Short-title Catalogue of Eighteenth-century Spanish Books in the British Library: Catalogue A-L British Library, Harold G. Whitehead, 1994 Cat eight cen spa books in the British Libr v 3 Black Voices in Early Modern Spanish Literature, 1500-1750 Diana Berruezo-Sánchez, 2024-09-11 In this groundbreaking study Diana Berruezo Sánchez recovers key chapters in the history of Afro Iberian diasporas by exploring the literary contributions and life experiences of black African communities and individuals in early modern Spain From the sixteenth to the eighteenth centuries international trade involving chattel slavery led to significant populations of enslaved free d and half manumitted black African women men and children in the Iberian Peninsula These demographic changes transformed Spain s urban and social landscapes In exploring Spain s role in the transatlantic slave trade and its effects on cultural forms of the period Berruezo Sánchez examines a broad range of texts and unearths new documents relating to black African poets performers and black confraternities Her discoveries evince the broad yet largely disregarded literary and artistic impact of the African diaspora in early modern Spain expanding the scope of linguistic practices beyond habla de negros and creating space for early modern black poets in the Spanish literary canon These textual sources challenge established understandings of black Africans and black African history in early modern Spain They show how black Africans exerted significant cultural agency by collectively contributing to and shaping the literary texts of the period including those of the popular genre villancicos de negros and by developing artistic traditions as musicians dancers and poets As both creators and consumers of cultural forms black African men and women navigated a restrictive coercive slave society yet negotiated their own physical and cultural spaces Spanish Books in the Europe of the Enlightenment (Paris and London) Nicolás Bas Martín, 2018-02-12 In Spanish Books in the Europe of the Enlightenment Paris and London Nicolás Bas examines the image of Spain in eighteenth century Europe and in Paris and London in particular His material has been scoured from an exhaustive interrogation of the records of the book trade He refers to booksellers catalogues private collections auctions and other sources of information in order to reconstruct the country's cultural image Rarely have these sources been searched for Spanish books and never have they been as exhaustively exploited as they are in Bas book Both England and France were conversant with some very negative ideas about Spain The Black Legend dating back to the sixteenth century condemned Spain as repressive and priest ridden Bas shows however that an alternative more sympathetic vision ran parallel with these negative views His bibliographical approach brings to light the Spanish books that were bought sold and ultimately read The impression thus obtained is likely to help us understand not only Spain's past but also something of its present The Eighteenth Century Kevin L.
