Impressionist Gardens Judith Bumpus, 1990 A compilation of paintings of gardens by Impressionist artists A popular subject for artists such as Monet Renoir Pissarro and Sisley their work captures their celebration of fresh air of greenery and of colourful settings on a domestic scale In the Gardens of Impressionism Clare A. P. Willsdon, 2004 From Manet's earliest depictions of the Tuileries Gardens in Paris to Monet's late waterlilies painted at Giverny the Impressionists had an ongoing love affair with gardens As places of rest relaxation and beauty gardens were the Impressionist subject par excellence This beautifully illustrated volume is the first consideration of this beloved theme in the Impressionists work Here the artists' fascination with gardens parks and flowers is explored in the context of the contemporary craze for horticulture and the changing political and cultural landscape in France Drawing on archival sources such as horticultural journals as well as literature poetry and correspondence the book describes how gardens simultaneously modern and imbued with nostalgia were central to the Impressionists' discovery of their distinctive plein air out of doors style At the same time by bringing to life the 19th century tradition of oral symbolism and exploring how it infiltrated the work of key Impressionists the book gives familiar works radical new interpretations This vital contribution to our understanding of the Impressionist world is sure to delight art and gardening enthusiasts alike French Impressionist Gardens 2019 Calendar Harry N Abrams Inc, 2018-08-07 From lush lawns and overgrown gardens to neatly manicured parks and grounds this 16 month mini calendar celebrates beautiful works of masterful French Impressionist artists including Claude Monet Georges Seurat and Camille Pissarro who took to painting en plein air intent on capturing the natural quality of light around them

Impressionist Gardens Clare A. P. Willsdon, 2010 Post Impressionism The American Impressionists in the Garden May Brawley Hill, 2010 At the end of the nineteenth century American artists demonstrated a preference for gardens as artistic motifs as well as a growing appreciation of the art of gardening itself The range of color and the variation in form and silhouette made the garden a compelling subject for a large number of painters inclined toward the Impressionist style Early twentieth century America witnessed a mania for the garden and the interest in the art of gardening dominated many aspects of domestic life Publications and articles offered gardening advice for Americans while also asserting that the art of gardening paralleled the art of painting The exhibition catalog The American Impressionists in the Garden explores the theme of the garden in American art and society of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries May Brawley Hill s essay discusses a range of themes including the Impressionist fascination for gardens the history of garden design comparisons between European and American garden paintings images of women and the art colony movement as well as providing detailed readings of the specific gardens painted and cultivated by these artists Besides the forty four color plates depicting European and American gardens by American artists the catalog includes some historic photographs of artists in garden settings These allow the reader to examine the relationship between the garden as photographed and the garden as painted The catalog looks at garden paintings from Holland France Italy and England and from different regions in the United States including the Northeast Southeast Southwest and West Coast Garden sculpture was an essential element of garden design and the catalog also features images of a number of small scale bronzes and other statuary for garden environments This book has been developed to accompany a 2010 exhibition at Cheekwood Botanical Garden Museum of Art
