Garden & Home Builder William Tyler Miller, 1928 The Canadian Horticulturist, 1911 The Southern Planter, 1909 Exploring the Next Frontier Matthew Wilhelm Kapell, 2016-02-19 The 1960s and early 70s saw the evolution of Frontier Myths even as scholars were renouncing the interpretive value of myths themselves Works like Joe Haldeman's The Forever War exemplified that rejection using his experiences during the Vietnam War to illustrate the problematic consequences of simple mythic idealism Simultaneously Americans were playing with expanded and revised versions of familiar Frontier Myths though in a contemporary context through NASA's lunar missions Star Trek and Gerard K O'Neill's High Frontier This book examines the reasons behind the exclusion of Frontier Myths to the periphery of scholarly discourse and endeavors to build a new model for understanding their enduring significance This model connects NASA's failed attempts to recycle earlier myths wholesale to Star Trek's revision of those myths and rejection of the idea of a frontier paradise to O'Neill's desire to realize such a paradise in Earth's orbit This new synthesis defies the negative connotations of Frontier Myths during the 1960s and 70s and attempts to resuscitate them for relevance in the modern academic context

Progressive Farmer, 1911 Jesus and the Cosmos Denis Edwards, 2004-07-22 At the end of the twentieth century we began to understand that the earth is vulnerable that it is like a tiny garden in space under threat on all sides Jesus and the Cosmos is an attempt to think theologically about the ecological crisis we face in the light of the great Christian tradition Our theological tradition has been shaped within the worldview of a static universe By contrast we are told today that the universe began with a cosmic explosion called the Big Bang that we live in an expanding universe with galaxies rushing away from us at an enormous rate that we human beings are part of an evolutionary movement on the earth and that we are intimately linked with the health of delicately balanced life systems on our planet Not only has modern science given this age a new cosmology but contemporary historical studies have provided us with a new approach to the historical Jesus Critical biblical study has allowed us to know far more about the Jesus who brought joy and liberation into people s lives In Jesus and the Cosmos Denis Edwards tells the story of the cosmos the story of Jesus of Nazareth and shows their connections Ultimately he will assert Jesus of Nazareth risen from the dead IS the dynamic power at the heart of the cosmic process

Gardens and Human Agency in the Anthropocene Maria Paula Diogo, Ana Duarte Rodrigues, Ana Simões, Davide Scarso, 2019-04-26 This volume discusses gardens as designed landscapes of mediation between nature and culture embodying different levels of human control over wilderness defining specific rules for this confrontation and staging different forms of human dominance The contributing authors focus on ways of rethinking the garden and its role in contemporary society using it as a crossover platform between nature science and technology Drawing upon their diverse fields of research including History of Science and Technology Environmental Studies Gardens and Landscape Studies Urban Studies and Visual and Artistic Studies the authors unveil various entanglements woven in the past between nature and culture and probe the potential of alternative epistemologies to escape the predicament of fatalistic dystopias that often revolve around the Anthropocene debate This book will be of great interest to those studying environmental and landscape history the history of science and technology historical geography and the environmental humanities Garden Magazine and Home Builder, 1922
