Roggwiller,2012-12-06 The Brown Boveri Symposia are by now part of firmly established tradition This is the seventh event in a series which was initiated shortly afer Corporate Research was established as a separate entity within our Company the Symposia are held every other year The themes to date have been 1969 Flow Research on Blading 1971 Real Time Control of Electric Power Systems 1973 High Temperature Materials in Gas Turbines 1975 Nonemissive Electrooptic Displays 1977 Current Interruption in High Voltage Networks 1979 Surges in High Voltage Networks 1981 Semiconductor Devices for Power Conditioning Why have we chosen these titles At the outset we established certain selection criteria we felt that a subject for a Symposium should fulfill the following require ments It should characterize a part of a thoroughly scientific discipline in other words it should describe an area of scholarly study and research It should be of current interest in the sense that important results have recently been obtained and considerable research effort is underway in the international scientific community It should bear some relation to the scientific and technological activity of our Company Let us look at the requirement current interest Some of the topics on the list have been the subject of research for several decades some even from the beginning of the century One might wonder then why such fields could be regarded as particularly timely in the 1960s and 1970s A few remarks on this subject therefore are in order

Passenger Terminals and Trains John Albert Droege, 1916 At the noontide of the American passenger train the general superintendent of the passenger oriented New Haven Railroad addressed himself to the rail carriage of people in a lucid book that could be comprehended by anyone but that as Railway Age Gazette noted would be wanted in every railroad officer's library From the size of waiting rooms to the demeanor of redcaps from the contest between A C and D C electrification to the menus of dining cars no subject pertinent to the world of passenger terminals and trains in the year 1916 escaped the experienced eye of John A Droege Thus unconsciously he penned what is in retrospect a masterful history of how the railroads reacted when a restless growing America besieged the gates of Union Station intent upon purchasing tickets to everywhere from Passaic to Pasadena Kalmbach has faithfully reproduced all 410 pages of the original edition of Droege's Passenger Terminals and Trains which include 25 track diagrams 31 station floor plans 163 photos and an index and has taken the measure of the volume in a special introduction by Prof George W Hilton An outstanding contribution to railroad literature
