THE ELDER EDDA

A SELECTION

The Poetic or Elder Edda is a compilation made about A.D. 1200 of earlier Icelandic poems on cosmology, mythology, and the stories of Norse heroes. Together with the Prose or Younger Edda, it is the chief source of our knowledge of Scandinavian mythology.

This new translation—the result of a collaboration between a distinguished scholar and a major poet who has always felt a deep instinctive sympathy for the great masterpieces of Northern Europe—succeeds superbly in conveying the power, sharpness, and precision of the original. It is prefaced with a most helpful introduction by Professor Peter H. Salus and Paul B. Taylor.

different accounts of how language signifies in real and imaginary contexts and why people read and write rival realities Taking as point of departure Aristotle's definition of poesis it questions how literature stands in both mimetic and transformative relation to the givens of history reworking them within the order of imagination and desire Through historical linguistic and literary analysis of texts spanning nine centuries it demonstrates how though it is irreducible to reality literary imagination conveys something very real about the human response to the world including the knowledge and power proper to such experience neither history nor lie it discloses a reality purged of extraneous detail making what is essential to human experience more concentrated and dramatic Thus made apparent is that literature and history do not exclude each other but inform correct and supplement each other underscoring the complexities of thought and imagination
