Gather Round Me The Best Of Irish Popular Poetry:

Gather Round Me Christopher Cahill, 2005-02-12 Gather round me all ye ladies fair And ye gentlemen of renown Listen listen and to me repair Whilst I sing of beauteous Dublin town The Irish have long been associated with great writing generally and with poetry specifically The love of language pervades this strong culture and the Irish people have long shared poetry with each other whether in the street in the home or in the pub These poems may be bawdy or tragic but there is always something quintessentially Irish about them In Gather Round Me Christopher Cahill has put together a collection of the best of these popular poems found in newspapers heard in pubs or put down in diaries With explanatory notes that make the verse more accessible these poems give voice to the Irish character full of humor mischief and wit Gather Round Me Christopher Cahill, 2004 Drawing on work published and shared from the eighteenth to the twentieth centuries an anthology presents the best of Irish popular poetry found in newspapers heard in pubs or scribbled down in diaries and including work by anonymous balladeers as well as famous Irish poets such as W B Yeats and Brendan Behan

Contemporary Irish Writing and Environmentalism Donna L. Potts, 2018-09-19 This book examines how the Irish environmental movement which began gaining momentum in the 1970s has influenced and been addressed by contemporary Irish writers artists and musicians It examines Irish environmental writing music and art within their cultural contexts considers how postcolonial ecocriticism might usefully be applied to Ireland and analyzes the rhetoric of Irish environmental protests It places the Irish environmental movement within the broader contexts of Irish national and postcolonial discourses focusing on the following protests the M3 Motorway the Burren campaign the Carnsore Point anti nuclear protest Shell to Sea the turf debate and the animal rights movement In a Harbour Green George O'Brien, 2019-07-29 Novelist short story writer critic memoirist broadcaster and journalist Benedict Kiely 1919 2007 was not only one of the best known but one of the most artistically and culturally distinctive men of letters of his day His fascination with the island of Ireland the myths and memories of its people and the many voiced quality of its traditions has secured for him a unique place in the country's literary history His substantial body of fiction and non fiction is a repository of lore and learning and amply rewards not only the interest shown in it over many years by his popularity among the general public but also that of Irish and international literary scholarship Strangely however despite his renowned reputation and canonical status Kiely remains a writer whose work has generated surprisingly little secondary literature academic or otherwise This charming collection of twelve essays by some of Ireland's foremost writers and esteemed international critics in this his centenary year will breathe new life into Kiely's work and place him back where he belongs at the heart of Irish literature The Recorder, 2003 American
