The Wolves of God Algernon Blackwood, 2015-10-27 As the little steamer entered the bay of Kettletoft in the Orkneys the beach at Sanday appeared so low that the houses almost seemed to be standing in the water and to the big dark man leaning over the rail of the upper deck the sight of them came with a pang of mingled pain and pleasure The scene to his eyes had not changed The houses the low shore the flat treeless country beyond the vast open sky all looked exactly the same as when he left the island thirty years ago to work for the Hudson Bay Company in distant N W Canada A lad of eighteen then he was now a man of forty eight old for his years and this was the home coming he had so often dreamed about in the lonely wilderness of trees where he had spent his life Yet his grim face wore an anxious rather than a tender expression The return was perhaps not quite as he had pictured it Jim Peace had not done too badly however in the Company's service For an islander he would be a rich man now he had not married he had saved the greater part of his salary and even in the far away Post where he had spent so many years there had been occasional opportunities of the kind common to new wild countries where life and law are in the making He had not hesitated to take them None of the big Company Posts it was true had come his way nor had he risen very high in the service in another two years his turn would have come yet he had left of his own accord before those two years were up His decision judging by the strength in the features was not due to impulse the move had been deliberately weighed and calculated he had renounced his opportunity after full reflection A man with those steady eyes with that square jaw and determined mouth certainly did not act without good reason I THE WOLVES OF GOD 1 2 3 II CHINESE MAGIC 1 2 3 4 5 VI THE VALLEY OF THE BEASTS 1 2 3 VIII EGYPTIAN SORCERY 1 2 3 X THE MAN WHO FOUND OUT 1 2 3 4 5 6 XI THE EMPTY SLEEVE 1 2 3 4 5 XIV THE LANE THAT RAN EAST AND WEST 1 2 XV VENGEANCE IS MINE 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Anthology of 20 Stories: Ghost Anish Deb,2019-07-08 20 spine chilling Ghost stories by the Masters of the Game such as Edgar Allan Poe Ambrose Bierce Guy de Maupassant Arthur Conan Doyle A M Burrage This anthology curated by BEE Books is sure to freeze your senses and make your blood run cold Synopations Jed Rasula,2004-05-18 An analysis of the sustaining vitality behind contemporary American poetry from 1975 to the 2003 these 12 essays examine both exemplary innovators and the social context in which innovation is resisted acclaimed or taken for granted Uvajuq David F. Pelly,Kim Crockatt,1999-06-30 The story of Uvajuq oo va yook is rooted in a time when people and animals lived in such harmony and unity that they could speak to each other For Inuit as for people whose traditions include the story of the Garden of Eden this idyllic existence came to an abrupt end a long time ago The story told here in words and pictures speaks of that ancient event and of the transition to an existence where a different kind of sharing prevails This old Inuit legend has recently taken on an entirely new dimension in Cambridge Bay with the uncovering of a unique array of artifacts during an archaeological survey of the hill known as Uvajuq The mysterious find offers a compelling confluence of myth and reality The legend of Uvajuq as told here was collected from a group of Inuit elders in the Nunavut community of Cambridge Bay 300 kilometres north of the Arctic Circle On the surface it is the story of how three prominent hills near the community were formed Underlying that is a tale of much deeper significance The American Poetry Anthology Daniel Halpern,2019-03-04 This book aims to gather a selection that represents the diversity and richness of American poetry written by poets who share a sophistication that promises to evolve with continued effort and risk a new and powerful poetic idiom Narrative Research on Learning Sheila Trahar,2006-05-15 This book examines narrative research from a range of different perspectives It discusses international and comparative experiences of doing narrative research on learning paying particular attention to the cultural contexts within which the research is conducted The ways in which narrative research can address some of the methodological and epistemological issues faced in conducting insightful and systematic research across cultures are also included The book's approach is essentially an integrated one exploring narrative as methodology in both theoretical and practical terms It also emphasises the ethical issues that need to be considered by researchers engaged in this form of enquiry particularly where cultural and religious contexts have a significant impact on research The first section of the book considers different perspectives on narrative as methodology including its value in particular cultural contexts The second section provides readers with international and comparative perspectives on the practical application of narrative methodology in a wide range of arenas worldwide This combination of methodological issues with practical examples provides opportunities to examine how narrative as a methodology is applied in a range of real world situations This original and imaginative volume bridges the professional and intellectual cultures and traditions of comparative and international education with those of counselling to show the rich benefits of such cross fertilisation It will be of interest to researchers in education and across the social sciences as well as those involved in teaching research methodology and those concerned with the complex ethical issues inherent in cross cultural research
