities related to environmental policy, notably energy transition. This book will appeal to scholars, students, and researchers of corporate finance, banking, strategic and public finance management, as well as policymakers and practitioners involved in green finance investments.

Central American Recovery and Development Task Force Report to the International Commission for Central American Recovery and Development Central American Recovery and Development Task Force, International Commission for Central American Recovery and Development, 1989. The International Commission for Central American Recovery and Development was created in 1987 to analyze development in the region and to make recommendations to the region's governments and to the international community. The essays in this volume were written by experts in Central American development, economics, politics, and administration who were asked by the commission to synthesize existing knowledge on Central America's prospects for aid, trade, and institutional reform, and to propose creative approaches to the problems facing the region. The Center for International Development Research at Duke University was chosen to perform the editorial and support tasks for the commission.

Economic Growth and Development in the Tropics Sook-Hei Tan, Haejin Jang, Jacob Wood, 2024-02-06

The living standards and scale of development around the world are vastly unequal. One notable observation is that much of the poverty-stricken area is located between the tropics of Cancer and Capricorn. By contrast, affluent nations are situated in more temperate zones. Such a phenomenon gives weight to the geography hypothesis that seeks to explain the occurrence of global economic inequality by placing an emphasis on the importance of natural elements such as location and climate in determining the economic conditions of a nation. This book concentrates exclusively and in depth on the key economic phenomena and factors which shape tropical economies today. It examines contemporary economic problems confronting the tropical countries and provides policy recommendations that align with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals set in the 2030 Agenda. It contains research works and case studies of tropical economies that are related to the area of development and environment economics. The book's themes range from economic growth, poverty reduction, income inequality, economic globalization, international trade, capital flow, financial development, and institutional development to environmental sustainability within the Tropics. Recognizing the dynamism and diversity of the tropics, the book encompasses empirical and policy analyses that address the key economic issues and challenges in the region so as to provide an important platform from which new policymaking initiatives can flourish. This book will draw readership primarily from the fields of economics and public policy, particularly under the subject areas of development and environment economics, as well as discussions in the sustainability policy space International Financial Centres after the Global Financial Crisis and Brexit Youssef Cassis, Dariusz Wójcik, 2018-06-26 As well as marking the tenth anniversary of the collapse of Lehman Brothers and the consequent unleashing of the global financial crisis 2018 is also the year of negotiations on the terms of the UK's exit from the European Union Within a decade the banking world has witnessed two epochal events with potential to redraw the map of international financial centres but how much has this map actually changed since 2008 and how is it likely to change in the near future International Financial Centres after the Global Financial Crisis and Brexit gathers together leading economic historians geographers and other social scientists to focus on the post 2008 developments in key international financial centres It focuses on the shifting hierarchies of New York London Paris Geneva Zurich Frankfurt Singapore Hong Kong Beijing Shanghai and Tokyo to question whether Asian financial centres have taken advantage of the crisis in the West It also examines the medium effects of the crisis the level of regulation and the rise of new technology fintech By exploring these crucial changes it questions whether shifts in the financial industry and the global landscape will render these centres unnecessary for the functioning of the global economy and which cities are likely to emerge as hubs of new financial technology Green and Sustainable Finance Simon Thompson, 2021-03-03 More than 120 countries have committed to net zero targets by 2050 requiring systemic economic transitions on an unprecedented scale and with the finance sector playing a leading role Green finance will power the transition ensuring capital flows to the firms investments projects and technologies looking to create a sustainable low carbon world To achieve net zero every professional financial decision must take climate change and broader sustainability factors into account Green and Sustainable Finance provides a comprehensive guide to the application of common green and sustainable principles and practices in banking investment and insurance to help finance professionals embed these in their daily activities and decision making Focusing on the necessity of mainstreaming green and sustainable finance globally this book includes a clear explanation of the science underpinning climate change Green and Sustainable Finance covers a wide range of green finance products and services in retail commercial and corporate banking insurance investment and fintech It provides an overview of emerging regulation and international market frameworks and standards particularly in relation to climate and environmental risk Consideration is also given to the ethical dimensions of green and sustainable finance including how professionals can promote market integrity and take active steps to avoid greenwashing Endorsed by the Chartered Banker Institute as the core text for the benchmark Certificate in Green and Sustainable Finance this book is essential reading for finance professionals and students and individuals working to embed sustainability in business policy and regulation Handbook of Critical Issues in Finance Jan Toporowski, Jo Michell, 2012-01-01 This vital new Handbook is an authoritative volume presenting key issues in finance that have been widely discussed in the financial markets but have been neglected in textbooks and the usual compilations of conventional academic wisdom A wide range of topics including the recent economic crisis capital controls

