Edward Hopper The Life Of An Artist Artist Biographies:

Edward Hopper Ray Spangenburg, Kit Moser, 2002 Examines the life and work of the American realist painter describing and giving examples of his art Edward Hopper Gail Levin, 1998-01-01 00 Edward Hopper's canvasses are filled with stripped down spaces and unrelenting light evocative landscapes and the lonely aspects of men and women seemingly isolated in their surroundings What kind of man had this haunting vision and what kind of life engendered this art No one is better qualified to answer these questions than art historian Gail Levin author and curator of the major studies and exhibitions of Hopper's work In this intimate biography she reveals the true nature and personality of the man himself and of the woman who shared his life the artist Josephine Nivison Edward Hopper Mike Venezia, 1990 Briefly examines the life and work of the American realist painter describing and giving examples of his art Edward Hopper Robert Carleton Hobbs, Edward Hopper, 1987-09-15 Biography of American artist Edward Hopper showing his life and times as well as discussing his paintings in detail Edward Hopper Emma Foa, 2005 Examines the life and work of the American realist painter describing and giving examples of his art 10 yrs Hopper Rolf Günter Renner, 2000 Hopper is simply a bad painter but if he were a better one he would probably not be such a great artist Clement Greenberg Edward Hopper Ita G Berkow, 2018 Considered by most to be one of the greatest painters of the twentieth century Edward Hopper's work can be found in almost every major museum and his familiar urban images permeate pop culture in advertisements and on film Best known for his oil paintings the New York artist incorporated elements of both the Ashcan and the Impressionist schools of art to create his own unique style His favorite theme the isolation of the individual within America's rapidly progressing society appears throughout his work made all the more poignant by his original realistic technique In the American Artist series you'll read about more masters of the art world who not only depicted American life and landscape through beautiful works but also broadened our perspectives by employing the tools of their trade with the highest levels of creativity and insight Experience firsthand these artists vision and influence through the seventy or more spectacular full color reproductions of their work Each title in this series includes color photos throughout and back matter including an index and further reading lists for books and internet resources Educational Videos are offered in the back through the use of QR codes that when scanned takes the student to an online video showing a video relating to the book topic This gives the readers additional content to supplement the text Hopper Ivo Kranzfelder, Edward Hopper, 2006-01-01 This volume presents a survey of the painting of American artist Edward Hopper 1882 1967 While most popularly known for his oil paintings he was equally proficient as a watercolorist and printmaker in etching In both his urban and rural scenes his spare and finely calculated renderings reflected his personal vision of modern American life depicting the loneliness of big city people in canvas after canvas Many of Hopper's pictures represent views of streets and roads rooftops abandoned houses depicted in brilliant light that strangely belies the melancholy mood of the scenes Hopper's paintings are marked by striking juxtapositions of color and by the clear contours with which the figures are demarcated from their surroundings His extremely precise focus on the theme of modern men and women in natural and man-made environments sometimes lends his pictures a mood of eerie disquiet Edward Hopper Gail Levin, 1984 Edward Hopper Edward Hopper, Carol Troyen, 2007 This extensive new assessment of Edward Hopper which accompanies a major traveling exhibition examines the dynamics of the artist's creative process and discusses his work within the cultural currents of his day 200 full color plates Edward Hopper Gail Levin, 1995 Edward Hopper Gail Levin, 2023-02-07 New York Times Notable Book Los Angeles Times Book Prize Finalist Wall Street Journal one of five best artist biographies Edward Hopper's canvasses are filled with stripped down spaces and unrelenting light evocative landscapes and the lonely aspects of men and women seemingly isolated in their surroundings What kind of man had this haunting vision and what kind of life engendered this art No one is better qualified to answer these questions than art historian Gail Levin author and curator of the major studies and exhibitions of Hopper's work In this intimate biography she reveals the true nature and personality of the man himself and of the woman who shared his life the artist Josephine Nivison Edward Hopper Mike Venezia, 1990 Get to Know Edward Hopper Charlotte Taylor, 2015-12-15 Through details about his life and education readers learn not only to appreciate Edward Hopper's paintings but also his contributions to modern art Images of his work show readers how his unique style developed while Art Smart boxes help students understand the mediums and elements of Hopper's work Edward Hopper Light and Dark Gerry Souter, 2012-05-08 In his works Hopper poetically expressed the solitude of man confronted with the American way of life as it developed in the 1920s Inspired by the movies and particularly by the various camera angles and attitudes of characters his paintings expose the alienation of mass culture Done in cold colours and inhabited by anonymous characters Hopper's paintings also symbolically reflect the Great Depression Through a series of different reproductions etchings watercolours and oil on canvas paintings as well as thematic and artistic analysis the author sheds new light on the enigmatic and tortured world of this outstanding figure Edward Hopper Patricia A. Junker, 2008 Published in conjunction with an exhibition held at the Seattle Art Museum Nov 13 2008 Mar 1 2009 A Companion to American Art John Davis, Jennifer A. Greenhill, Jason D. LaFountain, 2015-01-30 A Companion to American Art presents 35 newly commissioned essays by leading scholars that explore the methodology historiography and current state of the field of American art history Features contributions from a balance of established and emerging scholars art and architectural historians and other specialists Includes several paired essays to emphasize dialogue and debate between scholars on important contemporary issues in American art history Examines topics such as the methodological stakes in the writing of American art history changing ideas about what constitutes Americanness and the relationship of art to public culture Offers a fascinating portrait of the evolution and current state of the field of American art history and suggests future directions of scholarship Linking Picture Book Biographies to National Content Standards Liz Deskins,Christina H.
