Ego Makers:

Mindful Thoughts for Makers Ellie Beck, 2019-09-03 Mindful Thoughts for Makers is a lovingly crafted little book celebrating the meditative beauty and nature of making. In it, Ellie Beck reveals why creating with our hands is uplifting, rewarding, and soothing for the mind, body, and soul. Honoring rituals, noticing the internal quiet, creating time, and finding your flow are all explored in this charmingly illustrated collection of reflections. The importance of making mistakes, respecting your creativity, appreciating dirty hands, and noticing the mundane moments together form a meaningful tool every maker will cherish.

Guitar Makers Kathryn Marie Dudley, 2014-11-10 The craft tradition of making string instruments goes back to Stradivarius, the 18th-century luthier whose instruments today are very nearly priceless. Kathryn Dudley here takes us on a quest for the Guitar Heroes of the 21st century, the luthiers whose artisanal skills, as opposed to computer numerical control technology, produce exquisite one-of-a-kind instruments. But she tracks industrial guitar making as well as artisanal, starting with the post-WW II golden era of the Martin and Gibson companies on to a second golden era, a result of new modes of information sharing. She has interviewed 100 luthiers and 50 dealers, collectors, musicians, material suppliers, and guitar festival organizers. We see how the advent of disco caused sales of acoustic guitars to plummet in the 1980s and meet the key individuals who rescued both the craft and the big companies from almost certain demise. In depth portraits of guitar makers illuminate the kinds of emotional and tactile engagement these skilled workers have with the wood they shape into a guitar's unique voice. They talk to wood and listen to what the piece of wood wants to be, how the grain is going to go; they bring wood to life, treating it not as a passive object but as a collaborator in the production process. Along the way, we meet up with consequences of the 1992 law prohibiting sales of Brazilian rosewood, as well as taking tours of the Martin Company museum and factory and devouring with pleasure her portraits of student and apprentice luthiers as well as masters. The interaction between people and things yields a longing to be in perfect synch with sound and with the human body, what Dudley calls acoustic desire. No other book has so perceptively shown us the role of human hands in shaping a guitar's unique voice.

A city of shimmering canals and shadowy secrets. On the fiery island of Murano, glassblowers sculpt molten sand into breathtaking works of art. But a chilling masterpiece shatters the fragile peace. A master artisan is found entombed within a glass cage of impossible artistry, a fusion of ancient alchemy and exquisite craftsmanship. Isabella Bellini, daughter of a renowned maestro, is thrust into the heart of the mystery. Forbidden by tradition from practicing the art, Isabella secretly hones her skills, recognizing in the killer's creations echoes of a forbidden knowledge her father concealed. Driven by grief for her murdered mentor and a burning curiosity, she embarks on a perilous quest to unmask the killer. Whispers of a legendary formula lost to time weave through the labyrinthine alleys of Venice. A formula capable of imbuing glass with extraordinary properties: unbreakable strength, the ability to capture light itself, a secret worth killing for. Caterina Fleming, a historian steeped in Venetian lore, becomes Isabella's confidante, guiding her through a treacherous world of hidden societies and age-old vendettas. Among the suspects is Charles Payne, a rival maestro whose skill rivals Isabella's but whose knowledge of forbidden techniques casts a long shadow. Drawn together by the enigmatic glass and a shared sense of foreboding, they form an uneasy alliance, their investigation igniting a dangerous spark between them. As more glass-encased victims appear, each a testament to the lost art, Isabella uncovers a conspiracy far older than Murano itself, reaching back to the Roman Empire and a clandestine branch of her own family, ostracized for their obsession with alchemical glass. The whispers intensify, revealing a network of alchemists manipulating Venetian power from the shadows. Could the killer be one of her own blood, seeking a twisted form of vengeance? With Venice teetering on the brink of a fiery catastrophe orchestrated by the killer's final masterpiece, Isabella must decipher the requiem etched in glass before she becomes the next victim, silenced forever within a shimmering cage of death. Time is running out. The alchemical fire burns brighter, closer. And Isabella must choose.

between upholding tradition and embracing the forbidden knowledge that could save Venice or destroy it
