Williams, Michael Burkholder, 2012-07-05 Mary Lincoln is a lightning rod for controversy Stories reveal widely different interpretations and it is impossible to write a definitive version of her life that will suit everyone The thirteen engaging essays in this collection introduce Mary Lincoln's complex nature and show how she is viewed today The authors' explanations of her personal and private image stem from a variety of backgrounds and through these lenses history theater graphic arts and psychiatry they present their latest research and assessments Here they reveal the effects of familial culture and society on her life and give a broader assessment of Mary Lincoln as a woman wife and mother Topics include Mary's childhood in Kentucky the early
