imperial Rome and the last days of the western Roman empire     A World History of Nineteenth-Century Archaeology Margarita Diaz-Andreu, 2007-11-22 Margarita Diaz Andreu offers an innovative history of archaeology during the nineteenth century encompassing all its fields from the origins of humanity to the medieval period and all areas of the world The development of archaeology is placed within the framework of contemporary political events with a particular focus upon the ideologies of nationalism and imperialism Diaz Andreu examines a wide range of issues including the creation of institutions the conversion of the study of antiquities into a profession public memory changes in archaeological thought and practice and the effect on archaeology of racism religion the belief in progress hegemony and resistance     Observations on the Letter of Monsieur Mariette Giovanni Battista Piranesi, 2002 An impassioned plea for a Roman Style eclecticism that draws freely on all artistic forms and traditions Piranesi's Observations anticipates the contemporary debate between devotees of a rational minimal architecture and advocates of an architecture rich in ornament and historical references BOOK JACKET

French Orientalism Desmond Hosford, Chong J. Wojtkowski, 2010-07-12 In 1798 Napoleon I launched his Egyptian Campaign and opened what has become recognized as the canonic period of French Orientalism which extends from the late eighteenth through the early twentieth century As defined by Edward W Said Orientalism 1978 Orientalism is intrinsically Eurocentric and places the Orient in opposition to the European West as the quintessentially foreign Other In this sense the Occident supposedly defines itself by gazing at the East as its inverse image and purportedly asserts a geopolitical dominance materially confirmed through imperialism and colonization Although Europe may cast the Orient as the archetypal Other this necessarily entails deep conflict since the Orient is also frequently posited as the source of Western civilization which prohibits the articulation of a complete separation between Europe and the Orient Nevertheless according to French Orientalist discourse the East had fallen into barbarism inertia and languished awaiting the mission civilisatrice by which France undertook a heroic project of universal enlightenment The canonic approach to Orientalism has drawn much criticism which calls for re-examining the notion of French Orientalism broadening the scope of enquiry and exploring the history and ideological strategies behind French formulations of the Orient from the Middle Ages through the twenty-first century Such an expanded field of investigation reveals that the canonic Orientalist paradigm is not universally applicable particularly regarding material from before the late eighteenth century New theoretical literary historical philosophical and cultural perspectives provide the opportunity to question subvert and resituate canonic Orientalist theories revealing the continuing evolution and relevance of French Orientalism as a notion with global stakes and material consequences Because of its broad scope and variety of theoretical approaches this volume will interest scholars and students from a wide spectrum of disciplines including literature gender studies history theater art history music cinema and cultural studies

Imhotep Today Jean-Marcel Humbert, 2016-06-16 This book presents and analyses the results of the use and adaptation of ancient Egyptian architecture in modern times It traces the use of ancient Egyptian motifs and constructions across the world from Australia the Americas and Southern Africa to Western Europe It also inquires into the cultural economic and social contexts of this practice Imhotep Today is exceptional not only in its global coverage but in its analyses of thorny questions such as what was it about Ancient Egypt that inspired such Egyptianizing monuments and was it just one idea or several different ones which formed the basis of such activities The book also asks why only certain images such as obelisks and sphinxes were incorporated within the movement The contributors explore how these monuments fitted into the local architecture of the time and in this context they investigate whether Egyptianizing architecture is an ongoing movement and if so how it differs from earlier similar activities

Modernism, Romance and the Fin de Siècle Nicholas Daly, 2000-02-10 In Modernism Romance and the Fin de Siècle Nicholas Daly explores the popular fiction of the romance revival of the late Victorian and Edwardian years focusing on the work of such authors as Bram Stoker H Rider Haggard and Arthur Conan Doyle Rather than treating these stories as Victorian Gothic Daly locates them as part of a popular modernism Drawing on work in cultural studies this book argues that the vampires mummies and treasure hunts of these adventure narratives provided a form of narrative theory of cultural change at a time when Britain was trying to accommodate the new imperialism the rise of professionalism and the expansion of consumerist culture Daly's wide ranging study argues that the presence of a genre such as romance within modernism should force a questioning of the usual distinction between high and popular culture
