Maximising Resources CMIOLP, Kate Williams, 2007-06-01. The new edition of the Chartered Management Institute's Open Learning Programme has been updated to include the latest management concepts and methodologies. It includes current management concepts, the changing legal framework in which managers operate, and the impact of technology in the work environment. The scope of the workbooks has been broadened to enable more generic and stand-alone use of the materials. Each workbook has a new introduction that places the subject area within the context of the managerial role, and the end of each section now has a learning summary. The final summaries from the first editions have been replaced with a section entitled Toolkits for Busy Managers that includes links to other workbooks in the series, links to relevant BH CMI textbooks, further reading, website addresses, and trade journals. User mentor guides are now a downloadable resource from the BH website.

Everything you Need for an NVQ in Management, 2000. All the relevant management techniques and principles are explained in a clear practical style, structured around the recently revised National Occupational Standards for Management and Leadership and conforming to the requirements of the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority. After reading this book, students will be well prepared and have everything needed to compile the portfolio of evidence and achieve the qualification. Everything you Need for an NVQ in Management is also an extremely useful and comprehensive encyclopaedia of management techniques and principles for those not wanting to gain a qualification. It is written specifically for supervisors and junior managers, middle managers, and senior managers working within medium and large organisations who wish to increase their knowledge and understanding of business and further their careers, whether or not they are working towards a specific qualification. It would also prove useful to those running and working in small businesses and to business studies students in schools and colleges.