The Other War Lael Brainard, Carol L. Graham, Nigel Purvis, 2004-05-13 A Brookings Institution Press and the Center for Global Development publication The plight of the poorest around the world has been pushed to the forefront of America's international agenda for the first time in many years by the war on terrorism and the formidable challenges presented by the HIV AIDS pandemic In March 2002 President Bush announced the creation of the Millennium Challenge Account MCA This bilateral development fund represents an increase of 5 billion per year over current assistance levels and establishes of a new agency to promote growth in reform oriented developing countries Amounting to a doubling of U S bilateral development aid the largest increase in decades the MCA offers a critical chance to deliberately shape the face that the United States presents to people in poor nations around the world This book makes concrete recommendations on crafting a new blueprint for distributing and delivering aid to make the MCA an effective tool not only in its own right but also in transforming U S foreign aid and strengthening international aid cooperation more generally The book tackles head on the tension between foreign policy and development goals that chronically afflicts U S foreign assistance the danger of being dismissed as one more instance of the United States going it alone instead of buttressing international cooperation and the risk of exacerbating confusion among the myriad overlapping U S policies agencies and programs targeted at developing nations particularly USAID In doing so The Other War draws important lessons from new international development initiatives such as the Global Fund to Fight AIDS TB and Malaria the mixed record of previous U S aid efforts trends in the U S budget for foreign assistance the agencies currently involved in administering U S development policy and the importance of the relationship between Congress and the executive branch in determining aid outcomes The MCA holds the promise of substantially increasing U S development assistance and policy and the importance of the relationship between Congress and the executive branch in determining aid outcomes The MCA holds the promise of substantially increasing U S development assistance and pioneering a new era in aid but the authors caution against creating yet another example of wasted aid that could undermine political support for foreign assistance for decades to come

Regionalism versus Multilateral Trade Arrangements Takatoshi Ito, Anne O. Krueger, 2007-12-01 There is no doubt that the open multilateral trading system after World War II was a key ingredient in the rapid economic development of the entire world Especially in Hong Kong Korea Singapore and Taiwan exports increased dramatically both in absolute terms and as a percentage of GNP In the 1980s however preferential trading arrangements PTAs began to emerge as significant factors affecting world trade This volume contains thirteen papers that analyze the tensions between multilateral trading systems and preferential trade arrangements and the impact of these tensions on East Asia The first four chapters introduce PTAs conceptually and focus on the unique political issues that these agreements involve The next five essays present more direct empirical analyses of existing PTAs and their economic effects primarily in East Asia The last four papers concentrate on the outcomes of individual East Asian nations trading policies in specific instances of preferential agreements

Struggle Against Dependence Eva Paus, 2019-07-11 Today most of the countries in Central America and the Caribbean share a common set of problems and structural characteristics that are the result of a similar history of economic development The specific articulation of these characteristics and the severity of the economic problems in any particular country of course vary In general the economies of the region are small agricultural export economies Sugar bananas coffee and meat have been the main export items for most countries but natural resource exports bauxite and oil have played a key role for a few Caribbean countries

Economic and Fiscal Strategy Report and Financial Statement and Budget Report Great Britain, 2002

Escaping Dystopia Stephen McBride, 2022-07-12 Multiple crises have led many to conclude that the current economic and political system is broken The present and future look increasingly precarious if not outright dystopian Stephen McBride calls for radical solutions to these crises to provide a more rational and sustainable future He critiques other potential responses which would further curtail democracy and increase the inequalities associated with neoliberal globalism Demonstrating how mainstream ideas powerful interests and political institutions face major challenges but block progressive alternatives he argues that for radical transformation to succeed institutional changes are necessary
