

The book cover has a light beige background. At the top and bottom, there are clusters of autumn leaves in shades of red, orange, and yellow. In the center, a hand wearing a grey sleeve and a black wristband holds a dark cane. The title 'ELDER' is at the top and 'ABUSE' is at the bottom, both in large, brown, serif capital letters. They are enclosed within large, thin, dark brown square brackets. The background behind the text and hand is a soft-focus image of a green lawn.

Decision-Making, Personhood and Dementia Deborah O'Connor, Barbara Purves, 2009-04-15 Based on papers from the Centre for Research on Personhood in Dementia workshop experts discuss the interface between dementia personhood and decision making Drawing on a range of perspectives the book forges new understandings of relationships between informal decision making and formal biomedical or legal processes for assessing competence Handbook of Families and Aging Rosemary Blieszner, Victoria Hilkevitch Bedford, 2012-09-20 This comprehensive state of the art textbook and reference volume in family gerontology reviews and critiques the recent theoretical empirical and methodological literature identifies future research directions and makes recommendations for gerontology professionals This book is both an updated version of and a complement to the original Handbook of Families and Aging The many additions include the most recent demographic changes on aging families new theoretical formulations innovative research methods recent legal issues and death and bereavement as well as new material on the relationships themselves sibling partnered and intergenerational relationships for example Among the brand new topics in this edition are step family relationships aging families and immigration aging families and 21st century technology and peripheral family ties Unlike the more cursory summaries found in textbooks the essays within Handbook of Families and Aging Second Edition provide thoughtful in depth coverage of each topic No other book provides such a comprehensive and timely overview of theory and research on family relationships the contexts of family life and major turning points in late life families Nevertheless the contents are written to be engaging and accessible to a broad audience including advanced undergraduate students graduate students researchers and gerontology practitioners Serious lay readers will also find this book highly informative about contemporary family issues Aging, Ageism and Abuse Gloria Gutman, Charmaine Spencer, 2010-02-04 Population aging is occurring worldwide Reports of abuse and neglect of older men and women are also evident on a global basis While much of the work on identification treatment and prevention of abuse of older persons has been within the family setting it cannot be separated from the broader experience of growing old in contemporary society Time and time again issues around legislation policy and practice collide with human rights societal attitudes and stereotypes Raising awareness of the link among aging ageism and abuse is one goal of this book and a necessary first step in the battle to eliminate abuse and neglect of older persons But awareness is not enough action needs to be taken to develop case finding procedures and remedial and preventive policies and programs that are elder friendly both in intent and in the way that they are implemented This book offers a thought provoking examination of selected current policies and programs that have been developed within the health social services and criminal justice systems It highlights the special issues and vulnerabilities of older women older men and persons from the LGTB community It also features a unique approach to reaching young people through an educational program that shapes attitudes and behavior via graphic art Clear straightforward writing style reader does not have to contend with murky theories and obscure references Practical approach readers can relate to the examples that are provided of situations in which abuse and neglect has or can occur Religion, Belief and Social Work Furness, Sheila, Gilligan, Philip, 2009-11-18

This book examines how religion and related beliefs have varied impacts on the needs and perceptions of practitioners service users and the support networks available to them The authors argue that social workers need to understand these phenomena so that they can become more confident in challenging discriminatory and oppressive practices The centrality of religion and associated beliefs in the lives of many is emphasised as are their potentially liberating and potentially negative impacts In line with the Social Work in Practice series style the book allows readers to explore issues in depth It focuses on knowledge transmission and the encouragement of critical reflection on practice Each chapter is built around real life case scenarios using a problem based learning approach This book is the first to deal with social work and religion so comprehensively and will therefore be essential reading not only for social work students but also for practitioners in a range of areas social work academics and researchers in the UK and beyond Working with Aging Families Kathleen W.
