Gather I 3260 H:

Pastoral Music ,1991 The Electrical Journal ,1908 Collecting Experiments Bruno J. Strasser,2019-06-07

Databases have revolutionized nearly every aspect of our lives Information of all sorts is being collected on a massive scale from Google to Facebook and well beyond But as the amount of information in databases explodes we are forced to reassess our ideas about what knowledge is how it is produced to whom it belongs and who can be credited for producing it Every scientist working today draws on databases to produce scientific knowledge Databases have become more common than microscopes voltmeters and test tubes and the increasing amount of data has led to major changes in research practices and profound reflections on the proper professional roles of data producers collectors curators and analysts Collecting Experiments traces the development and use of data collections especially in the experimental life sciences from the early twentieth century to the present It shows that the current revolution is best understood as the coming together of two older ways of knowing collecting and experimenting the museum and the laboratory Ultimately Bruno J Strasser argues that by serving as knowledge repositories as well as indispensable tools for producing new knowledge these databases function as digital museums for the twenty first century Index to the Subjects of the Documents and Reports and to the Committees, Senators, and Representatives Presenting Them ,1903
