Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory Irene Rima Makaryk, 1993-01-01 The last half of the twentieth century has seen the emergence of literary theory as a new discipline As with any body of scholarship various schools of thought exist and sometimes conflict within it I R Makaryk has compiled a welcome guide to the field Accessible and jargon free the Encyclopedia of Contemporary Literary Theory provides lucid concise explanations of myriad approaches to literature that have arisen over the past forty years Some 170 scholars from around the world have contributed their expertise to this volume Their work is organized into three parts In Part I forty evaluative essays examine the historical and cultural context out of which new schools of and approaches to literature arose The essays also discuss the uses and limitations of the various schools and the key issues they address Part II focuses on individual theorists It provides a more detailed picture of the network of scholars not always easily pigeonholed into the categories of Part I This second section analyses the individual achievements as well as the influence of specific scholars and places them in a larger critical context Part III deals with the vocabulary of literary theory It identifies significant complex terms places them in context and explains their origins and use Accessibility is a key feature of the work By avoiding jargon providing mini bibliographies and cross referencing throughout Makaryk has provided an indispensable tool for literary theorists and historians and for all scholars and students of contemporary criticism and culture Gaston Bachelard Et Les Elements Michel Mansuy, 1967 Poetics of Imagining Richard Kearney, 2019-07-31 No detailed description available for Poetics of Imagining The Elements in the Medieval World, 2024-11-18 The fourteen chapters and poem of this volume reflect the centrality of the element Earth in medieval thought and life a centrality inherited from classical antiquity and fundamental too in Judaeo Christian and Islamic traditions The chapters also reflect the multifarious nature of the ways that Earth was experienced and understood in the Middle Ages Contributors are Sophie E D Abrahams Daniel Anlezark Marilina Cesario Catherine Clarke James Davis Stephen J Davis Virginia Iommi Echeverr a Andrew Fear Danielle B Joyner Hugh Magennis Francesco Marzella Tom C B McLeish Patrick Naeve Bernard O Donoghue Sin ad O Sullivan Alexandra Paddock Elisa Ramazzina Hannah E Smithson Sigbj rn O S nnesyn Sin ad O Sullivan and Margaret Tedford Perception Des Éléments Dans Les Traditions Hindoues Maya Burger, Peter Schreiner, 1999 The essays in this volume represent contributions to an international symposium held at the University of Lausanne on June 19 20 1998 organized by DIHSR Du lien des êtres aux éléments de l'être Emmanuel de Saint-Aubert, 2004 Cet ouvrage se consacre une p riode encore mal connue de l volution du philosophe les ann es 1945 1951 Pendant cette phase de transition indispensable la compr hension de la gen se des derniers crits Merleau Ponty commence se lib rer des concepts classiques pour s acheminer vers deux l ments capitaux de sa pens e la chair et l empi tement A partir du bilan moral et politique de 1945 il fait de l empi tement une figure de la modernit et travaille en lui l alliance singuli re de pessimisme et d optimisme par laquelle il veut traduire sa propre version de l existentialisme Dans une complicit significative

 Gandy, 2014-11-07 A study of water at the intersection of landscape and infrastructure in Paris Berlin Lagos Mumbai Los Angeles and London Water lies at the intersection of landscape and infrastructure crossing between visible and invisible domains of urban space in the tanks and buckets of the global South and the vast subterranean technological networks of the global North In this book Matthew Gandy considers the cultural and material significance of water through the experiences of six cities Paris Berlin Lagos Mumbai Los Angeles and London Tracing the evolving relationships among modernity nature and the urban imagination from different vantage points and through different periods Gandy uses water as a lens through which to observe both the ambiguities and the limits of nature as conventionally understood Gandy begins with the Parisian sewers of the nineteenth century captured in the photographs of Nadar and the reconstruction of subterranean Paris He moves on to Weimar era Berlin and its protection of public access to lakes for swimming the culmination of efforts to reconnect the city with nature He considers the threat of malaria in Lagos where changing geopolitical circumstances led to large scale swamp drainage in the 1940s He shows how the dysfunctional water infrastructure of Mumbai offers a vivid expression of persistent social inequality in a postcolonial city He explores the incongruous concrete landscapes of the Los Angeles River Finally Gandy uses the fictional scenario of a partially submerged London as the starting point for an investigation of the actual hydrological threats facing that city      The Poetics of Yves Bonnefoy John Naughton, 1984-06 Yves Bonnefoy is the most important and influential French poet to have emerged since the Second World War Poet art critic historian translator particularly of Shakespeare specialist in the problem of the relation of poetry to the visual arts and to the history of religions Bonnefoy is now considered one of the most distinguished men of letters of his generation Though Bonnefoy's work is familiar to American scholars the complexity of his thought and style has created a need for a critical introduction to his work This first major study of Bonnefoy written in English provides an overview of his entire literary career Naughton situates Bonnefoy in the context of the existential philosophical tradition that nurtured him and in the poetic and artistic tradition that includes Dante and Shakespeare Piero and Poussin Baudelaire and Rimbaud Bonnefoy's poems appear in both French and English and all quotations from his prose have been translated This book will appeal not only to the growing number of students and scholars of French literature interested in Bonnefoy's work but also to those who study comparative poetry and the relation of poetry to art and to contemporary religious thought      The Cambridge

