Gato Tuerto:

The Whole Island Mark Weiss, 2009-11-25 Cuba's cultural influence throughout the Western Hemisphere and especially in the United States has been disproportionately large for so small a country. This landmark volume is the first comprehensive overview of poetry written over the past sixty years. Presented in a beautiful Spanish-English face edition, The Whole Island makes available the astonishing achievement of a wide range of Cuban poets, including such well-known figures as Nicolás Guillén, José Lezama Lima, and Nancy Morejón, but also poets widely read in Spanish who remain almost unknown to the English-speaking world, among them Fina García Marruz, José Kozer, Raúl Hernández Novés, and Angel Escobar, and poets born since the Revolution like Rogelio Saunders, Omar Pérez, Alessandra Molina, and Javier Marín. The translations, almost all of them new, convey the intensity and beauty of the accompanying Spanish originals. With their work deeply rooted in Cuban culture, many of these poets, both on and off the island, have been at the center of the political and social changes of this tempestuous period. The poems offered here constitute an essential source for understanding the literature and culture of Cuba, its diaspora, and the Caribbean at large, and provide an unparalleled perspective on what it means to be Cuban.

Cuban Studies 18 Carmelo Mesa-Lago, 1988-10-01 Essays in volume 18 include discussions of Cuba's approach to the Latin American debt crisis, its two-century-old race problem, and its impact on Cuba's relations with Africa; differences between urban and rural living conditions and development; and the recent housing situation in Cuba. Examinations of scholarly research include a survey of major historical works on Cuba over the past twenty-five years and an analysis of how the revolution has affected the scholar's craft and access to manuscripts and archives. The Debate section features comments on discussions in Cuban Studies 17 of sex and gender relations in today's Cuba, as well as the ongoing issue of Cuba's economic planning and management system.
