The Power of Picture Books in Teaching Math and Science Lynn Columbia, 2017-05-12. This book's 50 plus lessons each based on a different picture book or story will help classroom teachers build a foundation for teaching math, science and social studies concepts to their students. Each lesson uses children's literature to make challenging abstract concepts relevant to children's lives, inviting them to learn these concepts while responding to a story's illustrations, theme, characters and plot. The lessons also demonstrate how teachers can use children's literature to meet national standards in math, science and social studies. Chapters 1 through 5 set the stage for using picture books, discussing the effective imaginative integration of literature into the classroom. Teachers will learn to create an environment that ensures that when children and books come together the experience is enjoyable and thought provoking. Chapters 6 through 9 provide individual lessons by grade level with detailed activities based on specific books.

Unheard Of John Beckwith, 2012-04-20. Canadian composer John Beckwith recounts his early days in Victoria, his studies in Toronto with Alberto Guerrero, his first compositions and his later studies in Paris with the renowned Nadia Boulanger, of whom he offers a comprehensive personal view. In the memoir's central chapters Beckwith describes his activities as a writer, university teacher, scholar and administrator. Then turning to his creative output, he considers his compositions for instrumental music, his four operas, choral music and music for voice. A final chapter touches on his personal and family life and his travel adventures. For over sixty years John Beckwith has participated in national musical initiatives in music education, promotion and publishing. He has worked closely with performing groups such as the Orford Quartet and the Canadian Brass and conductors such as Elmer Iseler and Georg Tintner. A former reviewer for the Toronto Star and a CBC script writer and programmer in the 1950s and 60s, he later produced many articles and books on musical topics. Acting under Robert Gill and Dora Mavor Moore in student days and married for twenty years to actor-director Pamela Terry, he witnessed first hand the growth of Toronto theatre. He has collaborated with the writers Jay Macpherson, Margaret Atwood, Dennis Lee and bpNichol and teamed repeatedly with James Reaney, a close friend. His life story is a slice of Canadian cultural history.
