Gathering Of Wishes:

A Gathering of Spiritual Riches St. Tikhon of Zadonsk, 2023-03-15 As a merchant gathers various goods from different countries and carries them home and stores them up so the Christian may gather edifying thoughts and lay them up in the storeroom of his heart and enrich his soul with them Drawing upon numerous examples from daily life and human relationships St Tikhon weaves together wisdom on how to live a life pleasing to God His words are frequently embellished by scripture and together these call the reader to repentance and a fuller embrace of godly living In a world that typically only values material goods his writing constantly reminds the reader of that which is of true value the knowledge and love of God The reader also finds encouragement in the struggle to overcome sin and to acquire virtue which is the fundamental battle of the Christian as the war is waged against the passions It is a fight worth the effort St Tikhon's message is clear True riches are not of this world but of the age to come These riches both can and should be acquired now As the reader progresses deeper into this work his soul will find refreshment purpose and meaning for his life

A Dozen Deepest Wishes Katya Romanoff, 2013-04-18 Making comparison is in human nature We constantly compare ourselves and others to somebody like ourselves whether we want to or not Poets and artists take this a step further and draw parallels between people and other beings or objects such as animals or even inanimate objects Or we compare the objects to people attributing human qualities to them But in the big scheme of things this is not important comparisons could really work both ways Let's say you want to compare yourself with a flower so what flower would you be On the other hand if you are looking closely at a forget me not for example what type of person do you imagine What really prompted me to write this poem was my long term fascination with flowers Contemplation of their amazing lines and shapes led to reflections on their imaginable characters and fates What occupation or pursuit would each flower have What lifestyle would it choose How would it treat others around him In short what would happen if flowers lived by the same rules as humans But that's not all Each one of us wishes for something It happens sometimes that our dreams and aspirations become the main drive in our lives They prompt us to action and make us who we are Perhaps that's how it should be Only we as humans should be responsible for our wishes and for the effect they may have on us and others if they were to come true It goes without saying wishing along is not enough We must actually do something to turn our wishes into reality And if you are sure that your wishes are good and philanthropic then go for it The whole universe will be on your side That's what this poem is about and I really hope it will resonate in your heart
