Financing for Development Beyond Monterrey South Centre (Independent Commission of the South on Development Issues),2002 Does Foreign Aid Really Work? Roger C. Riddell,2008-08-07 Foreign aid is now a 100bn business and is expanding more rapidly today than it has for a generation But does it work Indeed is it needed at all Other attempts to answer these important questions have been dominated by a focus on the impact of official aid provided by governments But today possibly as much as 30 percent of aid is provided by Non Governmental Organizations NGOs and over 10 percent is provided as emergency assistance In this first ever attempt to provide an overall assessment of aid Roger Riddell presents a rigorous but highly readable account of aid warts and all Does Foreign Aid Really Work sets out the evidence and exposes the instances where aid has failed and explains why The book also examines the way that politics distorts aid and disentangles the moral and ethical assumptions that lie behind the belief that aid does good The book concludes by detailing the practical ways that aid needs to change if it is to be the effective force for good that its providers claim it is Development at Risk Ann Zammit,2003 Refers to the United Nations Global Compact initiative launched in 2000 involving private business in an effort to speed development in the South Urges for a stronger commitment of transnational corporations TNC to corporate social responsibility CSR and to working in an economic policy framework that is contributing to sustainable development and poverty reduction in developing countries Mentions the role of ILO s core labour standards NEPAD and the Challenges of Development in Nigeria Dennis Ityavyar,Zacharys Gundu,2006 Global Outlook on Financing for Sustainable Development 2019 Time to Face the Challenge OECD,2018-11-12 The financing for sustainable development agenda promises to bring together more actors than ever before from businesses governments philanthropists and remitting households to address the world s most pressing problems and achieve the Sustainable Development Goals Yet in spite of this

Goals SDGs is wholly insufficient due to their failure to recognise the growing difference between the income of work and the income of capital and the super rich and the strain this places on a country's social fabric

Development Cooperation and Emerging Powers Sachin Chaturvedi, Thomas Fues, Elizabeth Sidiropoulos, 2012-05-10 The current framework of development cooperation is dominated by the experiences of industrialized countries But emerging economies have begun to accelerate their own development programmes and attempts to bring them into existing aid models have been met with caution and reservation This expert topical volume explores the development policies of Brazil China India Mexico and South Africa analysing how South South cooperation has evolved and where it differs from traditional development cooperation This vital new collection brings together first hand experience from these countries to provide a forward looking analysis of the current global architecture of development cooperation and of the possible convergence of traditional and emerging development actors
