Electronic Battlefield:

The Electronic Battlefield Paul Dickson,1976 Today s American Military is the most technologically advanced fighting force in the history of the world Drone aircraft spy on and attack and destroy designated targets acting on commands from half a world away Remote control warfare has come into the world forcing our society to face endless new questions from the morality of doing battle without risk to the emotional debate over whether drone operators can distinguish a band of terrorists from a group assembling for a wedding And the drones are merely the most dramatic and visible example of astonishing unstoppable technological advance in the military Battlefield sensors and satellite imagery provide a flood of information to commanders Computers themselves have become targets and weapons How did it get that way How and when were the decisions made the weapons created the strategies and tactics chosen that brought us to this point In this classic account Paul Dickson takes us back to the waning days of the Vietnam conflict and the earliest days of push button war and the startling story of the birth of The Electronic Battlefield   Masters of the Electronic Battlefield United States. Information Age The Marine Corps Gazette ,1980 The World According to Military Targeting Erik Reichborn-Kjennerud,2025-05-27 A revealing account of the prevalence and alarming ubiquity of military targeting and how it has become a self propelling worldview driven by dominance violence and power The World According to Military Targeting engages directly with our grave world condition asking how we ended up in a closed world made for military targeting by military targeting In this book Erik Reichborn Kjennerud explores how the operational logics and seductive forces of targeting produce a world in which the only ways to think about politics and security is through military supremacy endless war and global domination with serious implications for social and political life Offering a critical investigation of military targeting through the lenses of its historical formation current operations and future implications the author presents an innovative investigation into targeting s radical knowledge production how it abstracts and brings into being new worlds and the violence and destructive effects it generates Through an interdisciplinary lens the book draws attention to military doctrine and methodologies statistical thought and practice the mathematical and computational techniques of data production processing and modeling and the so called machine learning algorithms and AI of today The resulting narrative provides novel insights into how imagining the world producing the world and operationalizing the world are always wrapped up in each other and profoundly embedded in sociotechnical systems Predator Empire Ian G. R. Shaw,2016-08-15 What does it mean for human beings to exist in an era of dronified state violence How can we understand the rise of robotic systems of power and domination Focusing on U S drone warfare and its broader implications as no other book has to date Predator Empire argues that we are witnessing a transition from a labor intensive American empire to a machine intensive Predator Empire Moving from the Vietnam War to the War on Terror and beyond Ian G R Shaw reveals how changes in military strategy domestic policing and state surveillance have come together to enclose our planet in a robotic system of control The rise of drones presents a series of existential crises he suggests that are reengineering not only spaces of violence but also the character of the modern state Positioning drone warfare as part of a much longer project to watch and enclose the human species he shows that for decades centuries even human existence has slowly but surely been brought within the artificial worlds of technological civilization Instead of incarcerating us in prisons or colonizing territory directly the Predator Empire locks us inside a worldwide system of electromagnetic enclosure in which democratic ideals give way to a system of totalitarian control a machinic rule by Nobody As accessibly written as it is theoretically ambitious Predator Empire provides up to date information about U S drone warfare as well as an in depth history of the rise of drones Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals , The Development of Mine Warfare Norman E. Youngblood,2006-06-30 In 1997 the International Campaign to Ban Landmines ICBL coordinated the Convention on the Prohibition of the Use Stockpiling Production and Transfer of Anti Personnel Mines and on their Destruction As of mid 2005 145 states had signed the agreement The ICBL s efforts were in large part a response to the careless use of landmines in the previous fifty years The history of mine use in warfare however goes back much further than the World Wars of the 20th century and includes both land and sea use This first comprehensive study traces the technical tactical and ethical developments of mine warfare from ancient times to the present Beginning with mine warfare s roots in ancient Assyria and China Youngblood takes the reader through the centuries of debate about how these hidden weapons should be used A look at 19th century developments explores the intertwined development of land and sea mines and the inventors behind them including Robert Fulton Samuel Colt and Immanuel Nobel father of Alfred Nobel Subsequent chapters examine the use of mines in the American Civil War the Russo Japanese War both World Wars and the battlefields of the Cold War and chart key battles and technical innovations such as the development of air delivered munitions Finally the author addresses the ethical concerns raised by the careless mining namely the impact on civilians and the difficulties of de mining and the treaties that regulate landmine use Pax Britannica: British Counterinsurgency In Northern Ireland, 1969-1982 Montgomery McFate,2014-12-22 British forces conducted operations short of war in Northern Ireland for twenty five years yet they were unable to defeat the Provisional Irish Republican Army PIRA In this heretofore unpublished dissertation from 1994 McFate identifies how certain cultural legal and political factors contributed to the longevity of violence in Northern Ireland Viewing counterinsurgency as a self reproducing cultural system with its own complex logic McFate argues that limitations on violence prescribed by the counterinsurgency principle of minimum force paradoxically resulted in a very high degree of sustainability of conflict Certain other factors such as emergency security legislation reverence of military competence and geo strategic compression of violence within a cordon sanitaire enabled normalization and reproduction of the conflict In opposition to this order the 1981 Republican hungerstrikes used the silence of the body to incriminate the state embodying a resistance to the war system of counterinsurgency