 Selden, 1989 Volume 8 of The Cambridge History of Literary Criticism deals with the most influential and hotly debated areas of literary theory those developing in Europe but having their main impact in the Anglo American world of academic literary studies whose course they have fundamentally redirected The structuralism poststructuralism Russian formalism semiotics narratology hermeneutics phenomenology reception theory and speech act theory associated with European writers including Barthes Todorov Derrida and Iser are here described in the context of their original development but with an eye also to their eventual influence and the volume includes a reflective chapter by Richard Rorty on deconstruction Incorporating full bibliographies this volume engages systematically with the history of the twentieth century's most profound and extensive set of cross cultural intellectual movements The inner structure of Wuthering heights Elisabeth Th. Jolas, 1979 Structuralist Analysis in Contemporary Social Thought (RLE Social Theory) Miriam Glucksmann, 2014-08-21 The primary concern of this book is to investigate whether or not structuralism constitutes a distinctive framework in the social sciences The author focuses on two major structuralist thinkers Louis Althusser and Claude Lévi Strauss She analyses and compares the structure of their theory and places them within the context of their respective disciplines Dr Glucksmann began working on this book at a time when structuralism was at the height of its popularity in France and was thought to be a homogenous alternative to bourgeois sociology The progress of her study implicitly reflects the developments and divergences within structuralist thought that have emerged since then In particular she examines the differences between the political and philosophical thought of Althusser and Lévi Strauss which have become increasingly manifest Rites of Passage in Postcolonial Women's Writing Pauline Dodgson-Katiyo, Gina Wisker, 2010 Pauline Dodgson Katiyo is Head of Humanities at Sheffield Hallam University Her research focus is on African literature particularly Zimbabwean contemporary women's writing and postcolonial cinemas The Drowned Muse Anne-Gaëlle Saliot, 2015 The Drowned Muse is a study of the extraordinary destiny in the history of European culture of an object which could seem at first glance quite ordinary in the history of European culture It tells the story of a mask the cast of a young girl's face entitled L'Inconnue de la Seine the Unknown Woman of the Seine and its subsequent metamorphoses as a cultural figure Legend has it that the Inconnue drowned herself in Paris at the end of the nineteenth century The forensic scientist tending to her unidentified corpse at the Paris Morgue was supposedly so struck by her allure that he captured in plaster the contours of her face This unknown girl also called The Mona Lisa of Suicide has since become the object of an obsessive interest that started in the late 1890s reached its peak in the 1930s and continues to reverberate today Aby Warburg defines art history as a ghost story for grown ups This study is similarly a ghost story for grown ups narrating the aura of a cultural object that crosses temporal geographical and linguistic frontiers It views the Inconnue as a symptomatic expression of a modern world haunted by the earlier modernity of the nineteenth century It also investigates how the mask s metamorphoses reflect major shifts in the cultural history of the last two centuries approaching the Inconnue as an entry point to understand a phenomenon characteristic of 20th and 21st century modernity the translatability of media Doing so this study mobilizes discourses surrounding the Inconnue casting them as points of negotiation through which we may consider the modern age

A Shifting Shore Alice Garner,2018-07-05 How does tourism transform fishing communities into vibrant resorts working shores into bathing beaches In A Shifting Shore Alice Garner traces the ways fisherfolk bathers investors and engineers understood claimed and remade the shores of the Bassin d Arcachon a prime fishing and oyster farming site in southwestern France over the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Garner s interest in the coastline a zone that resists all attempts at definition shapes this generously illustrated book Rather than taking a straightforward chronological approach to the settlement and evolution of the towns of Arcachon and La Teste Garner investigates the development of the Bassin d Arcachon s southern shores with the aim of recovering something of the lived space experienced by locals and visitors Drawing on guidebooks newspapers bylaws engineers reports medical pamphlets postcards and the accounts of literary minded holidaymakers Garner shows how investors and developers transformed Arcachon and its community beaches were rezoned and jetties constructed to favor bathers and a new railway line brought ever increasing numbers of visitors to the area She explores how fishermen and women resisted developments that threatened their livelihood or their particular sense of belonging and shows how they adapted to the changing environment and to their new roles as guides and entertainers A Shifting Shore while anchored in Arcachon and La Teste has much to contribute to a nuanced understanding of relations between hosts and guests in any community
